Rescheduling Faculty Forum and Thank You to Facilities Crews

Fellow Faculty and Staff:

There are two matters about which I need to communicate with our faculty and staff on this Friday afternoon.

First is the rescheduling of the faculty forum which Provost Emslie and Vice President Baylis will lead. The forum will cover a range of important academic matters. It will occur on Friday, March 25, at 3:00 p.m. in the DUC Auditorium. All faculty are encouraged to attend.

Second is the need to compliment our Facilities crews for the extra effort in responding to recent winter weather conditions. The Grounds crew—backed up by many others in the Department of Facilities Management—worked hard to clear our streets and walks to make sure our campus was as safe as possible and that we experienced as little disruption as possible. Our Building Services Attendants also worked hard to keep our buildings clean and free of the salt and slush which gets tracked across our floors and carpets.

Friday is Spirit Day—so let's show some Big Red Spirit to our Facilities Crews for keeping our campus safe and clean! Cheers to all!
