WKU Libraries

Creating
YOUR CONNECTION TO THE WORLD

WKU Libraries is now offering SelectedWorks™ – an easy method for faculty and other professionals to showcase their scholarly accomplishments through the Internet. With SelectedWorks™ you can create a professional site and make your research available to others in a simple process that requires no technical skills and only minutes of your time. It's as easy as the following steps:

1. Go to http://works.bepress.com
2. Click on the green start button
3. Create an account (access code: scholarship), then regular login password
4. Upload your content

To answer any questions or to walk you through the process, please contact Connie Foster at 745-6151 or connie.foster@wku.edu.

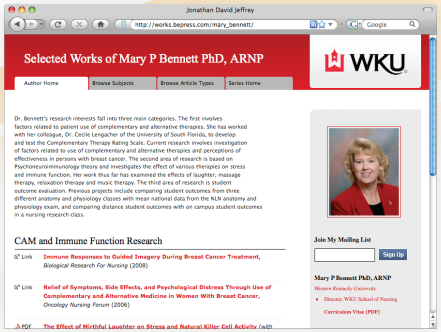
SelectedWorks™ is integrated with TopSCHOLAR® – The Research and Creative Activity Database of WKU. This online system preserves and disseminates the intellectual output of our University community, making it available to researchers worldwide. For more information, visit digitalcommons.wku.edu or contact topscholar@wku.edu.

Presenting
YOUR ONLINE LIBRARY



Easy Upload & Editing

You can create your own publishing platform in minutes. Post full text, link to another site, or simply cite your work.

Freedom & Flexibility

You decide how to share your work with the world. You can post articles, book chapters, presentations, speeches, preprints or any other materials you decide.* Determine your own subject categories to reflect the breadth and depth of your work. *Copyright restrictions may apply.

Customize & Manage

You control your content. Remove a paper or upload a revised version. Grant others administrative privileges to assist with your site. Announce your latest research and upload new research as you determine.

Networking & Permanency

Your research is indexed by Google Scholar and other leading search engines. Colleagues can learn of your new publications through mailing lists and research tools. Keep track of your downloads with statistical reports. Your permanent web address allows direct results always.
