BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Robert Beasley was born and raised in Caneyville, Kentucky. He married his high school sweetheart in 1944; they had a son, Robert, Jr., in September 1944. Beasley, Sr. joined the U.S. Army in August 1944. After receiving training at Camp Benjamin Harrison in Indiana and Camp Robinson in Arkansas, Beasley served with the 84th U.S. Infantry Division in Germany. He served a full year in Germany in addition to seeing action in France and Belgium; he was promoted to Sergeant in September 1945. After the war was over Beasley was moved to Austria, where he served briefly with occupation forces. Beasley returned home in March 1946.

COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists of letters written by Robert Beasley, Sr. to his girlfriend and later wife, Louise (Buckles) Beasley. The early letters (1942-43) are courtship letters, but the bulk of the collection is written between 1944 and 1946, when Beasley was serving in the U.S. Army during World War II. There is one letter written from Louise to her husband dated 17 January 1946. The letters express Robert's desire to be with his wife and son, expound on everyday Army life, and occasionally relate war news.
