of Bowling Green & Warren County

Vol. 4 No. 12

JUNE 1984

VIEW ON BARREN RIVER, BOWLING GREEN, KY.

GOLDEN AGE OF POSTCARDS

Mr. Ray Buckberry will be Landmark's guest speaker at the association's June meeting scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 27th at the Bowling Green Public Library.

Mr. Buckberry will present "The Golden Age of Postcards," a slide program featuring his collection of postcards depicting scenes of Bowling Green and Warren County at the turn of the century. Prior to Mr. Buckberry's program, Mrs. Ward C. Sumpter will be presented with the 1984 Heritage Award.

Mr. David Coffey has invited those who will be attending the June meeting to tour the Bishop F. Russell House, 1242 Chestnut Street. This post-Victorian structure, built by Bishop F. Russell circa 1906, replaced an earlier house located on the property. Mr. Coffey has owned this house since 1980 and is rehabilitating the structure for use as his residence and a rental unit. ## LETTER TO THE MEMBERSHIP

Dear Landmark Members:

A mere thank you seems inadequate to say to the many Landmark Association members who helped in so many ways with Bowling Green's first Decorators' Show House. It was with great pleasure that I presented each sponsoring organization with an initial $3,000 check last week as a result of the project. Once the books are closed, each organization should receive an additional $1,000.

I do think that the Show House was a good project for Landmark to co-sponsor and hope that we can do it again.

Thanks again to all our members who helped with the project's various committees and activities. I am grateful to you for your help and co-operation.

Sincerely,

Romana V. Johnson

WARREN COUNTY ARCHITECTURE

Architecture of Warren County, Kentucky 1790-1940 is now available through the Landmark office. This publication is an architectural overview of Warren County containing several sections highlighting the county's historic districts, Oakland, Smiths Grove and Woodburn in addition to other structures throughout the county.

Illustrated with over 250 photographs, this guide features several special sections including a full list of surveyed properties not pictured, a select bibliography, architect index, contractor index, style index, building form index and a fold-out copy of the 1877 D.G. Beers and Company map of Warren County.

Architecture of Warren County, Kentucky 1790-1940 has a cover price of $10.50. As a benefit of membership, Landmark members are able to purchase this catalog at $7.88, a 25% discount off the full cover price. These catalogs are available at the Landmark office or they may be purchased through the mail for an additional $1.30 postage and handling. For further information contact the Landmark office, P.O. Box 1812, Bowling Green, KY 42101, (502)781-8106.

Landmark thanks the following members for their continued support of the organization for the fiscal year July 1, 1984 through June 30, 1985. Landmark's accomplishments in preserving the historic and cultural resources of Warren County can not occur without the help of its membership. Your support and participation is appreciated.

Landmark's 1983-1984 members should have received renewal notices for the coming year. Please remember that your tax deductible membership is one of Landmark's major funding sources. As Landmark enters its eighth year of community service, we would like to begin by retaining each of our 462 members for the 1984-1985 year.

We look forward to your continued participation in the important work we are doing in our community. Should you have any questions regarding your membership, contact the office at 781-8106.
