THE NAMELESS RHYME

(Ruby Luther)

Since English Three demands a song,

I'll try as best I may;

Though I must struggle hard and long

To write a rhyme today.

First thing I must select a name,

But most of them I pass,

I will not have one just the same

As others in the class.

I'm sure, my friend, of such as these;

The Spring, The Wind, The Flower,

Although I know they all will please,

Enough like these this hour.

Just see how fast slips by the time,

I'll have to stop before

I even name my pretty rhyme,

Because this verse makes four.
