Administrative History:

Library courses were offered by librarians at WKU sporadically from 1937 through 1923. In 1929 the Department of Library Science was created and administered by head librarian Margie Helm and faculty were hired specifically to teach library science. In 1976 the department was renamed Library Science & Instructional Media in order to integrate instructional media courses from the College of Education & Behavioral Sciences. During the 1981 reorganization and disbanding of the College of Applied Arts & Health, Library Science was moved into the College Education & Behavioral Sciences.
