CALL TO ORDER

The September 13, 1988 meeting of the Associated Student Government was called to order by President Scott Whitehouse at 5:05 p.m. Absences included Hollie Hale, Ron Hennig, Van Hodge, Kelly Neill, Diane Robinson, Mark Spader, Brian Thorton, and Scott Wilson.

OFFICERS REPORTS

President Scott Whitehouse said that the retreat went very well.

Dean Bailey and Paul Bunch answered questions that were concerning Congress members.

Scott asked everyone to try to attend a function when they say that they are going to. On September 20 he will be speaking at a Council for Higher Education meeting and would like everyone to attend. This will be a good opportunity for the students to state their concerns.

Administrative Vice-President Adrian Smoot made sure that everyone got a copy of "how to make a motion" and "how to write a resolution" handouts. He spoke on the importance of attendance and the attendance policy. He announced that there will be a committee chair meeting after the ASG meeting this evening.

Public Relations Vice-President Amos Gott welcomed all new visitors. He wants to know committee meeting times and dates so that he can publicize them. He mentioned that Vote America is in process at the current time. He announced that there will be a short PR meeting for those interested in the committee. He thanked congress members for attending the retreat on Saturday. He announced that on October 8 ASG will have a booth in Garrett for College Awareness Day.

Secretary Mickie Hennig announced that College of Education Alternate, Graduate College Representative and Alternate were still open. She asked the organizational representatives to write their report and give it to her after the meeting to be sure of her accuracy.

Treasurer Larry Gumbel mentioned that he was disappointed about the retreat attendance turnout.
