UNFINISHED BUSINESS

It was moved and seconded to accept Resolution 89-02-F. The following amendments were made.

First Whereas Clause, Change to: Currently, on the weekends, there is not an establishment on campus for students to have a sit down meal in a relaxed atmosphere, and Third Whereas Clause, Change to: Western is trying to encourage students to stay on campus during weekends in order to change Western's reputation for being a "suitcase college." By keeping this and other facilities closed, students are actually discouraged from staying at Western on the weekends, and

Fourth Whereas Clause, Change to: "the lack of eating facilities open during the weekends on campus" is cited by students as one of the major problems on campus, and

Furthermore Clause, Change to: We suggest that the university run these new hours for a trial period of one month. This would help to insure that the university not suffer a large financial loss should Unicorn receive less than adequate amount of use during this trial period.

NEW BUSINESS

It was moved and seconded to accept Joe Rains as Business College Representative.

It was moved and seconded to suspend Article VIII Section 2 of the Constitution in order to approve Joe Rains. Motion passed.
