BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Gabriel Jones Lewis (1775-1864), son of John and Elizabeth (Jones) Lewis, came to Kentucky in the late 1700s to survey his father's land holdings and those of Fielding Lewis, Hugh Mercer, George Washington, and others. He secured land in Henderson County, but decided around 1807 to settle in Logan County. About the same time, Gabriel married Mary Bibb, the daughter of Richard and Lucy (Booker) Bibb. Gabriel and Mary had five children: John Gabriel (1809-1874), Richard Bibb (1811-1823), Elizabeth Ann Gabriella (1813-1862), Fielding Warner (1816-1891), and Mary Bibb (1819-1842). John Lewis, Gabriel's father, later moved to Logan County and lived there the rest of his life.

Samuel McDowell Starling (1807-1890), son of William and Mary "Polly" (McDowell) Starling, was born near Danville, Kentucky. The Starlings moved to Frankfort when Samuel was four years old. Samuel received his education locally, studying under the renowned teachers Charles and Kean O'Hara. In 1821, William Starling moved his family to Logan County, and subsequently Samuel married Elizabeth Lewis in 1831. They were the parents of seven children: Mary Bibb (1832-1896), Gabriel Lewis (1833-1863), Thomas Lyne (1836-1884), George Bibb (1837-1918), Fielding William (1839-1863), Anna Irvine (1842-1877), and Lyne (1851-1852). Mary Starling married William Richardson Payne in 1861. Payne died shortly after their marriage, therefore Mary continued to live at the homeplace in Hopkinsville and to function as "the woman of the house". She reared the children of her brother Thomas, following his wife's death in 1870. Mary was extremely interested in genealogy and compiled records of the Lewis, Starling, and other related families for future genealogists and historians.

Samuel engaged in farming until 1836, when he moved to Hopkinsville. He and his father established the mercantile business S. M. Starling & Co. in 1836. Following his father's death in 1840, Samuel dissolved the unprofitable business and afterwards listed his occupation as being that of a "Gentleman". He joined the Union army in 1862 with the rank of second lieutenant, was at the Battle of Perryville, and engaged in the pursuit and capture of Confederate General John Hunt Morgan. Two of Samuel's sons, Fielding (USA) and George (CSA) served on opposing sides during the Civil War.

COLLECTION NOTE

The collection is comprised chiefly of correspondence of the Lewis, Bibb, and Starling families. Additionally, there are Civil War military and personal papers, business papers, account books, newspaper clippings, genealogical data, and seven scrapbooks that are indexed and contain much family and topical information.

Arrangement of the collection is by families and individuals. Within the boxes the arrangement chiefly is chronological, yet it is subdivided either chronologically or alphabetically or both as is deemed best in each particular situation. The Civil War papers are organized separately from other correspondence because of their importance and in order to assist the researcher in locating these materials more readily.

Other materials relating to the collection can be found in various repositories as Mary Payne gave items to different historical societies and associations as well as to relatives and friends. The Filson Historical Society in Louisville, Kentucky, and The Virginia Historical Society in Richmond, Virginia, have relevant documents among their holdings.
