COLLECTION NOTES

Collection consists of interviews and associated items conducted by Gina Kinchlow with two African American women, Carolyn Kay (Williams) Alexander and Vivian (Johnson) Glass. They discuss a variety of topics, including education, family, social life, segregation, and "Juneteenth" and Emancipation Day celebrations in Texas. Includes transcript and tape summary for Alexander interview and a tape summary only for the Glass interview. The collection also contains supplemental materials such as genealogical data, maps, photocopies of family photos and family photographs. This project was completed as a requirement for a folk studies class at Western Kentucky University in 1984.
