President's Home Now Completed

Handsome Little Bungalow
Great Asset to College

The President's Home, which has been under construction on the Ogden campus for several weeks, has been completed and President Whittle has moved in.

The house is absolutely modern throughout and is a credit to the school. It contains six rooms, all of which are neatly and comfortably furnished. It is located in the rear of the old building at the head of an avenue of maples and is on one of the most beautiful spots on the campus.

The building of the home speaks of the confidence of the Board in President Whittle. Besides being a convenience to him, it will be a convenience for those who come to the college to see him after office hours. Mr. Whittle's mother, grandmother and grandfather are making their home with him.
