BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Elizabeth Moseley Woods was born 7 January 1865 in Wahalah, Mississippi, the daughter of Dr. John Dysart Woods and Martha Allen (Moseley) Woods. The family moved to Glasgow, Kentucky when she was 6 years old and to Bowling Green when she was 16. She received an A.B. degree from Liberty College, Glasgow, in 1882 and did further study at the University of Chicago, Columbia University, Oxford University and the Sorbonne. Miss Woods lived abroad for 10 years in the early 1900s, accompanying her friends Margaret and Charlotte Whitehead, and continued to enjoy world travel her entire life. In 1911 she joined the faculty of the Western Kentucky State Teachers College where she taught French, German and Spanish and served as head of the Department of Modern Foreign Languages. During her 40-year association with Western she was able to indulge her love for landscaping as well as teaching. She was responsible for many beautification projects on the Hill including the Italian garden on the Ogden campus and the formal garden at the Kentucky Building. Miss Woods died 29 September 1967 at age 102.

COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists of correspondence by Miss Woods and the Woods family. It includes letters from her European and Asian travels, 1900-1904, published in a Bowling Green newspaper and 100th birthday greetings from President Lyndon Johnson, Governor Edward Breathitt, Representative William Natcher, and Senator John Stennis. Also, includes Woods and Hall family genealogies, clippings related to the retirement of Dr. John D. Woods as editor of The Glasgow Times, an account book in French for the time Miss Woods spent in Paris, 1901, and the script of a 1938 radio interview about Miss Woods' cruise to South America conducted by Mrs. Frank P. Moore. Additionally, copies of two 1862 Civil War letters (Confederate) written by soldiers of the 13th Mississippi Infantry stationed in Virginia and an original letter from Col. William Barksdale of the 13th Mississippi.
