BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Carroll Roemer “Pete” Pearson was born on 4 October 1929 to Harold Hubert Pearson, Sr. and Aileen B. Pearson in Bowling Green, Kentucky. He attended Bowling Green public schools and graduated from Bowling Green High School in 1947. He matriculated at Purdue University and received a pharmacy degree in 1951. In 1951 he married Patricia Brenneman, of Richmond, Indiana, whom he met at Purdue. Later that year he began service in the Air Force, with his basic training taking place at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas. He served with the Air Force during the Korean War and was discharged with the rank of first lieutenant.

Pearson became associated with his parents drug firm, Pearson Drug Company, as a pharmacist in 1957 and assumed sole ownership of the store in 1965. He was a member of State Street Methodist Church, the Lions Club, the Benevolent Order of Elks, and the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. He died on 6 July 1968 when he and his family were vacationing at their cabin on Lake Malone in Logan County. He is buried in Fairview Cemetery in Bowling Green.

Pat (Brenneman) Pearson became a member of the Biology faculty at Western Kentucky University in 1968. Her baccalaureate degree is from Purdue, M.A. from Vanderbilt University, and Ph.D. from Purdue. Besides teaching, she was actively involved in researching and advocating the recruitment of women into science careers. She also served on the board of the Friends of the Library Warren County. She retired in the early 1990s. She died in Port Charlotte, Florida, where she was living with her only daughter, Leanne (Pearson) Littrell.
