

The Gavel

SGA... We Can't Do it Alone November 1999

Joining SGA

Are you interested in serving the students of Western Kentucky University? The Student Government Association of WKU is earnestly seeking individuals who are willing to serve on Congress. If you are interested, you may apply at the SGA office located on the ground floor of DUC or simply fill out the application located inside this month's newsletter.

Women's Soccer
The WKU women's soccer club is excited about the season. Cliff Hilton, Dave Snodgrass, and Health Buzzel are coaching the thirty women that have come out to play this year. Adrienne Frey is the student organizer, planning games on weekends at the Intramural Field off of Campbell Lane. The first home game will be November 7th against Murray State.

Get Involved

There are over 100 recognized student organizations here at Western Kentucky University. This month's newsletter showcases several organizations by highlighting their purpose and upcoming activities.

IABC

The International Association of Business Communicators (IABC) links

communicators and inspires, establishes, and supports the highest professional standards of quality and innovation in organizational communication.

IABC is recognized as the professional association of choice for communicators who aspire to excel in their chosen field. Networking opportunities have helped members to achieve excellence in public relations, employee communication, marketing, and public affairs. Dues are $45 and IABC meets once a month. Meeting times are listed on the IABC bulletin board in FAC by office 145. For more information contact Dr. Kay Payne at ext. 5884.

Pi Kappa Alpha

Pi Kappa Alpha is a social and academic organization that places special emphasis on community service and campus involvement at WKU. Meetings are held every Sunday at 7 p.m. in Garrett Conference Center.

PERC

Peers Encouraging Responsible Choices strives to enhance students' decisions in social and educational situations. For more information call 745-5033.

WKU Knights Chess Club

The Knights Chess Club is open to WKU students, faculty, and staff as well as to members of the community. The purpose of the club is to give chess players a chance to play chess once a week with the option of competing in tournaments.

Meetings are held each Monday in DUC room 309 from 6-9 p.m. For additional information call the club sponsor at 6108.

Ceres Women's Fraternity

Chartered here at WKU in the fall of 1996, Ceres recently obtained their first house at 711 Cabell. Ceres is a social and professional sorority for women with an appreciation of agriculture. You do not have to be an agriculture major to join. Upcoming events include the fall retreat to Mammoth Cave on Nov. 19-21. Ceres will also sponsor a "Holiday on the Hill" house decorating contest for all house owning organizations. Meetings are held on Sunday nights at 8 p.m. and Monday nights at 8:30 p.m.

PBL

Phi Beta Lambda is the post-secondary division of FBLA. It serves not only as an organization that encourages personal, professional, and team advancement, but also provides the basis for positive, life-long, fulfilling friendships. If you are interested in joining feel free to attend the Nov. 8 meeting in GH 441 or email them at: wkupbl@hotmail.com

Society of Physics Students

The society of Physics students meets periodically in TCCW 238.
