COLLECTION NOTE

This collection features information and oral histories gathered from residents of Caldwell County, Kentucky. From this data, a project summary was compiled that included information about cultural resources within the county. Included in the project summary is a brief county history as well as information about the various informants. Most of the research collected for this project was done by Michele Pezzuti, who acted as Caldwell County folklorist for twelve weeks while conducting the project. She was assigned to the county as part of a Cultural Economic Initiative grant from the Kentucky Arts Council. The report notes interviews were conducted, but none were submitted with the collection.
