ANOTHER TOUCHDOWN FOR GEORGETOWN COLLEGE

Tonight on Hinton Field the Georgetown Tigers will be out to break a jinx. Not since 1927 have the Tigers been able to defeat the vaunted Hilltoppers of Western. In fact, not since that 1927 game, which the Tigers won 6-0, have they been able to score on Western.

Tonight a fleet corps of Tiger backs will be out to cross the Western goal line. And if they cannot do it, three passers will go into action. So far this season, the running and passing attack have shared equally in the scoring of Georgetown's eight touchdowns; four have been scored on the ground and four by passes.

There is no defeatism in the Tiger ranks tonight.

Greetings to Western . . .

It is a great pleasure to extend cordial greetings and a hearty welcome to President Paul Garrett and his Hilltoppers.

We at Georgetown College are very proud of Georgetonian, Paul Garrett. He has not only demonstrated his executive ability and his interest in education at Western, but he did that in the Public School System of Kentucky in a most creditable way before he was called to lead Western Kentucky State College.

We are pleased to have this athletic relationship and to meet tonight on the gridiron as two well-coached teams come together.

Relationships enrich one's life greatly and especially when there is a mutual understanding, a common objective, and a spirit of good sportsmanship.

So, we welcome all who come from Western and all who are of Western. We also declare to you that we will beat you if we can.

S. S. HILL, President

C. Q. SMITH
HEAD
FOOTBALL COACH

Head Coach, C. Q. Smith, is beginning his third season at Georgetown College. Each year his Tigers grow more powerful. The first Tiger team under his direction won two, lost five, and tied one; last year his Tigers won four and lost five.

Coach Smith attended McMurry College and Southern Methodist University and was graduated from the latter school. He played football at both schools.

Ever since his graduation from S. M. U., Mr. Smith has been coaching. His first job was at the high school in Breckinridge, Texas. He was soon promoted when he became coach at Goose Creek, Texas.

While serving as captain in the Air Force, Coach Smith tutored the Selman Field, Louisiana, football team to a very successful season.

Tennessee Wesleyan College of Athens, Tennessee, secured his services when he was discharged. He spent one and a half years there. His football team in 1946 won the Peach Bowl championship.

Though Coach Smith is discouraged this year at the smallness of his squad, he points with hope to the assistance being given him by Georgetown's new line coach, Leo Yarutis. Yarutis was all-southeastern guard at University of Kentucky in 1947, and he has shown here already that he has coaching ability on a par with his playing ability.

MAESTRO HORACE HEIDT ASKS...

HORACE HEIDT has been one of America's top bandleaders for two decades. And he's still going strong. His recent coast-to-coast tours smashed all records and his Sunday night CBS talent contest is one of radio's most popular programs.

1. Was it the (1) 1930 Notre Dame team, (2) the 1947 Army squad or (3) the 1920 California team which was known by the nickname "The Wonder Team"?
2. Here's one I bet you'll trip over. Who has the best ground gaining record? (1) Red Grange, (2) Tommy Harmon, (3) Frank Sinkwich.
3. The statue of liberty play, which you may see today, was once known by another name. Was that name (1) The Old Maid (2) Coming Around the Mountain (3) Cherry Picker?
4. The numeral "seven" seems to have been frequently used in football nicknames. Here are three variations of seven (1) The Seven Blocks of Granite (2) The Seven Wonders of the World (3) Seven Rocks and Seven Mountains. Can you name the teams those nicknames applied to?
5. Did a phrase "A punt, a pass and a prayer" originate in (1) The Army-Notre Dame game of 1929 (2) The Saturday Evening Post (3) Grantland Rice's column (4) The New York Touch-down Club?
6. How many college teams, on an average, do you think play football every season? (1) 1,012 (2) 640 (3) 529 (4) 833.
7. Who was the end who caught Gus Dorais' passes in the immortal game between Notre Dame and Army in 1913?
8. Here's a chance to guess. Was the distance of the shortest punt on record (1) one foot (2) one inch (3) 12 feet (4) two yards?
9. Do you think the highest percentage of the longest runs in American football annals were made from (1) kickoffs (2) caught punts (3) scrimmage (4) intercepted passes (5) caught fumbles?
10. Who scored the greatest number of points in a single season? (1) Thorpe, Carlisle (2) Thomas, Delta (Miss.) Teachers (3) Davis, Army (4) Locke, St. Mary's (Texas) (5) De Prato, Michigan State (6) Leech, V.M.I.
11. If a member of Team A ran out from the bench and tackled Team B's ball carrier, who had a clear field for a touchdown, would the referee's decision be (1) a penalty against Team A for half the distance to the goal (2) expel the tackler from the field (3) give Team B a touchdown?
12. Who holds the record for football's longest scoring run? (1) Red Grange (2) Jim Thorpe (3) Glen Davis (4) Wyllys Terry (5) Ed Dudley.
13. What was the year the first Rose Bowl game was played and who won? (1) 1908—Southern California (2) 1920—Harvard (3) 1902—Michigan (4) 1916—Washington State.
14. In what city was the Orchid Bowl game held in 1941? (1) Honolulu (2) Mexico City (3) Sacramento (4) Rio de Janeiro (5) Philadelphia.
15. The first Army-Navy Game was (1) 1890 (2) 1898 (3) 1896.

PI KAPPA FRATERNITY

“Let's give a Rah! for our dear Georgetown!
It is a school that's hard to beat;
Its teams and aims have won real victory
 And shall not go down in defeat!
Come on you students, friends, Alumni,
 Sing out the praises strong and clear,
Then we shall always have that winning cheer
 To show our loyalty.

“The colors orange and black of Georgetown are unfurled
 Upon the field of victory;
The mighty now go forth to serve again.
The school that's proved its true worth.
The fight and love of old, returns again anew
 To all that hear the signal's call.
Look! We're ahead, now waves above on high,
 The banner of Georgetown.”
