(This football program published by the College Heights Herald, Official publication of the Western Ky. State College Alumni Association)

Greetings From The President

PRES. PAUL L. GARRETT

All of us at Western are happy to have the alumni, former students, and friends of Western gather on College Heights today for the 1949 Homecoming.

It is good for folks to come back home. It is better I think for those who stay at home to have them come, so our best wish for you is that you may find as much happiness while here in reunion and reminiscence with friends as your visit brings to us. We are grateful for the devotion and loyalty to Western which made you want to come. May this be for each of you the best year you have known.

Sincerely,
Paul L. Garrett

A History Of Homecoming At Western

The history of Homecoming football games at Western is the closest thing to a football saga in Western Kentucky grid annals. Far surpassing any heated rivalries—even those between Western and Murray and Western and the University of Louisville—the 19 Homecoming games have for the most part been close and thrill-packed frays. They have lacked inspiration at times, but they have never been dull. Thus today's 20th Homecoming scrap has a great tradition to live up to.

The first Homecoming game in 1927 set the pace and the other games have lived up to that inaugural in closeness of score or brilliant individual play, not always by Hilltoppers.

In that 1927 epic the Hilltoppers under Coach Ed Diddle upset Louisville 7-6. Center August Throgmorton recovered a Card fumble in the end zone for Western's touchdown and Cy Williams kicked the winning point.

Three features of the game were dropping of the ball from an airplane in pre-game ceremonies, the fact that Western used no substitutes and Puss Reynolds' plunge over a 40-foot embankment at the east end of the field while chasing a pass. That end of the field hadn't been built up then past the end zone.

In 1928 Williams, Curley Ellis and Turner Elrod, now assistant coach at Western, scored touchdowns as the Hilltoppers dropped Georgetown 19-6. The Tigers had been State champs the previous year. Centre won the 1929 tilt 7-6, with Turner Elrod passing to brother Leroy Elrod for the Western marker. Swede Anderson was the Western mentor that year.

In 1930 Coach Jim Elam watched Wendell "Lardy" Johnson pass to Paul Vaughn for the TD and then kick the extra point to drop U of L again 7-6. In 1931 Carroll Broderick pranced for two touchtowns and Leroy Elrod made the other as Western whipped Miami, Fla., 20-0.

In 1932 Garnett Mercer ran wild to bag two touchdowns and scamper 130 yards in four runs as Western won 24-0 from Georgetown under Ernie Miller. In 1933 Murray walloped Western 20-6. In 1934, with Anderson at the helm again, Max Reed and Leo Yeskigan, a couple of linemen, grabbed the glory as Howard was held to a 0-0 tie.

In 1935 the Hilltoppers received their most crushing Homecoming defeat at the hands of Howard, 19-0. The following year Butterball Williams and Red Roddy led Western to a 6-0 triumph over Oglethorpe. Joe Cook, (deceased) a guard, romped 40 yards with an intercepted lateral to highlight the 13-0 win over Tampa, Fla. in 1947. In 1938 under Gander Terry, Waddell "Big Train" Murphy scored both touchdowns as the Hilltoppers upset Western Michigan 13-6.

Tom Zoretic and John Magda gained the ground in 1939 when Louisiana Tech fell 20-0. The following year saw Western go on its biggest scoring spree in history to swamp a fine Western Michigan team 25-6. Swivel-hipped Bob Wilson ran for one TD, Duke Dulaney pitched to Tip Downing for another and guard John Taylor and linebacker Mike Price intercepted passes for about 50 yards each for the other two scores.

It would be hard to single out one game and call it tops. But if there was one it must have been in 1941 when Gene Sparrow, Johnny Mazola, Joe Cullen, Dick Crouch and Bob Wilson wouldn't admit defeat and stormed back from a halftime deficit of 20-0 to nudge an unbeaten Eastern eleven 27-20 as Wilson ran 65 yards with an intercepted pass for the clincher.

A 6-6 tie with Tennessee Tech provided the 1942 Homecoming feature. In that game Arnold Winkenhofer, then Western's coach, had the game halted for 15 minutes while the officials searched for a ruling on a field-goal attempt which hit a man in the end zone and bounced back on the playing field.

Dan Ward's passing and the defensive play of Dallas Arnold were the highlights in a 32-20 loss to Western Michigan in 1946 when football was resumed at Western following a wartime lapse with Jesse Thomas in charge. In 1947 came what was possibly the biggest upset of them all when a powerful Bradley eleven fell 15-13. Hoyte Threet blocked a Bradley punt to set up one touchdown. Jim Pickens ran and passed well. Harold Murphy's kicking kept the Braves at bay and Dale Schrenk provided a precious safety to give the Hilltoppers the win.

Then last year another highly favored Eastern Maroon eleven came in only to be knocked off 14-13 in a hair-raising thriller. Jim Pickens had a field day as he passed to Jewel Browning for both Hilltopper markers and Tom Montelli split the uprights on each attempt. In addition Pickens intercepted four Eastern aerials to stop Maroon scoring threats.
