TECH BLASTED FOR SIXTH STRAIGHT AS OFFENSE AND DEFENSE GLITTER; JIM AURS, JERRY NASSANO AND CO. SPARK ATTACK; CARDS FOE TODAY FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 1949: EASTERN AT HOMECOMING NEXT.

Western today against the University of Louisville Cardinals is going for the Hilltoppers' seventh straight win of the season. The unbeaten Hilltoppers stayed right on the heels of the powerful Eastern Maroons in the chase for the Ohio Valley Conference championship with a resounding 32-12 triumph over defending champion Tennessee Tech last week at Cookeville, Unbeaten Eastern leads the OVC with wins over Murray, Morehead, Tennessee Tech and Middle Tennessee. In addition, the Maroons have whipped outsiders John Carroll and Youngstown. This week the Maroons play Toledo, another outsider.

Kentucky's game of the year is set for next week in the Western Stadium when these two OVC powerhouses collide at 2 p.m. in the Hilltoppers' annual Homecoming game. Never in the historic series between these two ancient rivals which started back in 1914 have both come up with such impressive records and tested teams of championship caliber.

Little Jim Aurs was the big gun against Tech last week as he scored three of Western's five touchdowns. Jerry Nassano picked up one marker on a beautiful 37-yard run. Millard Shirley, Western's leading scorer with 36 points, also scored once in the rout.

Western's line, led by Co-captains Jerry Passafiume and Jim Phifer, ripped the heavier Tech forward wall. The Eagles lost three fumbles when Hilltopper linemen knocked Tech runners loose from the ball to set up touchdowns.

Tech's passing game was stopped as the Eagles could connect on only four of 15 attempts. Two aerials were intercepted to halt scoring thrusts and as many more passes labeled touchdown were batted away from Tech receivers by the alert Hilltopper defenders.

Aurs blossomed out as the kicker the Hilltoppers have needed as he booted one good for 54 yards to the Tech four and another for 63 yards to Tech's 17.

The tremendous victory which broke Tech's three-year win streak over the Hilltoppers came off a team performance unsurpassed in Western's football history. Nassano used the pass and the threat of the pass with devastation seldom seen outside the professional game as the Hilltoppers sprang as deadly an attack and as game-wrecking defense ever witnessed in a football game anyplace.

Today's game with the Cardinals resumed a rivalry begun back in 1922. Since that time the two teams have played 16 times with Western winning 10 of the meetings and Louisville six. The last time the two met was in Western's opening game of the 1949 season when the Cards carted off a 47-7 win, the biggest margin of victory ever registered by Louisville.

Louisville got away to a slow start this season, losing to Murray, Wayne University, Florida State and Dayton before moving into the win column against Evansville two weeks ago and Centre last Saturday.
