Executive Council Minutes October 12, 1998

Attendance: Stephanie Cosby, Chad Lewis, Carleton Ruminer, Brad Sweatt, and Matt Bastin.

Agenda:

Stephanie mentioned that Bengie Ogden would like for those of us who can attend a meeting on Wednesday @ 3:00pm in the DUC-IFC room. He is doing a class presentation and needs us to answer some questions for him. The Rules Committee for Academic Council is discussing to proposals in regards to the student representatives. The first dealing with lowering the required hours to thirty and the second is allowing five general representatives instead of five from each of the five colleges. Stephanie also noted that she will be appointing the student positions for the 1999 Academic Complaint Committee.

Chad mentioned that Stephanie has a University Blvd. meeting tonight @ 6:30 and needs a guest to go with her. Matt said that he would go. Chad asked Carleton about the progress of the stipends and scholarships. Carleton said that he needed paper work from Chad and that he would be turning them all in together. Chad announced that he will be appointing Leslie Bedo to be parliamentarian tomorrow with the approval of Congress.

Carleton reported on the progress of Organizational Aide. The committee will meet on Thursday night to discuss and review how much money each organization will receive. He will then present a bill to Congress for its approval.

Brad announced that 15 groups will be having floats for the parade next week and that a rules committee for all of those participating will be held tonight at 7:00. He also mentioned that SGA will be helping in the Homecoming Games on Friday from 5:30-7:30pm. We will be manning a child's game under our tent.

Matt had no report.

New Business:

Resolution 98-2-F "Installation of Sprinkler Systems in Residence Halls" was discussed and passed unanimously.

Bill 98-2-F "Allocation of Funds to Murray State University Fire Relief Fund" was discussed and passed unanimously

Bill 98-1-F "SGA Advisor Checklist" was discussed and passed unanimously.

Meeting was adjourned at 5:36pm

Respectfully Submitted,

Matthew D. Bastin
VP of Administration
