Resolution 92-1-S

PURPOSE: To allow students the opportunity to retake courses in which a grade of C or below was attained.

STATUS:

WHEREAS: Students are only allowed to repeat classes in which a D or an F was earned, and

WHEREAS: The negative impacts of a C on an academically inclined student with post-graduate aspirations can be detrimental to post-graduate acceptance, and

WHEREAS: This could have a negative impact on Western's image as a university capable of placing post-graduate candidates, and

WHEREAS: A student who is willing to spend his or her time and money to advance their academic record should be rewarded for their care and responsibility.

THEREFORE: We, the members of ASG do hereby suggest students be allowed the opportunity to retake any undergraduate class in which a C had previously been attained
