

ASG Minutes
of
January 17, 1984

The meeting of the Associated Student Government was called to order by President Jack Smith. The minutes were read and approved. Unexcused absences included: Brad Grot, Donna Holloway, Liz Mizanin, Johnny Regan, Traci Turner and Paul Wellander.

OFFICER REPORTS

President Jack Smith encouraged everyone to fill out the ASG Spring Evaluations and also discussed the amendment to the grading scale.

Administrative Vice President encouraged committee members to attend their respective meetings.

Public Relations Vice President Happy Chandler discussed Western Affair to be held in the spring. Happy also announced his resignation as January 24, 1984. There was a motion made to accept his resignation. The motion carried.

Secretary Teresa Anthony announced the openings as follows: 2 freshman representatives, Graduate College Representative and alternate, 1 off campus representative, 1 representative at large, and 1 on campus representative.

Treasurer Kelly S. Smith announced the beginning balance of this semester as a rounded $6,500. To be reimbursed from ASG a student should sign the receipt, statement and give it to Kelly.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Academic Affairs - Asked the members to submit their class schedules.

Finance - meeting after ASG

LRC - Discussed Resolution chart and stated that LRC meetings are held at 4:40 on Tuesdays unless otherwise notified.

PR - No report.

Rules and Elections - Announced the election dates as follows:
Feb. 13, Filing begins ; Feb. 24, Filing ends ;
March 27, primary election ; April 3, general election.

Student Affairs - No report

Student/Faculty - No report

U.C.B. - Kelly Smith is resigning as ASG representative to U.C.B.

IHC - discussed Western Affair and announced the Open House hours as being approved to be extended.

Child Care - Meeting Friday for those interested in writing a resolution

Constitutional Review - No report

OLD BUSINESS

No old business.

NEW BUSINESS

Sandra Hill was appointed Parliamentarian. With no discussion, the motion carried.

Steven Kein was voted as the ASG representative to U.C.B.

There was a motion made to form a committee to make a suggestion of Public Relations Vice President from those nominations taken from the floor. The motion carried. The committee formed consisted of Gil Cowles, Chairman; Kim Houk, Jeff Felty, Mitchell McKinney, and Suzie Wilkens. Nominations were: Claire Groenling, John Holland and Ed Jordan.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Spirit Master applications are now available.

A new system for evaluating teachers is being looked into.

ADJOURNMENT

There was a motion made to adjourn. The move seconded and carried.

Respectfully submitted,

Teresa Anthony
Secretary

TA/gb