

ASG minutes
of
February 7, 1984

The meeting of the Associated Student Government was called to order by President Jack Smith. The minutes were read and approved. Absences included: James Moorman, Jessica Rappaport, Jeff Sharp, and Paul Wellander.

OFFICER REPORTS

President Jack Smith helped clarify questions concerning the approval of Co-Residential housing passed by the Board of Regents this past Saturday. At the Council of Higher Education meeting, state liquor laws and legality of liquor on campus was discussed. July 1, 1984, the university purchases the bookstore and laundry.

Administrative Vice President Tony Whalen read an article from the Courier Journal concerning the University's Co-Residential decision.

Public Affairs Vice President John Holland announced that dates and reservations for Weekend in the Woods have been set for September 28 and 29 at Camp Decker.

Secretary Teresa Anthony announced the opening for 1 representative at large, Senior class President, Graduate College Alternate and Representative, and a judicial council position.

Treasurer Kelly S. Smith had no report.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Academic Affairs- no report

Finance- Stanley Reagan was recognized for hard work and effort on this committee.

LRC- had meeting before ASG meeting

PR- no report

Rules and Elections- February 13 begins filing until noon on February 24. On Feb. 24 at 2:00p.m. there is a mandatory certification meeting.

Student Affairs- No report

Student/Faculty- a reminder of the Student/Faculty Tea at 10:00-3:00 on Feb 14 was given.

Constitutional Revision- Looking into changing ASG name to Student Government Association

Student Right- meeting Thursday for recommendations

OLD BUSINESS

Resolution 84-18-S had second reading. Paul Bunch, Director of Public Safety, spoke regarding the resolution which concerned attempted notification of vehicle driver when towing is imminent.

The motion to accept 84-18-S was defeated.

Julie Lippert was voted to represent ASG in the Mountain Laurel pageant.

NEW BUSINESS

There was a motion to accept Vince Lewis as Representative at large, Thomas Goodman as Ogden College Alternate and Kathy Holly as Sr. Class President. The motion carries.

Julie Lippert as Jr. Class President and Vince Lewis as Representative at large were sworn in.

Ursala Thomas was appointed to the Student Affairs Committee.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sunday, the Herald and ASG will play against each other in basketball.

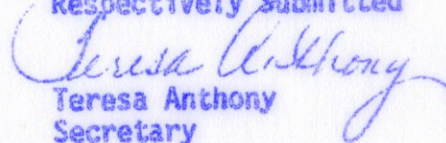

Dr. Zacharias will speak at 3:00 Feb. 8 in Downing Center

ADJOURNMENT

There was a motion to adjourn. The move was seconded. The motion carried.

TA/ds

Respectively Submitted

Teresa Anthony
Secretary