Resolution 97-23-F
Placing of Picnic tables at bottom of campus
November 18, 1997

PURPOSE: For the University to place picnic tables at the bottom of campus near the Residence halls of Zacharias, New Sorority, Pearce-Ford Tower, and Keen Hall.

WHEREAS: Picnic tables are located around campus at such places as "the Valley", Downing University Center, and Tate Page, but there are none near the Residence Halls at the bottom of campus, and

WHEREAS: picnic tables are a great place to study and do homework outdoors, and

WHEREAS: picnic tables provide an area for people to gather outdoors and socialize, thereby improving campus living, and

WHEREAS: picnic tables are part of an overall image of community and beauty on campus.

THEREFORE: Be it resolved that we the members of the Student Government Association do hereby recommend that the University place picnic tables, similar to the ones located around campus, at the bottom of campus.
