9 A.M. - 3 P.M. NURSES' MEETING. Registered nurses in the area may attend two sessions for continuing education credit sponsored by Western to be held today and next Wednesday on arrhythmia detection. Classes will be taught by Mrs. Anne Westcott of the Western nursing faculty who holds a master's degree in nursing and who also is a cardio-vascular nursing specialist.

The sessions, which will offer one continuing education unit of credit (comparable to 10 hours of actual classwork), are being held for area nurses interested in advancing the cardio-vascular nursing knowledge, says Miss Virginia Lehmenkuler, head of Western's Department of Nursing.

According to Miss Lehmenkuler, future sessions will be held for nurses interested in continuing education classes, and both sessions will be held in Room 305 of the Dero Downing University Center.

Interested persons may register this Wednesday prior to the meeting.

Also on the program will be Mrs. Betty Capito, coordinator, coronary care unit,
