

Spring 1977

UA11/2 This Week at Western Press Releases

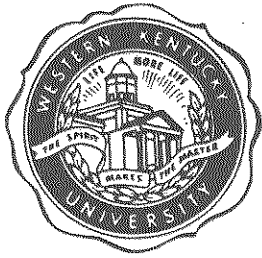

WKU Public Affairs

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records

Recommended Citation

WKU Public Affairs, "UA11/2 This Week at Western Press Releases" (1977). WKU Archives Records. Paper 1041.
http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records/1041

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR[®]. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR[®]. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.

News from Western

WESTERN
KENTUCKY
UNIVERSITY

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, JANUARY 9, 1977
6SP0177/SC:gh

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

(Sunday, January 9 through Saturday, January 15)

MONDAY

4-6 P.M. EVENING CLASS REGISTRATION. Registration for part-time evening classes to be offered during the spring, 1977 semester, will be held in E.A. Diddle Arena.

Students who will be enrolling as full-time students may register during the University's regular registration schedule tomorrow and Wednesday.

8 A.M. NESCA SHORT COURSE. Western, in cooperation with the National Environmental Systems Contractors Association, is again offering the Heating and Cooling Short Courses in Residential and Commercial areas.

Enrollment in the course is open to contractors, builders, salespersons, technicians and anyone engaged in warm air heating and air conditioning and is also open to persons wishing to prepare to enter the field.

Classes will run through Thursday in the Dero Downing University Center, Room 305. Further information may be obtained by contacting Lynn Greeley, assistant dean for administrative and technical services, Ogden College of Science and Technology.

TUESDAY

8 A.M. - 3:30 P.M. SPRING REGISTRATION. Students wishing to attend the University's spring, 1977 semester will register today and tomorrow in E.A. Diddle Arena according to an alphabetical schedule by last names in the 1977 Spring Semester Schedule Bulletin which is distributed by the University Registrar.

WEDNESDAY

8 A.M. - 3:30 P.M. REGISTRATION. E.A. Diddle Arena.

University Publications
✓ "This Week at Western"

-more-

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

THIS WEEK . . . (Add One) January 9

9:30 A.M. PEDESTRIAN SAFETY MEETING. Dero Downing University Center, Room 226. George Niva, Department of Health and Safety, is in charge.

8:30 P.M. BRESCIA COLLEGE TRIO. Recital Hall, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts. Admission is free.

THURSDAY

8 A.M. CLASSES BEGIN. Regular day classes for the spring, 1977 semester begin today.

5 P.M. TDEA BOARD. Members of the Board of Directors of the Third District Education Association will meet in Room 309 of the Dero Downing University Center.

FRIDAY

8 A.M. MUSIC EDUCATORS. The Third District Music Educators Association All-District Bands will meet at the campus today through Sunday.

-30-

This Week

News from Western

WESTERN
KENTUCKY
UNIVERSITY

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, JANUARY 16
12SP0177/SC:beb

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

(Sunday, January 16 through Saturday, January 22)

SUNDAY

1 P.M. CONCERT. Participants in the Third District Kentucky Music Educators Association All-District Bands meeting will perform in Van Meter Auditorium.

MONDAY

8 A.M. CLASSES BEGIN. Classes for the spring, 1977 semester, which were earlier scheduled to begin last Thursday, begin today. Registration last week for classes was postponed 48 hours, thus causing classes to begin at a later date, due to hazardous weather conditions.

1:30 P.M. EMERGENCY PLANNING SEMINAR. A program on Emergency Planning for Industry and Institutions will be held in Room 305 of the Dero Downing University Center.

Sponsored by the Fire Technology Program of the Department of Health and Safety and the Bureau of Vocational Education, the program will feature Victor J. Aeby of Covert and Aeby Safety Management in Nashville, Tenn. as the principal speaker.

C. J. Wright is in charge of the meeting.

TUESDAY

8 A.M.-4 P.M. ART EXHIBIT. Works by selected art students will be on display through Feb. 3 in the Art Gallery, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts. The Gallery is open Mondays through Fridays.

1:30 P.M. WELFARE ASSOCIATION MEETS. Members of the Kentucky Welfare Association will hold a district meeting in Room 226 of the Dero Downing University Center.

SATURDAY

9:30 A.M. HUMAN RESOURCES MEETING. The Department of Human Resources will hold a meeting on "Separation Trauma" in Rooms 305 and 308 of the Dero Downing University Center.

9:30 A.M. CIVIL SERVICE EXAM (Room 226 Dero Downing University Center.)
TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 748-4258

News from WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY Western

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, JANUARY 23
21SP0177/SC:gh

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

(Sunday, January 23 through Saturday, January 29)

THURSDAY

7:45 P.M. SPECIAL FILM. The Department of Foreign Languages will present "Red Desert," an Italian film, in the Auditorium of the College of Education Building.

Admission is $1.

FRIDAY

SEMINAR FOR LAWYERS. Room 305 Dero Downing University Center. Dr. Charles Clark, assistant dean for extended campus programs, is in charge.

8 P.M. ROBERT KLEIN. Comedian Robert Klein will appear in a performance in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

Klein is sponsored by the Associated Student Government.

-30-

This Week at Western

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

Office of Public Affairs and Public Relations

Bowling Green, Kentucky 42101

News from WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY Western

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, JANUARY 30
27SP0177/SC:gh

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

(Sunday, January 30 through Saturday, February 5)

MONDAY

8 A.M. RETAIL MANAGEMENT SEMINAR. Western Kentucky University and the General Electric Co. will present an annual Institute in Retail Management at the University for the next three weeks for retailers in the area.

The institute will cover principles of professional business management and will cover practical retail operating techniques.

Dr. Clayton Riley of the Western faculty will direct the institute which will meet in Grise Hall at the campus.

7 P.M. LECTURE ON LATIN AMERICA. The University's Center for Latin-American studies, in cooperation with the Bowling Green Public Library, will introduce a lecture series this evening with presentation on "Revolution in Latin America" by Dr. Richard Salisbury, associate professor of history at Western.

Dr. Salisbury will speak in the Conference Room at the Library on social revolution in Latin American, with special emphasis on the Cuban Revolution and the role that the U.S. has played in the 20th century Latin American revolutionary process.

There is no admission charge and the public is invited to attend.

-more-

This Week at Western

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

Office of Public Affairs and Public Relations

Bowling Green, Kentucky 42101

TUESDAY

2 P.M. MANAGEMENT PRESENTATION. Mitchell P. Kobelinski, administrator of the Small Business Administration in Washington, D.C., will speak to participants in the University's Institute of Retail Appliance Management in Grise Hall Auditorim.

The nation's top official for the Small Business Administration has served on former President Gerald Ford's Economic Policy Board, which oversees the formulation, coordination and implementation of all of the Administration's economic policies.

He will address seminar participants on the SBA, its function and role.

FRIDAY

STATE MEET FOR STUDENT SOCIAL WORKERS. The first statewide conference for students in social work will feature some 250 college students from across the state.

The two-day meeting, organized by Miss Rhonda Riedlinger, a senior from Radcliffe, will include topics such as licensing and merit exams, rational and behavioral therapy skills, assertiveness training, interviews for jobs and graduate school.

Guest speakers will be Dr. Roger Linde, dean of Kent School of Social Work at the University of Louisville, and Dr. Floyd Hunter, distinguished professor at the University of Kentucky.

9 A.M. HEALTH AND P.E. MEETING. The Kentucky Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation will meet today and tomorrow in the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

The meeting will be presided over by Dr. John Jones of Western's physical education and recreation department and current president of the organization.

-30-

News from Western

WESTERN
KENTUCKY
UNIVERSITY

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, FEB. 6
3SP0277/SC:gh

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 6 through SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 12

MONDAY

3 P.M. SEMINAR ABOUT LATIN AMERICA. The University's Center for Latin American Studies will sponsor a seminar on "The Future of Higher Education in America" in Room 305 of the Dero Downing University Center.

A number of national and international educators will participate in the discussion and the public has been invited to attend.

TUESDAY

8:15 P.M. 'BARBER OF SEVILLE.' The Departments of Music and Communication and Theatre will present three performances of Rossini's "The Barber of Seville" tonight, Thursday and Friday in Van Meter Auditorium.

Two Bowling Green students have leading roles in the production which is open to the public at $2 per person.

William E. Keith Jr., son of the Rev. and Mrs. William E. Keith Sr. of Route 8 will portray the crusty old Dr. Bartolo who seeks to win as his lovely bride the lovely Rosina, played by Miss Emily Tate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyce D. Tate of 2737 Utah Drive.

WEDNESDAY

8:30 A.M. PEDESTRIAN SAFETY MEETING. The Department of Health and Safety will sponsor a meeting on Pedestrian Safety in Room 305 in the Dero Downing University Center.

7:30 P.M. RECONSTRUCTION LECTURE. The Department of history will present a lecture by an authority on the Reconstruction Era in Room 103 of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

Dr. Willie Lee Rose, director of History Graduate Studies at Johns Hopkins University will speak on "Jubilee and Beyond: The Reconstruction Considered as a Revolutionary Experience."

The public has been invited to attend at no charge.

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

-more-

This Week . . . (Add One)

7:45 P.M. FILM. The Department of Foreign Languages will present "The World of Apu," an Indian film, in the Auditorium of the College of Education Building.

Admission is $1.

5 P.M. TDEA BOARD. Members of the Board of Directors of the Third District Education Association will meet in Room 309 of the Dero Downing University Center.

8:15 P.M. 'THE BARBER OF SEVILLE.' Van Meter Auditorium.

FRIDAY

8 A.M. SEMINAR ON STRESS. An all-day seminar on "What You Have Always Wanted to Know About Stress But Were Too Anxious To Ask" will be held in the Auditorium of the College of Education Building.

The meeting, which is open to the public as well as area health specialists, is jointly sponsored by Western, the Kentucky Public Health Association and the Bowling Green-Warren County Health Department.

Dr. Phillip Weiler, president of KPHA, and Dr. John A. Gergen, deputy commissioner for the Bureau for Health Services, are principal speakers.

8:15 P.M. 'THE BARBER OF SEVILLE.' Van Meter Auditorium.

-30-

This Week at Western

News from Western WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 3
10:50P0277/SC:rsh

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, February 13 through Saturday, February 19

TUESDAY

8:30 A.M. ART EXHIBIT. Works by American artist, John B. Flannagan, are on display in the Gallery, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

The Gallery is open Mondays through Fridays from 8:30 until 11:00 a.m. and from 1:00 until 4:00 p.m.; Saturdays from 2:00 to 9:00 p.m.; Sundays from 2:00 until 5:00 p.m.; and Wednesday evenings from 5:30 until 8:30 p.m.

* * *

9:00 A.M. RECREATION WORKSHOP. Students, faculty and members of community groups will participate in an all-day workshop in E. A. Diddle Arena sponsored by the University's Department of Physical Education and Recreation.

Ambrose Brazelton, physical educator from Columbus, Ohio, will present a workshop on motivational techniques for the person going into recreation.

An evening session at 6:30 p.m. will be held for anyone who misses the program during the day.

* * *

6:30 P.M. DATA PROCESSING MEETING. Western's student data processing organization and the Southcentral Kentucky Chapter of the Data Processing Management Association have scheduled a joint meeting in the Executive Dining room of the Dero Downing University Center.

Designated as "Education Night," the meeting will focus upon issues data processing students may face upon graduation from college.

(MORE)

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

* * *

WEDNESDAY

5:30 P.M. HOME EC GROUP MEETS. Members of Phi Upsilon Omicron, an honorary fraternity in home economics, will hold a spaghetti dinner in the faculty dining room of the Academic Complex.

* * *

THURSDAY

8:15 P.M. SYMPHONY. The University's Fine Arts Festival will present a concert by the Leningrad Symphony in Van Meter Auditorium.

Under the direction of Yuri Temirkanov, the Symphony will perform selections including Rimsky-Korsakov's masterpiece, "Scheherazade," and Tchaikovsky's "Symphony No. 4 in F. Minor."

General admission tickets priced at $2 each remain on sale in the Office of the Dean, Potter College of Arts and Humanities.

* * *

7:00 P.M. FIRE TECHNOLOGY PROGRAM. The University's Fire Technology Program and the Kentucky Fire Service Training Program of the Bureau of Vocational Education are co-sponsoring a seminar on the operations of the Insurance Service Office (ISO).

An open forum for fire service administrators, firefighters and interested participants will be conducted by Anthony Gray, assistant supervisor of public protection in Room 132 of the College of Education Building.

* * *

FRIDAY

FORENSIC TOURNAMENT. Western will host the annual WKU High School Forensic Tournament today and Tomorrow.

* * *

SATURDAY

BLACK AWARENESS WEEK. Today through Thursday the Department of Intercultural and Folk Studies will sponsor Black Awareness Week.

* * *

7:30 P.M. MISS SOUTHERN KENTUCKY SCHOLARSHIP PAGEANT. Van Meter Auditorium, sponsored by the Bowling Green-Warren County Jaycees and Jaycettes.

News from Western Western Kentucky University

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 20
17SP0277/SC:beb

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

(Sunday, February 20 through Saturday, February 26)

TODAY

3 P.M. GOSPEL CHOIRS. As part of Black Awareness Week activities, Benny Cummings and the Kings Temple Choir, The Amazing Tones of Joy and Grace will present a gospel concert in Van Meter Auditorium.

The Associated Student Government is sponsoring the performance and there is no admission charge.

MONDAY

ALL WEEK. BLACK AWARENESS WEEK ART EXHIBITS. Works by Black Western students will be displayed in Room 340, the Art and Reading Lounge, Dero Downing University Center.

3 P.M. READING SPECIALIST SPEAKS. Dr. John Downing, professor at the University of Victoria, Canada, will speak to students and teachers of reading in the Auditorium of the College of Education Building.

Downing will speak on "The Bullock Report and Reading in America" and he is sponsored by the University's Department of Reading.

Downing's topic will consider the positive steps of developing language skills in pre-schoolers, language and reading success in the schools.

5:30 P.M. PRINCIPALS MEET. Members of the Third District Secondary School Principals will meet in the Dero Downing University Center.

TUESDAY

6:45 P.M. SCOUTS FATHER-SON BANQUET. The University will host the local Cub Scout Father-Son Banquet in the Auxiliary Dining Room, Dero Downing University Center.

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295
(More)

THIS WEEK....February 20 (Add One)

7 P.M. LECTURE ON CANCER. Members of the L.Y. Lancaster Tri Beta Biology Club will host Dr. Fernando Morgado, visiting Fulbright-Hays Professor at Western, in a lecture on "Neoplastic Cells as Compared to Normal Cells."

Dr. Morgado will speak in Room 224 of the Kelly Thompson Complex for Science North Wing.

The public is invited to attend.

8 P.M. BLACKS IN CINEMA. The Associated Student Government will present Donald Bogle in a lecture on interpretative history of blacks in American films in Van Meter Auditorium.

There is no admission charge.

WEDNESDAY

1:30 P.M. INSURANCE MEETING. The Bureau of Social Insurance will meet in Room 349 of the Dero Downing University Center.

6:30 P.M. DISTRIBUTIVE ED. MEET. The University will host a Regional Distributive Education Clubs of America Development Conference in the Paul L. Garrett Conference and Dero Downing University Centers.

THURSDAY

7:30 P.M. DUKE ELLINGTON ORCHESTRA. Mercer Ellington, son of the late jazz artist, Duke Ellington, will conduct the Duke Ellington Orchestra in a concert in Van Meter Auditorium.

Admission is $1.50 at the door.

The Orchestra is sponsored by the University Center Board Entertainment Series.

7:45 P.M. SPECIAL FILM. "Lazarillo," a Spanish film, will be shown in the Auditorium of the College of Education as part of the International Film Series.

Admission is $1.

FRIDAY

4 AND 7 P.M. 'THE WIZARD OF OZ.' The University's Children's Theatre will present this major production of the series in Russell Miller Theatre, Ivan Wilson

(More)

THIS WEEK....February 20 (Add Two)

Center for Fine Arts.

Kevin Lanham of Gravel Switch is directing the performances which will feature Miss Vicky Davis as Dorothy.

Admission is 75 cents.

SATURDAY

10 A.M. AEROSPACE COUNCIL MEETS. The Kentucky Aerospace Education (KAE) Council will meet in the College of Education Building.

Some 200 members are expected to attend the business meeting and a rocketry workshop which is coordinated by members of the University's College of Education faculty.

Anyone interested in aerospace education is invited to participate.

11 A.M. AND 2 P.M. 'THE WIZARD OF OZ.' Russell Miller Theatre. Performances also will be Sunday at 1 and 3:30 p.m. and again on Monday at 7 p.m.

-30-

This Week At Western

News from Western WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 27
24SP0277/SC:gh

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, February 27 through Saturday, March 5

TODAY

1 AND 3:30 P.M. 'THE WIZARD OF OZ'. Children's Theatre will present performances in Russell Miller Theatre. Admission is 75 cents.

2:30 P.M. YOUTH ORCHESTRA CONCERT. Under the direction of James Godfrey, the Bowling Green-Warren County Youth Orchestra will present a concert in Van Meter Auditorium. There is no admission charge.

MONDAY

7 P.M. 'THE WIZARD OF OZ'. Russell Miller Theatre.

7 P.M. LECTURE ON GUATEMALA SCHOOLS. Dr. William J. Nolan, of the Department of Foreign Languages, who has traveled extensively on educational missions to Guatemala, will speak at the Bowling Green Public Library on rural education there.

The lecture is sponsored by Western's Center for Latin American Studies and the Library. Admission is free.

WEDNESDAY

7:30 P.M. FOLK FESTIVAL. Weaving, fiddle making, doll making, quilting, woodworking and performing in Van Meter Auditorium will be some 20 artisans from the Ozark Mountains in a University Center Board sponsored Ozark Folk Festival.

Starring with the group will be Jimmy Driftwood, former star of the Grand Ole Opry and composer of "The Battle of New Orleans."

Tickets are $1 purchased in advance at the Information Desk in the Dero Downing University Center and will be $1.50 at the door.

-more-

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

THIS WEEK, FEBRUARY 27 . . . (Add One)

THURSDAY

7:30 P.M. FILM. The International Film Series will feature "Le Depart," French film, in the College of Education Auditorium.

Admission is $1.

8:15 P.M. RODES-HELM LECTURE. Professor John Ferguson, an expert on the Open University, a correspondence type higher educational system which is working in Milton-Keynes, England, will speak in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

Prof. Ferguson is brought to Western by the Rodes-Helm Foundation.

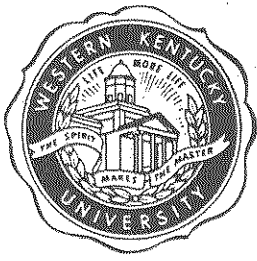

His lecture is free.

SATURDAY

2:30 AND 7:30 P.M. CIVITAN MAGIC SHOW. Van Meter Auditorium.

-30-

This Week

News from Western WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, MARCH 6
3SP0377/SC:beb

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

(SUNDAY, MARCH 6 THROUGH SATURDAY, MARCH 12)

TODAY

1:30 P.M. WILSON COLLECTION EXHIBIT OPENS. A public showing begins today in the Gallery of the Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts featuring 50 watercolors by the former WKU art faculty member after whom the Fine Arts Building is named.

The collection has been donated to Western by E. Wallace "Sonny" Barr of Bowling Green.

The public is invited to a reception until 5 p.m. today in the Gallery.

The exhibit will be on display through Friday with hours daily 8:30 a.m. to 11 and Noon to 4 p.m.

1:30 P.M. ORATORICAL CONTEST. The American Legion Oratorical Contest will be held in the Dero Downing University Center.

TUESDAY

8 P.M. UNIVERSITY CONCERT BAND. Under the direction of Dr. Kent Campbell, director of University bands, the University Concert Band will present a program of music in Van Meter Auditorium.

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

Office of Public Affairs and Public Relations

Bowling Green, Kentucky 42101

THIS WEEK...March 6 (Add One)

Works featured will be Ravel's "Pictures at an Exhibition" and of special interest to children will be a performance of the famous work for children, "Tubby the Tuba," with James Jones of the music faculty, narrating.

There is no admission charge.

WEDNESDAY

8 P.M. SEMINAR FOR PHARMACISTS. The University will host a regular seminar for area health professionals in Room 341 of the Dero Downing University Center.

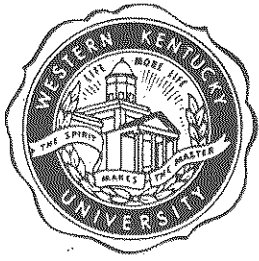

Members of the University of Kentucky College of Pharmacy will present the program.

FRIDAY

SPRING BREAK BEGINS. After the final class of the day, students will be dismissed for Spring Break through next week. They will return to classes Monday, March 21.

-30-

This Week At Western

News from Western Western KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, MARCH 27
24SP0377/SC:gh

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, March 27 through Saturday, April 2

TODAY

2 P.M. JEROME HINES IN CONCERT. The University's Fine Arts Festival will present Metropolitan Opera star Jerome Hines in Van Meter Auditorium.

Tickets are $2 for general admission and $3-$5 for reserved seats.

The acclaimed basso has been with the Met since 1946.

GREEK AWARENESS WEEK. Students in fraternal organizations at the campus are celebrating Greek Week throughout the week and all groups have a variety of activities planned. Proceeds go primarily to charitable organizations.

For a detailed schedule of events, contact the Office of Student Affairs, Lynn Morgan.

MONDAY

10:30 A.M. ARTIST TO SPEAK. Mary Cain, potter from Santa Clara Pueblo, will speak to Western students and faculty on the art of pottery making in Room 151 of the Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

9 A.M. ARCHIVISTS MEET. Members of the Kentucky Council on Archives will hold an organizational meeting in the DeLo Downing University Center.

Lewis Bellardo, assistant director of the Kentucky State Archives, will preside at a morning business session. Topics to be discussed include state, university and business archives, oral history, manuscripts, and special collections.

STUDENT ART COMPETITION. Art students from schools in the Third District will display works in a competition which lasts through next Saturday, April 9.

The competition is an annual event held in conjunction with WKU's Student Fair.

Dr. Neil Peterie, department of art, is in charge of the student art competition.

-more-

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

THIS WEEK . . . March 27 (Add One)

TUESDAY

ALL DAY. 'GLOBAL ISSUES DAY.' The National Association for Foreign Student Affairs is sponsoring a day of emphasis on "Global Issues: Hunger" at the campus.

10 A.M. CO-OPERED COUNCIL. Members of a University Advisory Council on Cooperative Education and Experiential Learning Programs will meet in the Dero Downing University Center. WKU President Dero Downing will speak at a luncheon for the group on "Present and Future Directions of Western Kentucky University."

7 P.M. CANCER FACTS. The Department of Health and Safety and the Bowling Green-Warren County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, in cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce, will sponsor a seminar for the public on facts about cancer.

Speakers on the program which will be held in the Auditorium of the College of Education will be Dr. Nickolas Kafoglis, Dr. John Blackburn and Dr. Gordon Newell.

A follow-up seminar will be held on April 19.

WEDNESDAY

7:30 P.M. QUESTIONS ABOUT THE PANAMA CANAL. The University's Latin-American Studies Center is sponsoring a seminar for the public on "The Panama Canal Zone: Should the U.S. enter into a new treaty regarding its control?"

The discussion will be held in Room 335 of Grise Hall and will feature experts in international affairs including: Michael Yohn, representing the Bureau of Inter-American Affairs, U.S. Department of State, and Professors Kenneth Coleman, department of political science, University of Kentucky, Lester Langley, department of history, University of Georgia and John Petersen, department of government, Western.

THURSDAY

7:30 P.M. SCOTTISH SINGER. Niven Miller, Scottish baritone, will present a concert in Van Meter Auditorium as part of the University Center Board's 1976-77 Entertainment Series. Tickets are $1.00 obtained in advance at the Dero Downing University Center, and will be $1.50 at the door.

7:45 P.M. RUSSIAN FILM. The International Film Series will present "My Name is Ivan" in the College of Education Auditorium. Admission is $1.

-more-

THIS WEEK . . . March 27 (Add Two)

8:15 P.M. THEATRE PRESENTATIONS. The Department of Communication and Theatre will present readings of two short stories, "Maria Concepcion" and "The Displaced Person" tonight through Saturday in Theatre 100 of Gordon Wilson Hall.

Admission is $1 for Western students and $2 for the general public.

FRIDAY

ALL DAY. FOREIGN LANGUAGE FESTIVAL. Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts. Students who have entered the foreign language category of competition in WKU's annual Student Fair will meet today. The foreign language festival is held in conjunction with the Fair which is held each year in April.

ALL DAY. FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS. Members of the Future Business Leaders of America will meet today in Grise Hall.

ALL DAY. MUSIC FESTIVAL. The first of a series of music competitions begins today sponsored by the Kentucky Music Educators and Western. Students competing in solo and small ensembles will perform today and tomorrow.

ALL DAY. PUBLIC RELATIONS STUDENTS MEET. Members of WKU's chapter of the Public Relations Student Society of America are hosting a statewide conference today and tomorrow.

8:15 P.M. THEATRE. Gordon Wilson Hall.

SATURDAY

8 A.M. STUDENT FAIR. E. A. Diddle Arena. Students from grades 1 through 12 will display their class and individual projects in this annual competition sponsored by Western's College of Education.

Entrants will receive blue, red or white ribbons, or other certificates and awards in a variety of competitive categories.

Most displays will be in E. A. Diddle Arena except for business education in Grise Hall art in the Gallery, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts and foreign languages, which is in the Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

Parents and friends are invited to the Fair which will include entries by pupils from regional schools.

8:15 P.M. THEATRE. Gordon Wilson Hall.

News from WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY Western

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, APRIL 3
31SP0377/SC:beb

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

(Sunday, April 3 through Saturday, April 9)

TODAY

2:30 P.M. HONORS CONVOCATION. The University will recognize students who have achieved cumulative grade point averages of 3.3 and above out of a possible 4.0 at a special ceremony in E. A. Diddle Arena.

Western President Dero G. Downing will preside over the program to which families of the some 1800 students to be honored have been invited.

A reception given by the Faculty Wives Club will immediately follow the program.

3 P.M. SPECIAL CONCERT. The 80-piece Jefferson High School Orchestra of Lafayette, Ind. will present a program of music in Van Meter Auditorium

The public has been invited at no charge.

The Jefferson High School Symphony Orchestra has been a consistent winner of superior ratings in the Indiana Organizational Contest and is one of the most travelled in Indiana. They frequently tour the midwest and southern states.

Directing the orchestra will be Thomas O. Dick.

Selections will include Brahm's "Fourth Symphony," "Fanfare and Celebration" by Claude Smith, "Marionette March" by Gounod and the suite from "King Henry V" by William Walton.

MONDAY

8:15 P.M. FINE ARTS FESTIVAL. The dance company of Edward Villella, dancer with the New York City Ballet, will be presented by the University's Fine Arts Festival in Van Meter Auditorium

Tickets, priced at $2 for general admission, $3, $4 and $5 for reserved seats, may still be obtained in advance by contacting the Office of the Dean, Potter College of Humanities.

TUESDAY

NOON. SPELLING BEE. PHONE (606) 745-4295 in the Third District will

THIS WEEK (April 3)...Add One

compete in the 25th annual Third District P.T.A. Spelling Bee in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

8:15 P.M. UNIVERSITY LECTURE. Dr. Carl Sagan, astronomer from Cornell University, will speak on "The Search for Life Beyond the Earth" in Van Meter Auditorium.

Dr. Sagan is sponsored by the University Lecture Series and the public is invited at no charge.

WEDNESDAY

2:30-4 P.M. TEA HONORS AUTHORS. The College of Education will honor three faculty members in the Dean's Circle, College of Education Building, following the publication of their books.

To be honored will be: Dr. John O'Connor, head of the Department of Psychology, for his contribution to the book, "Social Psychology," Dr. Joseph Cangemi, Associate Professor, for the publication of his book, "Higher Education and the Development of Self-Actualizing Personalities," and Dr. Clayton Riley, Director of Distributive Education and Mid-Management, for the publication of his book, "DECA: The First Thirty Years."

THURSDAY

7:30 P.M. STYLE SHOW. The Bowling Green Woman's Club annual Style Show will be held in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

Admission is $3.

7:45 P.M. INTERNATIONAL FILM. The Swedish film, "Virgin Spring," will be presented by the International Film Series in the Auditorium of the College of Education Building.

Admission is $1.

8 P.M. LECTURE. The Associated Student Government will present Bob Woodward, reporter for the "Washington Post" who covered the Watergate saga, in a lecture in Van Meter Auditorium.

Admission is free.

FRIDAY

8:30 A.M. PHILOLOGICAL SOCIETY. Members of the Kentucky Philological Association
(MORE)

THIS WEEK (April 3)...Add Two

will meet today and tomorrow in the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

Dr. James L. Davis, interim vice-president for Academic Affairs at Western, will welcome the group in Room 103.

In charge of arrangements for the meeting are Bob Wurster, Walker Rutledge, John Lewter, Mary Ellen Miller, Carol Lockhart and Joe Survant.

10 A.M. DRILL MEET. Pershing Rifles Drill Team will sponsor its annual Invitational Drill Meet today and tomorrow for high school ROTC drill teams from across the nation.

Some 160 teams are expected to attend the meet in E. A. Diddle Arena.

SATURDAY

8 A.M. VOCAL FESTIVAL. Western and the Kentucky Music Educators Association will sponsor the annual competition for high school vocalists at the campus.

8:30 A.M. SCIENCE COMPETITION. The University's Club of the Society of the Sigma Xi, a national scientific research society, is sponsoring its seventh annual research conference for undergraduate and graduate students.

The purpose of the conference is to provide an opportunity for students to present data of original research projects to their peers and to provide recognition for outstanding research efforts, according to Dr. Larry P. Elliott of the Department of Biology faculty.

The public has been invited to attend.

-30-

This Week At Western

News from Western Western KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, APRIL 17
14SP0477/SC:gh

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

(Sunday, April 17 through Saturday, April 23)

TODAY

3 P.M. THEATRE MATINEE. The Department of Communication and Theatre will present "The Rivals," 18th century comedy which has been running at the campus since last Tuesday.

The play, which is directed by Dr. Whit Combs, assistant professor, will conclude tomorrow evening in Russell Miller Theatre.

Tickets are $2. Student tickets are $1.50.

MONDAY

8:15 P.M. 'The Rivals.' Russell Miller Theatre.

TUESDAY

3 P.M. BUSINESS STUDENTS MEET. Members of the Western chapter of the International Association of Students of Economics and Business Management will meet in the Auditorium of Grise Hall for a Seminar on National Policies on Energy.

In charge is Miss Myra Trask, a WKU senior honors student from Louisville.

6:30 P.M. AWARDS BANQUET. The University will honor more than 100 students who have earned awards during the 1976-77 school year at its seventh annual Awards Banquet in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

Students who have distinguished themselves in academics, athletics, military science and other service areas will be honored at the banquet.

Western President Dero G. Downing will preside over the yearly event to which families of the honorees have received special invitations to attend.

7 P.M. SEMINAR ON CANCER. Warning signals of cancer is the subject of a seminar this evening in the University's College of Education Auditorium for anyone interested in learning more about this dreaded disease.

Three Bowling Green physicians will discuss various types of cancer at the meeting which is jointly sponsored by Western, the Tri-County Medical Society and the Bowling Green Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. William Moore will discuss throat cancer, Dr. Richard Grise, breast cancer and Dr.

Nelson Rue will discuss tumors of the intestinal

THIS WEEK . . . (Add One) April 17

8 P.M. SAFETY SEMINAR. The role of risks in management, analyzing problems, fire protection and communication in industry are topics to be discussed tonight and tomorrow evening at a Systems Safety Seminar in Room 305 of the Dero Downing University Center.

The seminar is presented by Victor Aeby, a specialist in occupational safety and health who is acting as an adjunct professor at Western.

Sponsoring the seminar is Western's health and safety department.

WEDNESDAY

3 P.M. COMMISSIONER TO SPEAK. Damon Harrison, commissioner of Energy for Kentucky, will address Western students and any interested in a general discussion of the energy crisis.

Harrison is visiting the campus today and will meet with various groups of students and faculty.

He has been invited by the University's Ogden College of Science and Technology.

ART EXHIBIT OPENS. Today through May 5 works by Western students in the 17th Annual Student Art Competition will be on display in the Art Gallery of the Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts

8 P.M. SAFETY SEMINAR. Room 305, Dero Downing University Center.

THURSDAY

8:15 P.M. LECTURE ON BUDDHISM. The University's Asian Studies Program will present a lecture on "Buddhism in Japanese Culture" in Room 103 of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

Professor Zenryu Shirakawa, who currently is a Fulbright-Hays Fellow at Rutgers State University, will speak at the program which is open to the public without charge.

Professor Shirakawa is a member of the faculties at the Universities of Tennessee at Knoxville and Harvard.

FRIDAY

HIGH SCHOOL HISTORY CONTEST. The University's Department of History will sponsor its fourth annual contest for high school and junior high school history students.

Competition will be in senior high and junior high American History, and in world history. Students participating will take an objective test followed by an essay question and first and second place trophies will be awarded in each category.

In charge of the contest is Dr. Francis Thompson, associate professor of history.

FFA FIELD DAY. The University's Department of Agriculture will host high school Future Farmers of American from all across the Commonwealth today at the Western Farm for the 10th annual FFA Field Day.

-more-

THIS WEEK . . . (Add Two) April 17

Young people will participate in contests in tractor troubleshooting, driving, welding, horticulture, livestock, dairy, and soil judging, tobacco grading, crop, weed and seed identification and others during the day which will be highlighted after lunch by an awards ceremony for top winners.

Students will be treated to tours of the Western campus and the Farm as part of the day's activities.

At 12:30 p.m., prior to the awards ceremony, state President David Bates will deliver greetings to the group.

MUSIC FESTIVAL. Western and the Kentucky Music Educators Association will sponsor today and tomorrow a regional annual competition for large musical instruments. Participants will receive ratings in the competition which is managed by Claude Rose of the WKU Department of Music.

SATURDAY

MUSIC FESTIVAL.

-30-

This Week at Western

Editors: Please include this item in Wednesday's activities---

7 P.M. FIRE SEMINAR. The University's Fire Technology Program, in cooperation with the Bureau of Vocational Education, will present a seminar on fire strategy and tactics for fire personnel.

In charge is Charles J. Wright of Western's program. The meeting will be held in the Auditorium of the College of Education Building. Seminars are part of a series.

Further information is available by contacting Western's health and safety department in care of Wright.

News from Western WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
07Sp0477/SC:beb

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

(Sunday, April 10 through Saturday, April 16)

TODAY

7 A.M. EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE. The Campus Religious Council will sponsor its annual Easter Sunrise Service at the Outdoor Theatre, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. James O. Thurmond, pastor of the State Street Methodist Church and vice president of the Bowling Green-Warren County Ministerial Association.

Special music will be presented by the Western Choir under the direction of James R. Jones.

In case of rain, the ceremony will be held inside the Center.

TUESDAY

8 P.M. SEMINAR FOR PHARMACISTS. The University will host a seminar for pharmacists in Room 341 of the Dero Downing University Center.

Ms. Mary Ann Emberger of the University of Kentucky College of Pharmacy will speak on "Ophthalmics and Otics."

Further information regarding registration fees may be obtained by contacting Barry Steen, pharmacist, University Health Services Clinic at Western.

8:15 P.M. THEATRE. The Department of Communication and Theatre will present its final major production of the season, "The Rivals" in six performances beginning this evening in Russell Miller Theatre.

The play will run through Friday then again on Sunday, April 17 at 3 p.m. and Monday, April 18 at 8:15 p.m.

The play is directed by Dr. Whit Combs. Admission is $1.50 for students and $2 for general admission.

WEDNESDAY

8:15 P.M. 'THE RIVALS.' Russell Miller Theatre.

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

(More)

THIS WEEK...April 10 (Add One)

THURSDAY

8 A.M. NOISE CONTROL SEMINAR. Western, in conjunction with the Kentucky Department for Natural Resources & Environmental Protection, is sponsoring a seminar on "Environmental Noise Pollution--A Look at Sound in Society," in Room 305 of the Dero Downing University Center.

Local government officials; plant managers and anyone interested in becoming familiar with basic concepts of noise, its control and impact on humans, is invited, according to officials in the Ogden College of Science and Technology.

7:30 P.M. BUSINESS IN LATIN AMERICA. The Center for Latin American Studies is sponsoring a meeting today and tomorrow on "The Future of United States Business in Latin America" in Room 335 of Grise Hall.

According to Dr. John Petersen, director of the Center, the seminar is intended to bring business leaders and academic leaders and students together to discuss the opportunities in Latin American trade.

Speakers from various businesses, state departments and universities will conduct discussions and the public is invited to attend.

8:15 P.M. 'THE RIVALS.' Russell Miller Theatre.

FRIDAY

10 A.M. LATIN AMERICAN CONFERENCE. Grise Hall.

STUDENT JOURNALISTS MEET. Western will host participants at a spring meeting of the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association today and tomorrow.

8:15 P.M. 'THE RIVALS.' Russell Miller Theatre.

SATURDAY

8:15 P.M. FINE ARTS FESTIVAL. The University closes its very successful 1976-77 Fine Arts Festival season with an Actors Theatre of Louisville performance of Richard Nash's "The Rainmaker" in Van Meter Auditorium.

Tickets are $2 for general admission and $3, $4 and $5 for reserved seats.

-30-

This Week At Western

News from Western Western Kentucky University

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, APRIL 24
21Sp0477/SC:beb

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

(Sunday, April 24 through Saturday, April 30)

TODAY

2:30 P.M. CONCERT. The Bowling Green High School Chorus will present its annual concert in Van Meter Auditorium.

Dennye VanArsdale, choral director, will conduct the program of music.

There is no admission charge.

MONDAY

8 P.M. PIANO CONCERT. Miss Sylvia Kersenbaum, professor of music, who has recently returned from engagements in Great Britain where she appeared with the London Symphony at the Royal Festival Hall, will present a recital in Van Meter Auditorium.

The public has been invited to attend the program by the native of Argentina who has been a member of the Western faculty since last fall.

Miss Kersenbaum has appeared in recitals throughout Europe and the Far East and will present selections by Haydn, Liszt and Chopin in her program this evening.

TUESDAY

7 P.M. BIOLOGISTS MEET. Members of Beta Beta Beta, honorary biological society, will meet in Room 224 of the Kelly Thompson Complex for Science, Central Wing.

8 P.M. STUDENTS AND GRADES. Dr. Stephen J. Wright, senior advisor to the president of the College Entrance Examination Committee, will speak on "Student Evaluation and Grade Inflation" in the Auditorium of the College of Education Building.

The public has been invited to attend the lecture which is sponsored by the University's College of Applied Arts and Health.

WEDNESDAY

8 P.M. CONCERT. The Associated Student Government will present Jimmy Buffet and the

(More)

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

This Week...April 24 (Add One)

Coral Reefer Band in concert in E.A. Diddle Arena.

Tickets in advance are: Western students $2, general public $5 and $6 for all at the door evening of performance.

THURSDAY

2:30 P.M. ROTC AWARDS CEREMONY. The Department of Military Science will hold its annual Awards Ceremony at the Outdoor Theatre, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

8:15 P.M. EVENING OF DANCE. The University-Community Dance Company will present the fourth annual performance of "An Evening of Dance" in Russell H. Miller Theatre through Sunday.

Thirteen pieces will be performed by the company ranging from modern dance to classical ballet.

The group is advised and coordinated by Mrs. Beverly Leonard of the WKU faculty.

Tickets are on sale at the Box Office, Ivan Wilson Center from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. Monday through Friday and reservations may be made by calling 745-3296 or 745-3121.

Tickets are $2. Western students $1.50.

FRIDAY

7:30 A.M. CHAMBER COFFEE HOUR. Dero Downing University Center. This month's speaker will be William H. Neel, president of Western Kentucky Gas Company, sponsor.

The Chamber has also invited members of the Bowling Green Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (NSA) to attend the Coffee Hour as part of National Secretaries Week observance.

HEALTH FAIR. The University's College of Applied Arts and Health is working today and tomorrow at the Bowling Green Mall with other health agencies at a Health Fair entitled "Here's to Your Health."

The Fair is designed to inform citizens of health services provided by organizations and institutions in this community, says Dr. J. Glenn Lohr of WKU's health and safety department faculty.

Sponsors include, besides Western, Bowling Green-Warren County Hospital, Greenview Hospital, the Tri-County Medical Society Auxiliary, the South Central Citizens League for Nursing and the Bowling Green-Warren County Health Department.

10:30 A.M. BROADCAST COUNCIL MEETS. Members of a newly-formed Broadcast Advisory Council will meet in Room 243 of the Academic Complex to discuss present and future

(More)

This Week...April 24 (Add Two)

plans for the University's broadcasting curriculum.

Dr. Randy Capps, head of the Department of Communication and Theatre, will address the group which consists of a number of area broadcasters along with Western President Dero G. Downing.

6 P.M. JUNIOR HISTORIANS. The University will host the Kentucky Junior Historical Society today and tomorrow in Van Meter Auditorium.

8:15 P.M. EVENING OF DANCE. Russell Miller Theatre.

SATURDAY

9 A.M. KENTUCKY JUNIOR HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

8:30 A.M. MATH CONTEST. The University will host the Third District Math Contest in the Kelly Thompson Complex for Science.

PIANO FESTIVAL. The Kentucky Music Educators Association regional contest for piano will be held in the Recital Hall, Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

9 A.M. SEMINAR ON DUAL-CAREER COUPLES. The University Counseling Center is sponsoring a workshop on dual-career couples in the Auditorium of the College of Education Building.

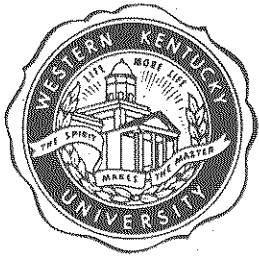

Dr. Rhett Poe and Dr. Richard Greer, both of the Western faculty, are leading the workshop which will consist of exercises which will emphasize the values, conflicts and stresses in dual-career marriages.

Married couples who are Western faculty and staff members will be participants.

8:15 P.M. EVENING OF DANCE. Russell Miller Theatre.

-30-

This Week At Western

News from Western Western Kentucky University

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
28SP0477/SC:mpr

THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

Sunday, May 1 through Saturday, May 7

TODAY

3:30 P.M. DANCE. A matinee and final performance by the University-Community Dance Company will be in Russell Miller Theatre.

Tickets are $1.50 and $2.

The Company, which is under the direction of Mrs. Beverly Leonard of the Western faculty, will perform 13 pieces ranging from modern dance to classical ballet.

MONDAY

3 P.M. MEDICINE IN LITERATURE. The Humanities Semester will sponsor a lecture featuring Professor Daniel Russell of the Department of Comparative Literature at the University of Pittsburgh in Room 166 of the Ivan Wilson Center for Fine Arts.

Dr. Russell will speak on "Medicine in Literature."

3:15 P.M. LECTURE ON CHRISTIANITY. The Departments of History and Philosophy and Religion will sponsor a lecture by Professor William Pannell of the Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, Calif. on "The Influence of the Third World Church on American Christianity."

Dr. Pannell will speak in Room 210, Cherry Hall.

TUESDAY

8:30 A.M. TITLE I MEETING. A meeting of Title I coordinators will be held in Room 305 of the Dero Downing University Center.

7:15 P.M. LECTURE ON ENERGY. The University Lecture Series will present as its TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

(more)

FRIDAY

1 P.M. LAWYERS MEET. There will be a seminar for area attorneys today and tomorrow in Room 305 of the Dero Downing University Center.

9 A.M. LIBRARIANS MEET. The Ohio Valley Group of Technical Service Librarians will hold their annual meeting today and tomorrow.

About 200 participants from Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky will attend the meeting which will focus upon "Cooperation in Processing-Regional, National and International."

Ms. Sally Koenig, WKU librarian, is local chairman.

9:30 A.M. YOUTH MUSIC 'A LA LEONARD BERNSTEIN.' The University Concert Band under the direction of Dr. Kent Campbell, director of University Bands, will present a special program of music for fifth graders of Bowling Green and Warren County.

Described as "a really warm and different kind of program," the Concert Band will perform works including "The Stars and Stripes Forever," George Kleinsinger's "Tubby the Tuba," and Rossini's "William Tell Overture" among others, and will provide narration with each number in the same fashion as American composer and conductor, Leonard Bernstein, during televised youth concerts.

The concert is free.

12:30 P.M. FACULTY WIVES LUNCHEON AND FASHION SHOW. The University Faculty Wives Club will hold its annual Scholarship Luncheon and Fashion Show in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

8:15 P.M. 'A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM BALLET.' Van Meter Auditorium. Free.

-30-

News from Western

WESTERN
KENTUCKY
UNIVERSITY

FOR THE WEEK OF SUNDAY, MAY 8
05SP0577/SC:gh

*THIS WEEK AT WESTERN

(Sunday, May 8 through Saturday, May 14)

TODAY

3 P.M. BANDS CONCERT. The University's Bands, under the direction of Dr. Kent Campbell, will present a concert in Van Meter Auditorium.

There is no admission charge.

The Concert Band will present the "Courier-Journal March" by Robert Griffith, "Masque" by Francis McBeth and "Incantation and Dance" by John Barnes Chance.

The Symphonic Band will present five works: "Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever," "Variations on a Hymn Tune," written by Cecil Karrick of Bowling Green, "Symphonic Jubilee" by Joseph W. Jenkins, "Variants on a Mediaeval Tune" by Norman Dello Joio and Rossini's "William Tell Overture."

PR STUDENT AWARDS DINNER. The campus chapter of the Public Relations Student Society of American will hold its Second Annual Awards Dinner at 6:30 p.m. in the Dero Downing University Center.

The chapter will honor Dr. Kelly Thompson, president emeritus and president of the College Heights Foundation at Western, by renaming the chapter the Dr. Kelly Thompson Chapter.

Dr. Thompson will begin his 48th year of service to the University June 1. He was director of public relations at the University for 20 years before he was named assistant to the President and then later became President of Western, to which he devoted 14 years of service as the University's leader.

The chapter also will present professional awards in three categories for contributions to the state of Kentucky, the community of Bowling Green and to Western Kentucky University.

MONDAY

FINAL EXAMINATIONS BEGIN. Classes are dismissed through Friday for final examinations for the spring semester.

(more)

TELEPHONE (AREA CODE 502) 745-4295

TUESDAY

7:30 P.M. LEGAL SECRETARIES MEET. Members of the Bowling Green Legal Secretaries Association will meet in Room 349 of the Dero Downing University Center.

8 P.M. PHARMACY SEMINAR. Pharmacists in the area are invited to a seminar on "Dermatology" sponsored by the University of Kentucky School of Pharmacy in cooperation with the Barren-Green Rivers Area Health Education System (AHES) in Room 341 of the Dero Downing University Center.

Ms. Mary Ann Emberger, field professor with the UK School of Pharmacy, will conduct the seminar.

WEDNESDAY

1:30 P.M. MATH WORKSHOP. The Holt, Rinehart and Winston Company will hold a luncheon and mathematics workshop in Room 305 of the Dero Downing University Center.

FRIDAY

2 P.M. ROTC COMMISSIONING. Twenty ROTC cadets will receive commission as second lieutenants in the United States Regular Army and Reserve in the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Conference Center.

Maj. Gen. Richard L. Frymire, adjutant general of Kentucky, will be the principal speaker.

7 P.M. PINNING CEREMONY. Thirty-eight students who have completed requirements for the associate of science degree in nursing will be honored at a pinning ceremony in the Theatre of the Dero Downing University Center.

SATURDAY

10 A.M. 115TH COMMENCEMENT. J. David Grissom, chairman and chief executive officer of Citizens Fidelity Corporation and chairman of the Kentucky Council on Higher Education, will address families and graduates at the University's spring graduation exercises in E.A. Diddle Arena.

Top scholars of the University and each of the colleges will be recognized at the ceremonies and WKU President Dero G. Downing will confer degrees on the more than 1,715 candidates who have applied for degrees.

A reception for participants and the families will be held in the Dero Downing University Center, hosted by members of the University's faculty and staff.

-30-

*Editor's Notes: Because the University will not be in session, with the exception of the three-week May Term May 23-June 10, there will be no This Week At Western column sent until Friday, June 10 for the week of Sunday, June 12.