BILL 93-5-F
BOOK EXCHANGER
Introduced: November 9, 1993

- PURPOSE: To create a book exchanger for students to utilize in purchasing books for the upcoming semesters.
- WHEREAS: The cost of books today is becoming increasingly high, and
- WHEREAS: Many students cannot afford these inflated costs, and
- WHEREAS: Students who decide to sell their books back receive a very minimal price on the books they return, and
- WHEREAS: This program would allow students to list books they wish to sell for discounted prices where all students could see this information.
- THEREFORE: Be it resolved that we, the members of the Student Government Association, do hereby allocate $150 to purchase a large bulletin board and sign where students can list by categories the books they wish to sell. This bulletin board will be located on the first floor of DUC across from the Marriot Office.
- AUTHORS: Jill Reading
Eddie Myers
- SPONSOR: Student Affairs
