Resolution 79-1
Increased Library Hours
Introduced 4/24/79

Status PASSED Unanimously

Whereas, a university evolves around its facilities and the services it offers to the students, and

Whereas, students should have the maximum benefit of these services to meet their needs, and

Whereas, a primary use of the Helm-Cravens Library is for study purposes, and

Whereas, just having a facility open for the purposes of reference, study, and periodical use during periods when the Helm-Cravens Library would normally be closed would be of added service to the educational development of the students.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we the Associated Student Government of Western Kentucky University request that library hours be extended in the morning hours and on weekends.

Also, be it resolved, that ASG recommends that the Cravens Library be closed according to its present schedule with the Helm Library opening at an earlier time weekday mornings and extended times on weekends during the regular course of the semester and greater extensions for the entire facility during finals and the week prior.

Furthermore, be it resolved that ASG recommends that until this plan can be implemented fully in the upcoming semester that arrangements be made immediately to increase the library hours for the upcoming finals period as to meet the students present needs.
