NACA is Feb. 18-23. A broadcasting student has offered to make a commercial for Niteclass. UCB's Mountain Laurel contestant, Allison Hulse, placed as the alternate.

Vice chairperson Missy McCubbin announced that the deadline for UCB membership applications is Feb. 3. There have been ads placed in the Herald for recruitment.

STANDING COMMITTEES

Concert

Concert Committee has two proposals. Applications are still being taken in for Battle of the Bands. Fall planning is underway. After recruitment, the committee should have 15-20 members. Charla reviewed her goals.

Lecture

The Black History Month speaker will be Josh White. He is a blues and folk singer. He will perform Feb. 13 in the DUC theater. Rhonda briefed the board on her goals. The committee hopes to get in a big name speaker.

Public Relations

The UCB t-shirts are available for $5.00. Business cards are being designed for chairpersons. Work will begin next week for designing a brochure for OAR. The committee is busy promoting the Valentine Dance, Josh White, Battle of the Bands, Remote Control and Alex Cole. Dawn reviewed her goals.

Special Events

There will be a Valentine's Dance on Feb. 14 in Niteclass. The first 100 ladies will receive a carnation. Fall planning is under way. Tiffanie reviewed her goals.

Niteclass

There was a good response to recruitment. Niteclass already has five new members. Remote Control will be Feb. 8 in Niteclass. The winner will receive $75.00. "Strangers in the Night" Valentine Dance will be Feb. 14 in Niteclass. Battle of the Bands will be Feb. 13 through March 1. Points of Pleasure is scheduled to perform at Niteclass. A comedian or magician may be booked this semester.

PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Scott Taylor announced that UCB deserves compliments. Planning and programming have been successful. All groups on campus are invited to set up displays for the High School Leadership Conference. Ron Beck, president Meredith and the executive counsel met to discuss homecoming. Plans to make it bigger and more classy are underway. The membership drive is going well. Diversity is the key. Remember to evaluate programming.
