- minutes email to members by the Monday of each week. (Congressional)
- first reading copies and reading, currently the policy.

- John and Jaclyn would be responsible:

John: might want to email minutes, agenda and first readings of legislation.

- second reading - copies for Congress-members.

- Victoria Bryant will be given more time for completion of Archivist's duties.

Anna: needs items for the seconds.

moved for a veto of the ADA compliance

Boss: wants Exec. Council to veto the ADA compliance legislation due to not following the format.

Debate → John: thinks that it would be easily achieved. interpretation of cost and by-laws. suspended bylaws allowed for the bill's passage. (gave examples)

Boss: - the process?

John: - different interpretation - should explain the process. - the by-laws can be suspended for announced purposes.
"I can not ignore motions from the floor," - John.

Jamie: i don't think this is the bill that we need to use as an example. we do not need to veto an ADA compliance resolution.

10/28 Exec Council mtg) veto debate

→ Ross and John: have questions personally over the process and its uses. — talk privately about any concerns or problems.

Jamie: has been slightly — conversation over topics.
