

A LEADING AMERICAN UNIVERSITY WITH INTERNATIONAL REACH

Executive Cabinet of the Western Kentucky University's Student Government Association, on March 17th, 2008.

Jeanne L. Johnson—President

- The deadline for SGA applications has been extended to tomorrow at 7PM due to the university snow day the Friday before Spring Break.
- I need to be voted on tomorrow at the Senate meeting to represent the Executive Cabinet on the Judicial Council during elections. I was nominated but never voted on.
- Cory Gerald is resigning from the Judicial Council because he does not have time to commit anymore.
- I spoke with Charley Pride today and we are on a spending freeze for the moment.
- Our Public Relations Director, Elizabeth Goddard, has gotten a full-time job in Nashville, TN. They are requiring her to start part-time until she graduates. Because of this, she is resigning as PR Director. She will tell the Senate tomorrow.

Johnathon F. Boles—Executive Vice President

- Handing out the Plus/Minus faculty sheets and student signature letters tomorrow at the Student Senate meeting.
- Need to get the signature letters online.
- Going to drop off the letters to Frankfort and email the documentary that Charlie Harris is making.
- I believe SGA should write a resolution supporting the first doctoral program at WKU.

Cherieth L. Lineweaver—Administrative Vice President

- The first SGA student email will be sent out tomorrow morning. It will go out every Tuesday!

Reagan Gilley—Director of Academic and Student Affairs

- Hall of Distinguished Seniors applications will go out this week. They are due April 11th, 2008, by 5PM in DUC 130.
- The Plus/Minus proposal will go up for first reading on March 20th to the University Senate.

Charlie Harris—Director of Information Technology

- I am working on the Plus/Minus website, I am going to put just the facts up.
