

A LEADING AMERICAN UNIVERSITY WITH INTERNATIONAL REACH

Executive Cabinet Meeting on March 24, 2008, in the Student Government Association Main Office.

Executive Vice President—Johnathon F. Boles

- Faculty surveys on Plus/Minus are due to next Tuesday.

Administrative Vice President—Cherieth L. Lineweaver

- Print SGA Play-By-Play for Fresh Food Company.
- Budget update.

Director of Public Relations (vacant)—Douglas Tate (standing in)

- Hall of Distinguished Seniors: table toppers, online application, email to department heads and presidents of organizations.
- SGA Week: flyers, Current Students website, table toppers in Downing University Center and Garrett Food Court.

Director of Academic and Student Affairs—Reagan Gilley

- Hall of Distinguished Seniors: keep as electronic as possible. Send applications to sga@wku.edu. Need to get stoles and certificates. Will present them at the SGA Spring Banquet.

Director of Information Technology—Charlie Harris

- Elections!

Speaker of the Student Senate—Kayla W. Shelton

- Block Party: volleyball, Delta Tau Delta, food, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. It is an opportunity to give out information about the organization and recruit.
- Need Organizational Aid brochure for Block Party.
- Next Tuesday at Senate there will be two Gattan Academy representatives to talk about their experiences on the hill.

President—Jeanne L. Johnson

- Skylar Baker-Jordan and I met with our about involving the Gattan Academy students into SGA. This is tentative. At this point, Academy students can become Spirit Masters. We would like to help them start their own student council. We would add a voting seat in the Student Senate for the president of their student council. Or we could add two voting seats, one for a junior and one for a senior.
