INFORMATIONAL NOTES

from

Vol. 4 No. 6

Office of the President

March 21, 1973

The Informational Notes of March 2 included a reminder of the coming visit to the Western campus by the Visitation Committee of the Southern Association. The activities in which this Committee will be engaged as a part of our Institutional Self-Study are sufficiently important in the life of the University to warrant calling it to our attention again. The Institutional Self-Study has involved large numbers of faculty, staff, and students during the past two years. As we culminate the Self-Study with the visit of this group, you are requested to extend courtesies and give assistance to the members of the committee.

The committee members will arrive on the campus Sunday afternoon, March 25, and depart at noon on Wednesday, March 28. You may come in contact with members of the committee as they engage in visits to the various departments and offices on the campus. You are requested to assist by providing information and materials which will help the committee in fulfilling its purpose and objectives.
