ANNOUNCEMENTS

Vacation Hours for Campus Libraries

During the summer school session the following schedule will be followed by the campus libraries:

June 1-5 . . . . 8:30 a.m. -- 1:00 p.m.

International Book Project

Twenty cartons of books were collected for the recent drive for the International Book Project. The cost of mailing one carton will be $1.80 by motor freight. It is hoped that each individual will be willing to contribute enough to mail one carton. Send your contributions to:

Miss Sara TYLER (Director, Library Services), Margie Helm Library.

PUBLICATIONS

"Rating Personnel in Business and Industry" by Mr. Joseph P. CANGEMI (Psychology) will be published in a future edition of the Personnel Journal. "Furthering International Understanding Through Teacher Exchanges in Venezuela" has been recently published in The Progressive Teacher, and an expanded version of Mr. CANGEMI's article entitled "Disturbed Parents" was recently published in the Journal of the New York Counselor Association.

Le Valet et la Soubrette, de Moliere a la Revolution by Dr. Maria DEMERS (Foreign Languages) has been published by A. G. Nizet, Editor, Place de la Sorbonne, Paris, France, in 1970 of this year.
"Religious Correlates of Death Anxiety" by Drs. Elsie J. DOTSON and Donald I. TEMPER (Psychology) will be published in a forthcoming issue of The Psychological Reports, 1970, Vol. 26, pp. 895-897.

"Temporal Stability of the PPVT in Normal and Educable-Retarded Children" by Drs. Louella J. FONG (Home Economics and Family Living) and Larry M. Raskin of Purdue University was published in Psychological Reports, Volume 26, 1970, on pp. 547-549.

FRANKENHAUSER, Mr. Neil (Art) recently represented Western with a drawing in "Drawings '70," the first annual National Exhibition at St. John's University, in Jamaica, New York.

"Amount and Distribution of Hydrocyanic Acid Potential During the Life Cycle of Plants of Three Sorghum Cultivars" by Dr. Elmer GRAY (Agriculture) and Robert C. Loyd, former graduate student, has been accepted for publication in the May issue of Agronomy Journal. "Effect of Stage of Maturity on Yield and Leaf Content of Annual Lespedeza" by Dr. GRAY will be published in the summer issue of Tennessee Farm and Home Science.

"Graduate Research Programs at Western Kentucky University" by Dr. William B. KOCH (Physical Education, Health, and Recreation) appeared in the February, 1970, issue of the Kentucky Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Journal.

LIVINGSTON, Mr. David (Music) has transcribed the "Sonata for Silent Piano" by John Cage for the clarinet. This stellar work is published by the Kumquat Publishing Company, New York. The music for "Land O' My Own," a historical musical drama that will be playing at Theatre Under the Stars from June 13-September 7 at Cave City, Kentucky, has also been written by Mr. LIVINGSTON.

Thirteen Alabama Ghosts and Jeffrey by Figh and Windham is reviewed in the current issue of the Kentucky Folklore Record by Miss Julia NEAL (Director, Kentucky Library).

PITTMAN, Dr. Frank M. (Industrial Education) presented a paper on macro wood identification which will be published in the proceedings of the 1970 American Industrial Arts Association convention which was held in Louisville on April 8-10.

SCHIEFERDECKER, Mr. Ivan E. (Art) was awarded a purchase prize for a drawing being shown in the Sixth Dulin National Print and Drawing Competition. One of his drawings is also being exhibited in the Annual Drawing and Small Sculpture Show at Ball State University, Muncie, Indiana.
WILSON, Dr. O. J. (Speech and Theatre), whose study of institutional research in fifty-one colleges and universities was published in the March, 1967, issue of College Management, was quoted on pp. 23-24 and listed on p. 96 of the Bibliography by Robert Kelly Roney III, University of Tennessee, in his March, 1970, doctoral dissertation entitled The Role of Institutional Research in Higher Education in the United States.

MISCELLANEOUS FACULTY ACTIVITIES

BRENNER, Drs. Kenneth W. (Assistant Dean for Instruction, College of Education) and Harlan J. STUCKWISCH (Director of Title III, Region 2) participated in the National Working Conference for the National Drug Education Training Program at the LaSalle Hotel, Chicago, Illinois, on April 22-25. Dr. BRENNER also participated in the Second Teacher Education Conference held at Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, on April 26-27.

BROWN, Dr. Carol P. (Head, Department of Foreign Languages) and the following members of his department attended the Foreign Language conference in Lexington on April 24: Messrs Thomas P. BALDWIN and R. Thurston TAYLOR, Mesdames Johnnie P. HUEY, Mania RITTER, and Clarice SCARBOROUGH, and Dr. Joseph F. VELEZ.

BUTLER, Dr. Roy W., Jr. (Philosophy and Religion) read a paper entitled "Some Recent Metaethical Criticisms of Christian Ethics" at the Evangelical Theological Society meetings in Chattanooga, Tennessee, on May 1-2.

BUTLER, Drs. Roy W., Jr., Jerald H. RICHARDS, and John T. STAHL (Philosophy and Religion) attended the annual meeting of the American Philosophical Association, Western Division, in St. Louis on May 7-9.

CAPPS, Messrs Randall, Paul R. CORTS, and J. Regis O'CONNOR (Speech and Theatre) attended the Southern Speech Association Convention in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, on April 8-11.

CHRISTENSON, Dr. Victor J. (Director, School Administration Programs) was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the Third District Administrators Association at their recent meeting on April 28.

COMBS, Mr. D. Whit (Speech and Theatre) attended the Children's Theatre Conference in Athens, Georgia, on May 14-15.
CORTS, Messrs Paul R., J. Regis O'CONNOR and Dr. Mildred HOWARD (Speech and Theatre) attended the Kentucky Association of Communication Arts meeting in Louisville on April 17. Mr. CORTS was elected Vice President of the Association.

DEMERS, Dr. Maria (Foreign Languages) became an American citizen at Louisville, Kentucky, on April 24. Dr. DEMERS took a group of students to Elizabethtown High School, Elizabethtown, where they presented La Farce De Maitre Pathelin for the French students of District IV on May 7.

EGBERT, Misses Ercel (History, retired), Vera GRINSTEAD (Library Science), Addie HOCHSTRASSER (English), Imogene SIMPSON (Library Science), Margaret THOMAS (Library Science), and Mrs. Mary G. STRAHL (Speech and Theatre) attended the state convention of the American Association of University Women in Berea, Kentucky, on April 17-18.

FIELDS, Mr. Noland E. and Dr. Jack McGREGOR (Geography and Geology) attended the meeting of the Southeastern Section of the Geological Society of America in Lexington on April 1-4.

FONG, Drs. Louella J. (Home Economics and Family Living) and Kathryn N. Black and Larry M. Raskin, both of Purdue University, presented a paper entitled: "The Recognition and Retention of Fragmented Pictures by Normal and Educable-Retarded Children" at the meeting of the Eastern Psychological Association in Atlantic City, New Jersey, on April 4. Dr. FONG was also a guest participant in a symposium at the meeting of the Kentucky Home Economics Association in Louisville on April 3-4 where her topic was "Consumerism - What's New Today in Child Development and Family Living?" Other faculty members attending were: Drs. William A. FLOYD, Head, and Lilyan K. GALBRAITH, Mesdames Martha C. JENKINS, Romanza O. JOHISON, Helen S. KELLEY and Joyce O. RASDALL, and Miss Evadine PARKER.

GALBRAITH, Dr. Lilyan K. (Home Economics and Family Living) will participate in a National Research Conference on Consumer and Homemaking Education sponsored by The Center for Research and Leadership Development in Vocational and Technical Education at Ohio State University, Columbus, June 2-5. Invited Home Economists from all states will identify a priority list of researchable problems of national significance in Consumer and Homemaking Education.

GRINSTEAD, Miss Vera (Library Science) spoke to the librarians of Daviess County, McLean County, and Owensboro on "New Trends in Library Science" on May 8.
HECKMAN, Drs. John H. and Ronald H. NASH (Philosophy and Religion) attended the Spring meeting of the Kentucky Philosophical Association at the University of Kentucky on April 11 where Dr. HECKMAN was elected President of the Association succeeding Dr. NASH.

JENKINS, Mesdames Martha C. and Joyce O. RASDALL (Home Economics and Family Living) chaperoned student officers and members at the annual meeting of the Kentucky Home Economics Association in Louisville on April 3-4.

JOHNSON, Mrs. Romanza O. (Home Economics and Family Living) presented a program on "Accessories You Can Make for the Home" to the Faculty Wives Interest Group on April 21. She was the banquet speaker for the Scottsville High School Future Homemakers of America where she spoke on "Decisions that Count" on May 19.

The Department of Physics and Astronomy is proud to announce the advancement of two staff members. Dr. Richard J. KOMP has been promoted from Assistant to Associate Professor, and Dr. William G. BUCKMAN has been granted tenure.

LIVINGSTON, Messrs David and Ohm W. PAULI (Music) served as Adjudicators for Instrumental and Vocal music for the Southeastern Kentucky Music Festival at Harlan on April 23-24.

LOCKWOOD, Dr. Mulford C. (Health Programs) expects to participate as a member of the committee that will examine potential diplomats for the American Board of Veterinary Public Health in Las Vegas, Nevada, on June 22-24.

MASANNAT, Dr. George S. (Government) has been selected to participate in a Scholar-Diplomat Seminar in Near Eastern and South Asian Studies sponsored by the U.S. Department of State in Washington, D. C., on May 18-22. Dr. MASANNAT will be one of a select group of scholars and diplomats chosen to take part in these sessions.

MONTELL, Dr. W. Lynwood (History and English) delivered a paper entitled "The Coe Ridge Colony: A Racial Island Disappears" at the spring meeting of the Southern Anthropological Society at the University of Georgia, Athens, on April 9-12. Dr. MONTELL served on a Southern Association Evaluation Team which visited Belmont College, Nashville, Tennessee, from April 12-16. On April 17 he presided at the annual spring meeting of the Kentucky Folklore Society, aided by Drs. Mary W. and Kenneth W. CLARKE (English) who are active in the Society as elected officials.
MUTCHLER, Mrs. Virginia (Elementary Education) served as a consultant for the Benton Harbor, Michigan, inservice program at Bard School on May 13-14.

The following faculty members in the Industrial Education Department attended the American Industrial Arts Association convention in Louisville on April 8-10: Mr. Walter B. NALBACH (Head), Drs. Holland E. BOAZ, Franklin CONLEY, Frank M. PITTMAN, Arvid W. VAN DYKE and Donald D. WENDT, and Messrs Wandel L. DYE, Howard J. LOWREY and William M. WILKINS. Dr. VAN DYKE and Mr. LOWREY served as co-chairman for the Attendance and Membership Committee for the convention.

NALBACH, Mr. Walter B. (Head, Department of Industrial Education) attended the meeting of the Kentucky Education Association in Louisville on April 16-17.

NASH, Dr. Ronald H. (Head, Department of Philosophy and Religion) participated in a seminar on the Philosophy of History at the University of Kentucky on April 10. Dr. NASH took part in a panel that evaluated a paper on "Patterns in History" by Dr. William McNeill of the University of Chicago.

NAVE, Dr. Wallace K. (Adult Education) participated in the Regional Adult Basic Education Staff Development Institute in New Orleans on May 6-9. Dr. NAVE has been named to the Board of Directors as one of two from Kentucky for the Appalachian Adult Basic Education Demonstration Project conducted by Morehead State University, and he will attend the annual meeting at Morehead on May 26-27.

PARKER, Miss Evadine (Home Economics and Family Living) has been selected for inclusion in the forthcoming edition of Who's Who in the South.

RASDALL, Mrs. Joyce O. (Home Economics and Family Living) has been named recipient of the American Home Economics Association's Home Economists in Business Fellowship. The award will be presented at the Convention of the Association in Cleveland, Ohio, June 22-25.

SEEGER, Dr. C. Ronald (Geography and Geology) attended the annual meeting of the American Geophysical Union in Washington, D.C., on April 20-24, and presented a paper entitled: "Geophysical Investigation of the Versailles Cryptoexplosion Structure, and the Middlesboro Basin Cryptoexplosion Structure, Kentucky." The paper presented geophysical evidence that the two structures are Astroblemes (fossil meteorite or comet impact features).
SMITH, Miss Dolores D. (Home Economics and Family Living) attended the Interior Design Educator's Council Conference in Atlanta on April 16-19. Miss SMITH was elected to membership in this organization.

TYLER, Miss Sara (Director, Library Services) and Miss Imogene FOSTER (Reference Librarian) attended the annual spring conference of the Kentucky Library Association College and Reference Section at Lake Cumberland State Park on April 24-25.

WATSON, Dr. Thomas W. (Music) participated in a Symposium in Graduate Studies in Music Education at Ohio State University, Columbus, on May 1-2.

WILSON, Dr. O. J. (Speech and Theatre), in conjunction with receiving the annual Iota Sigma Nu honorary society award for 1969-70 at Union College in Barbourville on May 16, was honored at the annual banquet where he spoke on "The Emphasis on Academic Excellence in the Soviet Union." Dr. WILSON and Mr. Larson Hudson of Beltone have administered the hearing test to all grades at the Laboratory School in recent weeks.

WURSTER, Mr. Robert J. (English) and Dr. Richard L. TROUTMAN (History) attended the National Association for Foreign Student Affairs Conference in Kansas City, Missouri, on April 28-May 1. The subject of the conference was "International Education Tomorrow." Dr. TROUTMAN will take over the duties of the Foreign Student Adviser starting this fall while Mr. WURSTER will be on Sabbatical Leave.

YUNGBLUTH, Dr. T. Alan (Biology) attended the Second Annual Stadler Genetics Symposium at the University of Missouri, Columbia, on May 9.

******************************************************

(Editor's Note: The editors wish to extend sincere thanks to the faculty for their excellent cooperation during 1969-70 and to wish each one a delightful and rewarding summer. C. P. C. and J. C.)