BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Lillian Iona Tynes was born on 25 August 1925 in Russellville, Kentucky, the youngest of seven children of Oscar Franklin Tynes and Euva Hightower Tynes. She attended the public schools in Russellville, graduating from Russellville High School and later from Western Kentucky University.

Lillian married Dr. Robert N. Pace, a dentist, and they resided in Bowling Green, Kentucky. Mrs. Pace was active in a number of civic, religious, and philanthropic organizations. Her chief hobby was gardening, thus she was a member of the Ruth Rabold Garden Club as well as other state and national garden clubs. She served on the board of directors for Friends of Lost River, Mammoth Cave National Park Association, and the Friends of the Library. She served for nine years on Bowling Green Beautification Commission. Lillian also enjoyed handwork, reading, and singing.

Mrs. Pace died on 9 October 2010 and was interred in Bowling Green's Fairview Cemetery.
