BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Benjamin S. McReynolds was born in Bedford County Virginia on 1 April 1769. On 12 March 1798 he married Elizabeth Wilson (1776-1816). They moved to Butler County, Kentucky about 1799 and had four children: Thomas Jefferson McReynolds, Wilson Oliver McReynolds, Benjamin Shepherd ("Little Shep") McReynolds, and Elizabeth Hunter McReynolds (Mrs. David McKenney). After Elizabeth's death, Benjamin married Sally Dixon (b. 1775), and after her death he married Pensy (Gardner) Watkins.

On his arrival in Kentucky, McReynolds settled on Sandy Creek south of Morgantown in Butler County, in a home he called "Maxalina." A Methodist minister, McReynolds preached in Butler and Logan counties, studied and wrote on doctrinal and other subjects, and taught school in his home. He died on 18 June 1845.

COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists mostly of copybooks and writings of Benjamin McReynolds on religious, medical, legal and literary topics, as well as accounts, sermons, and records from several schools. Some family history and genealogy, and a descendant's family Bible, are also included. Most of the material is contained in handmade manuscript books which are in very poor condition.

Of interest in Box 1 are: a pamphlet (Folder 3) of family history by McReynolds, which includes data on his grandparents, the families of his first and second wives (McReynolds' mother and his second wife's father were half-siblings), and an elegy to his first wife Elizabeth; extensive notes on diseases, medical conditions and remedies (Folders 4-8); and a book of ciphering, shorthand and other lessons (Folder 10).

Box 2 includes an account book (Folder 1) containing records of marriages performed by McReynolds and schools conducted by him; records of the Butler Debating Society (Folder 3), of which McReynolds was president; a diary documenting a trip from Sandy Creek to Lynchburg, Virginia in 1823 (Folder 4); a letter to Benjamin's son Thomas warning him against emigrating to Mexico or Colombia (Folder 6); and additional school records (Folder 8).
