Address	Dr. William L. Matthews, Jr.

It is not by chance that you occupy your seat of honor today. You are there because you have given the proper personal interpretation to the basic goal of higher education—the development of the intellect. You have supplemented your talents with a high degree of application to your studies.

We congratulate you upon your present level of accomplishment and we challenge you to continue your pursuit of excellence. Western is proud of the contribution you are making to the academic spirit of the Hill.

Raymond L. Cravens
Dean of the Faculty
