Policies

The primary aim of the International Journal of Exercise Science is to engage undergraduate and graduate students in scholarly activity as they develop into professionals.

In accordance with this aim, on manuscript submissions it is mandatory that at least one author be a student (either undergraduate or graduate) at the time the data was collected. These students should have played a prominent role in the overall study. All individuals who are listed as authors should have made substantive intellectual contributions to the overall project (i.e. in terms of conception and design, collection or acquisition of data, analysis or interpretation of data). Each author listed should be able to take public responsibility for the content. Contributors who do not meet the criteria for authorship may be listed in the acknowledgements section.

Undergraduate students should be denoted with the "u" symbol, graduate students denoted with the "g" symbol, and professionals denoted with the "p" symbol when submitting manuscripts.

Manuscript submissions follow the guidelines outlined in the Uniform Requirements for Manuscripts Submitted to Biomedical Journals by the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors.

The Journal will not consider manuscripts that are simultaneously being considered by other journals, or that are redundant or duplicate in nature. Submitted manuscripts will be evaluated through the peer-review process. Manuscripts in which an undergraduate student is the primary author will be reviewed by two undergraduate peer reviewers and one faculty mentor. Manuscripts in which a graduate student is the primary author will be reviewed by two graduate peer reviewers and one faculty mentor. Manuscripts in which a professional is the primary author will be reviewed by two professional peer reviewers.
