AMBASSADORS TO HEADLINE JUNE SINGING CONVENTION

By Johnny Melloan

America's number one semi-professional gospel quartet, the Ambassadors of Nashville, will be featured at the June Hart County Singing Convention. The singing will be held in the LeGrande Elementary School Gym on Saturday night, June 2, at 7:30 C.D.T.

This will be the second time that the Ambassadors have been in Hart County. They sang at the Horse Cave Christian Church last September and got a tremendous response from the crowd. Jerry Adams, president of the Singing Convention stated, 'This could well be one of the top gospel singings ever in this area.'

A number of bookings on the professional gospel circuit have already been lined up for the Ambassadors during July and August. On these programs they will be appearing with such groups as the Oak Ridge Boys Inspirationalists, LeFevres, and the Hinsons.

The Ambassadors released their first album earlier this year. The album is entitled "Grace." It features the group's inspirational arrangement of "Amazing Grace," as well as other great gospel songs like "Redemption Draweth Nigh" and "I'll Have A New Life."

This singing will give everyone an opportunity to hear one of the nation's top groups of Christian singers.
From The Hart Co. GMA President

By Johnny Melloan

So you are involved in gospel music...what responsibility does this place on you? Do you have any more responsibility than any other Christian?

The answer to the second question should probably be no. Each Christian is responsible for the example he sets. But people in gospel music have an added obligation. Every Christian has a job to do and gospel music happens to be what some of us work at.

The difference in this and other jobs is the fact that gospel singers are more directly in the public view. People tend to look at gospel groups with the idea that they should be better than other people...an idea similar to that about preachers being supposed to act better than others. Since gospel singers are just like other Christians, such an idea is unfounded. But since it does exist, our responsibility is to “avoid the appearance of evil.” Your actions have a strong influence on the public’s view of other singers and Christians in general.

What is your responsibility? Read Matthew 5:16 and do what it says.

The Ministers’ View

By Rev. Owen Logsdon

Paul said, “Sing unto the Lord and make melody in your heart.” David said, “Sing praises unto the Lord.”

No worship service is complete without spiritual singing. It revives the spirit in man, as nothing else can. It will reach the unsaved person or the person in doubt.

For example, in a revival last summer one boy doubted his salvation until he heard the Gospel Voices sing the song—“I Know.” After hearing this song, without a doubt, he knew God was real in his heart.

BARREN COUNTY
ELECTS OFFICERS

The Barren County Singing Convention was held May 13th at South Fork Baptist Church. During the business session of the singing new officers were elected. The newly elected president, Don Cottrell, vice-president, Kyle Bowles and secretary-treasurer, Jacque Cottrell urge everyone to support the singing convention in the coming year.

J. V. Trio
Plans More Singing Time

If you have not heard the Jack Vincent Trio sing or if you have not had the opportunity to fellowship with Jack, Mavis, Darlene and Kenny then we are looking forward to meeting you in the near future at homecomings, revivals, and at singing conventions. Don't forget the big singing coming up July 19 with the Dixie Echoes. This is the singing Jack has been talking about on his radio program every Sunday morning. Keep listening to Sunday Morning Singing Time on WLOC in Munfordville from 9:15 til 9:45 for more information on that big singing.

The Jack Vincent Trio is making preparations to have more time for their singing in the very near future. If you would like for us to come and fellowship with you at your church please call 524-5372.

GOSPEL SINGING
PLANNED FOR
HART COUNTY FAIR

by Jack Vincent

The County Fair is always an exciting event every year, not only in Hart County but everywhere. As many of you that were in attendance last year, many of you already know what a great fair it was.

This being my first year as an officer of the Hart County Fair Board, I'm really excited about it. Not only do we promise another great fair, but I especially want to emphasize a GREAT GOSPEL SINGING.

We have scheduled the singing this year on Tuesday night of the fair. This promises to be the biggest and best gospel singing the fair has ever had. I do not at this time have a complete list of all the groups that will be with us, but keep reading and as soon as we have our line-up of singers we will let you know.

THE COOKS SAY THANKS

The Cook Family Singers would like to express their gratitude to all the people who have supported them with their prayers, attendance, and invitations to sing and worship with them. Also to the ones who have purchased and helped to promote our albums.

We are looking forward to the many opportunities the future presents for us to spread the gospel in song and testimony.

Something good has happened to us!!! We would like to share it with you.

Have YOU Joined THE HART CO. GMA??

GOSPEL SERVANTS SING TO HARDIN INMATES

The Gospel Servants are taking their message where there is a real need. On June 17, the Gospel Servants will be assisting Rev. Theodore McCubbins in services at the Hardin County Jail. The Sunday afternoon service will begin at 2:00 E.D.T.

Jimmy McCubbins, the group’s lead singer, said that he felt that a great deal of good could come from services of this type. This ministry is a joint effort of the Severs Valley Baptist Association. Churches in the association present programs on a rotating basis at the Hardin County Jail. This work has seen many people come to Christ.

The Hart County GMA is lucky to have a group such as the Gospel Servants, who are willing to go where the audience is not always friendly... but definitely in need.

The Seekers

The Seekers Quartet started in September of 1970. The Seekers were originally a trio, but soon became a quartet in May of 1971. The group consists of Dean Morris, Bass; Judy South, soprano; David McCubbins, tenor; Marcella Ervin, Alto; Gary Ervin, piano; and David South, booking agent.

The Seekers have traveled all over southern Kentucky and have sung in a great many churches of all denominations. The purposes of the quartet can be stated like this: “That the world might see Jesus in us and that we might lift His name to a lost world”. There are two ministers in the group, Gary Ervin and David South; two minister’s wives, Marcella and Judy; and two minister’s sons, Dean Morris and David McCubbins. One of our greatest supporters is Judy McCubbins, the wife of David.

The Seekers have sung for home-comings, revivals, church services of all kinds and at many other events. Anyone who would like to have the Seekers in their church may contact: Mr. David South, Edmonton, Kentucky Phone 432-2512.
By Donna Stanton

People are funny critters. When you ask their opinion of something they always start with something negative. Like the ones who like to criticize gospel music and gospel singers, for instance. They can always find something wrong with the singers' clothes, hair, choice of songs, instruments, P.A. set, etc.

I have been writing about gospel music for nearly two years and singing it for three years. During that time I've made lotsa friends who are amateur, semi-professional, and even professional gospel singers. I have been in many spiritual services and seen souls saved through the message of Jesus Christ as presented in gospel music.

So far I've never been able to see the evils in long skirts or well-groomed long hair. A P.A. set is used so everyone in the building will be able to hear. It is no more the work of the Devil than any other electrical invention. As for objections to musical instruments please read Psalms 98 and 150.

Gospel singers are people with human failings but most are sincerely dedicated to uplifting the cause of Christ through their music. Of course they strive for professionalism in their sound! God expects no less than the best one is capable of -- from anyone.

If you are suffering from what I call the “straining at a gnat and swallowing a camel” syndrome, I invite you to attend our Hart County GMA singings. Talk to the groups and get to know them as people. Find out how much dedication, hard work and most of all, prayer, it takes to be a gospel singer. Hear and understand the Message. You might go away with a change of mind and heart!!!

CEDAR CLIFF
ALL-DAY SERVICE

On June 17, 1973, there will be an all-day service at the Cedar Cliff Baptist Church, just off 31-W between Horse Cave and Munfordville, for the purpose of dedicating the new Sunday School rooms and basement. Preaching will begin at 11:00, followed by a pot luck dinner, and a gospel sing to begin around 1:30. Groups scheduled to sing are the Joyway Singers, The Gospel Voices, and the Christian Sounds. Make plans to attend to serve the Lord in worship, fellowship and singing.

The Thomas Quartet, from Scottsville, will be the featured group at the first monthly singing held by the Hart County GMA. This singing will take place on Saturday night, June 23, at the Horse Cave Baptist Church. The Gospel Voices are also scheduled on the program, which will begin at 7:30 CDT.

Most gospel music fans in the area are familiar with the Thomas Quartet. They were the guest group at the Hart County Singing Convention in May. This outstanding quartet is recognized as one of the top semi-professional gospel groups in southern Kentucky.

The Gospel Voices are promoting this singing in conjunction with the Hart County GMA. Monthly singings are planned with each group associated with the organization promoting them on a rotating basis. The July singing will be hosted by the Christian Sounds.
The Hart County GMA "Kick-Off Sing" proved to be a great success. Several local groups appeared on the program.

A NOTE FROM THE CHRISTIAN SOUNDS

The Christian Sounds would like to take this opportunity to say “Thank You” to the churches who have allowed us the opportunity to come into their congregations to spread the gospel in song.

There are so many people who do not truly appreciate gospel music -- and for this reason, they fail to receive a blessing from the many beautiful songs written to praise and glorify God. It matters not if the harmony is not perfect; if the church is not full; if the group is not dressed alike. If we only do our best for God, surely it will be good enough for lowly mortals, such as you and I.

The Christian Sounds have truly been blessed as we have gone to different congregations, have seen the many types of worship, and have sung of God’s love for man. Please pray for the Christian Sounds, that we will be able to do God’s work; for the GMA, that its purpose will not be defeated; and the next time there is a singing -- GO!! Go with an open heart, that you will feel the message of the songs deep in your heart. John 3:16.

DIXIE ECHOES TO APPEAR JULY 19

by Mavis Vincent

"COME ON OUT AND SUPPORT GOSPEL MUSIC!!!"

Jack Vincent of Sunday Morning Singing Time has been promising to bring a professional gospel singing group to Munfordville. Well, a couple of weeks ago we went to Nashville, Tennessee to the Grand Ole Opry Building and the Dixie Echoes were there. If you haven't heard them lately you are really missing a treat.

Jack talked to Dale Shelnut while we were there and he hooked them to come to the Hart County High School Gym on July 19, 1973.

We will be giving more details about this singing on WLOC and in GOSPEL REACHING OUT.

Please make your plans to come out and support gospel music.

THE VOICES OF FAITH

Don and Jacque Cottrell began singing as a husband and wife combination in November of 1972. Previously with The Good News Singers, they have had three years experience in Gospel Music.

Both Don and Jacque are originally from rural Bonnieville, now residing near Glasgow where they are members of Calvary Baptist Church. The Cottrells have recently added a third singing member, Wilma Spradlin, Horse Cave, originally from Bonnieville. Also joining the group is Wilma's brother Garrell Butler, Bowling Green, who plays the guitar.

The Voices of Faith want to express their appreciation to those who have encouraged and supported them in their singing ministry. God has richly blessed these singers as they strive to do His will.
