LANDMARK REPORT of Bowling Green & Warren County

Vol. I, No. 5, Aug. 1981

BG-WC ARTS COMMISSION

Opening week for the Capitol Theater will take place the week of September 11 through 19. Activities will begin with the opening of the Ervin G. Houchens Gallery and a ribbon-cutting ceremony/reception. A variety of events scheduled throughout the week include the Southern Kentucky Guild Show, "Broadway Tonight", "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown", the Garden Club historic tour, a morning concert, Brown Bag Lunches with entertainment, an After School Workshop for grades 1-6, a Teen Variety Show, geneology discussion, an After School Puppet Show, "Women in the Arts", Childfest '81 and Porter Wagoner. Everyone is encouraged to show their support by attending any or all of the events.

CHILDFEST '81

The City of Bowling Green Community Education Department is sponsoring Childfest '81 to be held in Fountain Square Park Saturday, September 19, 1981 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Landmark is currently planning an activity for this event.

AUGUST MEETING

The Landmark Association's August general meeting will be held at the Bowling Green Public Library on Monday, August 24, 1981 at 7:30 p.m. Architect Bill Moore will present slides and architectural drawings of the J.R. Meany and Associates project. J.R. Meany and Associates are currently rehabilitating the buildings at 911-13, 915 and 917 College Street for use as professional offices and retail business.

Following the general meeting, a house tour will be conducted at the home of Drucilla Jones, 1332 Chestnut.

CONCERTS IN THE PARK

The Downtown Business Association is sponsoring a free concert series each Wednesday afternoon from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. through September 9th in Fountain Square Park. Bring a lunch from home or buy a lunch from one of the downtown restaurants and spend an afternoon in the park.

OLD-HOUSE JOURNAL

Landmark members can save 25% off the Old-House Journal subscription rate by ordering through our office. In addition, your subscription will help Landmark raise needed revenue. The Old-House Journal contains many useful articles regarding maintenance and rehabilitation of older homes.

KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION OF MUSEUMS

The Kentucky Museum will host the Kentucky Association of Museums Annual Meeting October 8-9, 1981. Professionals from state and regional institutions will speak on "Museums on a Shoestring". Individual presentations and panel discussions will focus upon creative solutions to the budget crunch with sessions on exhibits, conservation, programming, care of collections and public relations. Contact Vicky Middleswarth-Kohn at 745-2592 for more information.

NEW DOWNTOWN BUSINESSES

The Landmark Association would like to welcome the following new businesses to the downtown area. Footwear Village at 1002 State Street and Flying Feet at 428 East Main Street are now open for business. Don's Sport Shop at 433 Park Row will open soon and Bowman Office Supply will be open in the fall in the Pushin Building at 400 East Main Street.

DOWNTOWN REHABILITATION

The following rehabilitation projects have begun or will begin soon in the Downtown Commercial Historic District: Bowman Office Supply at 400 East Main, Jack Russell Dress Shop at 910 State Street, Covington Building at 415 Park Row, TG&Y Building at 921 College, Stark Building at 927 College and Chautauqua Hall at 1027 State.

The Landmark Report is the official newsletter of the Landmark Association of Bowling Green and Warren County, Inc. published on a monthly basis.
