BARREN COUNTY AND THE ALAMO???

What possible connection does Barren County have with the Alamo? More than one might think! Descendants of many early settlers moved on and left relatives here. Thus the families of Travis, Jett, Locke, Crockett, Baugh, Downing, Waters, Hindman, Gass and Meek, to name a few, had relatives who died at the Alamo.

It's no wonder so many inhabitants of this area turned out to see the famous Mexican General Santa Anna when he passed through on his way to Washington, D. C., in custody of a U. S. Marshall. And it's not surprising that such a man should be closely guarded, even while having to share the stagecoach with the regular passengers, who might be 'going back East to visit the folks' or just to the next town to trade.

Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna entered the army at age 15, and in 1833 was chosen president of Mexico. He attacked San Antonio in February, 1836, stormed the Alamo, killed its defenders, and pursued the Texans under Sam Houston. But on April 21, at the Battle of San Jacinto, his forces were routed and he was taken prisoner. Besides his military career, history tells us that Santa Anna was a very flashy dresser, preferring bright colored uniforms with brass or silver buttons. We are also told that he was the first person to introduce chewing gum to the United States.

In 1796, Congress asked that a road be built from Wheeling, WV, across the Ohio River, through Zanesville, OH, and south, again crossing the Ohio at Limestone (now Mayfield). In 1830 the road was extended south and west through Paris, Lexington, Shakertown, Perryville, Campbellsville, GLASGOW, and Scottsville, then on to Gallatin, TN.

This was the stagecoach route over which the mail was carried. (By the way, when the mail traveled this road, the postage was 25¢.) When Santa Anna was captured in Texas in 1836, he was transported to Washington along this road by the mail coach.

The Glasgow Post Office acquired the use of a stagecoach to represent this journey in the Homecoming Parade on Oct. 1. The part of Santa Anna was played by Eddie Joe Newberry; the U. S. Marshall by Rick Calvert; passenger by Joyce Kinslow; guards on horseback were Johnny and Janet Kinslow, Tina Powell, and Martha Reneau; guard on coach was Vernon Kinslow. The coach was pulled by a mule team owned by Mr. June Routt of Sonora, Ky. Mr. Routt collected parts for many years before actually building the stagecoach some 25 years ago. It is built the same as the originals he studied and some original parts were used. Mr. Routt was the driver.

HCMECOMING 1988 REVIEWED

The 1988 Barren County Homecoming attracted many but the activities were spread County-Wide and it was not possible to get a head count of those attending. Even the bean soup lunch served at Temple Hill was sold out by 1:00 P.M. on Saturday, the Parade Day in Glasgow.

Reports are that the Parade was the BEST ever held in Glasgow.

The Glasgow Baptist Church provided a large tent on their parking facility for many events. During the rainy days the tent provided a haven for spectators.

The displays on the Glasgow Public Square were very exciting. It is hard to realize that in 1798, the scene of the 1988 celebration, the 150 acres of the original sight was covered in pea vines and trees, a very few log cabins and a tavern or two, and the Gorin Spring that provided water for the early settlers.

Wish each of you could have gone on the tours through the county and in Glasgow. The Glasgow tour was to five historic sights in Glasgow. This was sponsored by the Glasgow Garden Club. The County Tours, through the North, East, South and West was sponsored by the Edmund Rogers Chapter, D A R and the Glasgow Board of Realtors.

If you were not able to attend, you missed a good time. Start now to make plans to Come On Home to Kentucky when we celebrate in 1992.

Excerpts from a letter received by the Homecoming Committee: My husband is a direct descendant of Henry Miller. His mother was Mary Velonia Miller, dau. William Graham Miller, gr-dau of James Miller, son of Henry. Her mother was Henrietta Barner, a descendant of Elzey and Nancy Mitchell of Metcalfe County, so both her lines go back into that area before 1800's. Moved to Texas in early 1900's. Mary's gr.mother was Carolina Matilda Day, wife of Frederick Miller, who died at the birth of her son, William. She was a sister of William Logan Day, one of Barren County's Medal of Honor Willers who is named on the plaque on the courthouse.

My husband, Walter Harvey Plummer, Jr., has a brother Frederick Wayne Plummer. There were two other cousins, one of whom is dead, William G. Miller, Jr and Mary Bess Miller Groves of Arlington, Texas. Fred has two sons and a daughter, and Harvey and I have two sons. My husband is a retired Air Force Lt. Col; his brother is retired from the Air Force Office of special investigations - the FBI of the Air Force. I am a retired school administrator.

The letter was signed by Jackeye Plummer (Mrs Walter H Plummer), a resident of Wichita Falls, Texas.

All during the week the office of the Glasgow-Barren County Chamber of Commerce was a bee-hive of activities. The telephone rang constantly, the Director was very busy running errands, and helping to culminate plans for all the activities, and the staff never found a dull moment. In other words, the Homecoming was a big success because of the participation of the wonderful citizens of the County.

Sincerely,

One of the Participants

THE VILLAGE OF NOBOB

The village of Nobob was a community center at an early date. I have been unable to obtain the name of the first merchant there. Lank Williams operated a general store at this point some eighty years ago. Billie Smith was a saddle maker there about the same time. D B (Bowman) Ritter, Sr built a mill a few hundred yards up the creek from the ford where his granddaughter, Quintella Chapman, now lives, about 1845. The old mill dam can be seen until this late date. I am told the sills to the old structure could be seen protruding from the banks of the creek until recent years. This was a tub wheel mill, the forerunner of the turbine wheel used today. This mill was discontinued many years ago, probably due to the lack of sufficient water, the stream being very small at this point. There was also a carding machine, and a wagon shop there at an early date.

It has been authoritatively learned that postoffice at Nobob was established April 8th, 1854 with Newberry M Wilson as postmaster. Subsequent postmasters in their proper sequence were Henry L Holsclaw, September 25th, 1855; John M. Webb, Augst 30, 1859; James E Wilson, August 5th, 1861; Isaac Kingery, January 5th, 1864; John H Biggers, October 30th, 1866;) the postoffice was moved to Apple Grove October 30th, 1866 and remained there until December 11th, 1866); William H Daniels, December 11th, 1866; Henry L Holsclaw, June 27th, 1870; Wood Tudor, October 3rd, 1875; Mrs Bettie D Tudor, October 20th, 1884; John F Pitcock, December 16th, 1887; Luke G Holloway, November 21st, 1888; John Holsclaw, November 19th, 1890; Charles M Gentry, February 13th, 1894; George W Barkhusrt, February 26th, 1896; John Holsclaw, November 5th, 1896; Henrietta B. Wilborn, August 11th, 1898; Joseph Comer, January 30th, 1908; Elora Payne, January 9th, 1909; William H. Crabtree, October 27th, 1909; James M Oliver, December 24th, 1910; Amanda Boyter, November 22nd, 1911; Grover C Baxter, May 18th, 1914; Maye Page, September 30th, 1919; John H Arterburn, May 12th, 1920; Mrs Estella Smith, April 18, 1922, who served until the office was discontinued November 14, 1936.

The old Courts home stood on the hill about two hundred yards west of store now operated by Horace G. Smith. This house was one of the first frame buildings erected in the neighborhood. It was a large structure, four room square, with full basement. Large chimneys stood at each end of the house and each chimney afforded flues for four fireplaces, two for the first floor and two for the upstairs rooms. It was operated many years as a stage stand and tavern. It was looked on as the maximum in fine home-building for many years and was referred to as the big house on the hill. Gabriel Slaughter Tudor later owned and lived in the old Courts home. Alas, it has long since outlied its glory and has been torn down.

Joe and Thomas Bell, sons of Thomas Bell previously referred to, owned and operated a tan yard up the creek from Nobob near the old D.B.(Bowman) Ritter SR Mill.

This concludes all history I have been able to gather relative to the village of Nobob.

During the War of 1812 a powder plant was erected about one mile west of Nobob on Nobob Creek. The land on which it stood is now owned by Malcolm Williams. Water power was used in connection with operation of the plant and the old dam and race can be seen until this late date. This is an example of the resourcefulness of our pioneer ancestors, in addition to raising their own food, tanning the leather and making their own shoes, carding, spinning and weaving their own cloth, they did not depend on a distant plant to manufacture their gun powder.

James L Chapman came from Tennessee prior to the Civil War and located where Alf Hopkins now lives. He was affectionately known as "Daddy Chapman" by his neighbors. James L. and his oldest son, Allen, served in the Union Army during the Civil War.

William Biggers, a native of Ireland, came to Virginia when a young man. Three of his sons, John, born September 10, 1795; Dr Geo. W. born May 3, 1800 and Owen born Feb 5, 1809, emigrated to Kentucky early in the nineteenth century, located near the present Monroe County line in the southeastern section of the county. Dr Geo W married about 1830, Nancy, daughter of Thomas and Priscilla (Evans) Sabens. His home was in the vicinity of the present residence of Evans Arterburn, on Hackers branch, some three miles southeast of Poplar Log Cemetery. He was one of the early practicing physicians in the Sulphur Lick, Mount Hermon and Freedom neighborhoods. The following children were born to George W. and his wife Nancy, Thomas, who married Louise Payne; Susan who married Frank Frazier; Narcissus, who married Stanford Reynolds, and Dr. Carter Westerfield, who married Elizabeth Payne. Dr Charles Westerfield was the grandfather of Gilmore and Dutch Biggers, who now live in Glasgow.

John Biggers married Christena, born June 2, 1802, died October 27, 1865. John died July 23, 1870, The following children were born to this union: James, who married a Miss Smith; Polly who married Dr William Miller; Peggy who married a Mr Sabens, and Sabina, who married Robert Bell, John was the grandfather of Mr Ish Biggers of Temple Hill.

Owen Biggers married Elsey Hamilton, born July 4, 1821, the daughter of John and Polly (White) Hamilton. Owen Biggers was a merchant at Apple Grove and a rural school teacher. He also operated a mill at Apple Grove. One son, John H. was born to this union. John married Retta Whitney, of Barren County. He moved to Louisville about 1870 and clerked in a store in that city. During an epidemic of smallpox in Louisville in 1873 he contracted the disease and died about Jan 14, in that year, he is buried in Cave Hill Cemetery. His father, Owen, died September 15, 1868, and his mother Elsey, died June 6th 1895.

Tracy Huffman built an overshot mill on Hackers branch many years ago but I have been unable to obtain even the approximate date. It is located about one half mile over in Monroe County and about three miles from Poplar Log. The original water wheel was made of wood and after many years of constant use it decayed and was removed. A metal wheel was then installed, which is the largest I have ever seen, some twenty-eight feet in diameter, and is still intact. Although this mill has not been in operation for many years it is in a fair state of preservation and is well worth the time of any one having an inclination to view these old landmarks. It is the only mill of this type, that I have knowledge of in this section of the state that has not been torn down.

In our historical journey we will now move back to the north side of Skeggs Creek.

William Depp, a soldier in the Revolution, serving in the Virginia Militia, came to Kentucky in 1792, locating for a short period near Merry Oaks. He later moved to a farm at the confluence of Nobob and Skeggs Creek where Mr Walter Atkinson now lives. Here he erected his log cabin to shelter his family from the rains and storms. With his trusty rifle he provided meat for his family; with his axe he felled the trees and cleared the ground to plant his first crop of corn. Time passed on and soon the little clearing grew to large fields. The family grew in proportion and soon the little log house would not accommodate the members of his household.

Mr Depp erected a large brick house, the roof to which was made of Walnut shingles and put on with wooden pegs. A hole was bored with a gimlet and the peg driven in. The floors were made of plank sawed with the whip saw and the nails made at the blacksmith shop that cost 50¢ per lb. The site of the old brick home can be identified at the present time. Small pieces of brick old nails and broken dishes are frequently ploughed up by the present owners of the property.

Mr Depp is buried in the small family graveyard about three hundred yards southwest of his old home. There is no marker at his grave and the plot is in an unkempt condition at present.

William married Mary Walker in Virginia. They were blessed with a large family as follows: Joel, who married Mary Montague, daughter of Clementau Montague, who lived about three miles southwest of Glasgow on U S Highway 31 E, near the stone filling station recently operated by Mr Goodman. The property is now owned by Mrs Benjamin Everett. Joel had children Albert who married Emily Cox; James who married Willie Taylor; Hardin, who married Sarah Eliza Ritter first, the widow Sallie Burton, second; Clamanchia who married Tate Henry, and Thomas. Peter married Mary Courts. The first part of their married life was spent on the farm now owned by Dr William G. Depp on Nobob Creek. They later moved to a large farm on Fallen timber Creek east of the Burkesville highway, where Mrs Clem Depp now lives. The following children were born to Peter and his wife, Mary: Walter, who married Marcella Burks, William, who married Anthenia Bailey; John, who was never married; Sarah, never married, died young; Thomas married Emily Grinstead; Virginia married Robert Gassoway; Joel married Sarah Elizabeth Sartin; Chris Tompkins married Nancy Elizabeth Dougherty; Mary Hanson never married. John married Mary Ellis and moved to Missouri in the thirties. He had one daughter, Kte^{NOTE}, who married Dr Conkin. There were probably other children. Thomas married Phoebe Young. They lived on the old William Depp farm. The following children were born to this union: Amand, who married Giles Buford; Joe died when two years of age; Sueton, married James Bacon; Fannie married George Wilborn; Mary married Elzie Arterburn. They moved to Missouri where he was murdered during the Civil War. His wife with the assistance of a neighbor woman, dug the grave and buried his remains. Mary later married Robert Button; Hady died in childhood; Phoebe married Sam Harlan; Walker married Matt Webb, a brother of Clayborne Webb, who married a Miss Howell, a sister in law of Jefferson Davis. Betsy Davis married Thomas Winn, Nancy Depp married Benjamin Davidson. Susan Depp married A. M. Davidson. Marmella Depp married George Young, Martha Depp married James Young. Sally Depp married William Wooten, a son of Joseph Wooten. Jane Depp married William Young, Polly Depp married Elijah Buford.

The Depp family has played a prominent part in the business and social life of Barren County. Mr Adolphus Depp, who is now living on Beaver Creek some three miles north of Glasgow was Sheriff of Barren County during the latter part of the eighties. He is now about eighty eight years old. With the exception of his hearing, which is slightly impaired, he enjoys the faculties and vitality of a man of sixty-five. (Mr Depp has passed to his reward (April 17, 1941)(since this article was written.

Mr James P. Depp, a prominent merchant in Glasgow for many years, was a descendant of William Depp, the pioneer. He was known for his sterling honesty and high morality; a devout member of the Christian Church to which he contributed liberally from his means. He made no distinction in forming his associates and acquaintances; all honored him and would seek his wise council.

Among the other prominent descendants of William Depp are Dr. Candor Depp, of Hiseville; Dr William G Depp, of Nobob; James W Depp, our present efficient City Superintendent of Schools; Chris Y. Depp, a prominent farmer in the eastern section of the county.

I am indebted to Miss Angie Larimore of Glasgow for much of the foregoing history of the Depp family. She is also a descendant of pioneer William Depp.

Johnathan and Sylvenus Bacon, brothers, came from eastern Tennessee just after the war between the states and located on the north side of Nobob Creek some three miles east of Temple Hill. The farm on which Johnathan lived is now owned by Ray Pitcock. Sylvenus owned the farm where his son, E.M. Bacon, now resides. Johnathan married Armilda Broady; Sylvenus married Sarah A Cary. There are many descendants of these two brothers still living in the neighborhood.

Tradition tells us that William Biggers had two daughters: Mary (Polly), who married James W. Wilborn, son of Joshua and Rachel (Smith) Wilborn. James W. died 1841 Or 1842 and left eight children. Most of the children eventually moved to Missouri. No record has been found of what happened to Mary (Polly) She was not in the 1850 census. Their children were: Siba, d. 13 April 1911, Solon, Indiana, married Lucy Jane Wilkinson, 11 March 1847; Thompson, d. 6 December, 1856, Monroe County, Kentucky, married Elizabeth G. (?); John, to Kansas, married Louisa Reynolds; Jane, d. 18 Oct 1854, Kentucky, married Robert H Sanders; James H. b. 11 August 1831, Monroe County, d. 24 August 1910, Peculiar, Missouri, married his first cousin, Margaret Sabins, daughter of George Washington and Tabitha (Wilborn) Sabins about 1855; Sarah probably died in Missouri, married Joseph P. Bailey, son of William and Elizabeth (Foster) Bailey, on 22 January, 1855, reference History of Cass- Bates Counties, Missouri; Martha married a Neal, lived in Chicato, and is buried in Peculiar Cemetery, Peculiar, Mo; and William.

The other daughter of William Biggers is unknown.

Dear Editor:

I recently attended the estate sale of an elderly lady who had resided in Austin, Texas. The lady was over 90 years old and her husband had passed away. Because of senility, she had to be placed in a nursing home. Since the couple had never had children, their estate is being managed by a friend under whose custody the couple had been placed. This friend knows of no living relatives.

At the sale, I purchased some old family photographs in the hope that I might eventually be able to get them into the hands of a descendant who would appreciate having them. Most of the photographs appear to have been taken around the turn of the century, perhaps much earlier. Unlike most old photographs we run across, almost all of these are identified, even to the extent of an address in some cases. Since several were identified as being from Barren Co KY, I am hoping that you might be able to help me locate descendants of the subjects in these photographs. Perhaps you would consider publishing the attached list in your quarterly.

As president of our local Williamson County (TX) Genealogical Society, I would also like to mention that we publish a 50-page quarterly, The Chisholm Trail. At present, we exchange our publication with 80 other genealogical societies. If your society would be interested in exchanging, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Irene Varan

THE WILLIAM WELLINGTON REYNOLDS FAMILY

William Wellington Reynolds was born about 1818 in Virginia. He is believed to be a son of William Reynolds b. ca 1781 and Martha Reynolds who married ca 1817 in Virginia (William married 2) 1833 in Barren Co., Ky. to Mary Ann Johns), died 1852 in Barren Co., Ky.

William Wellington Reynolds married 1) ca 1839 to Rhoda Wilson b. 1822 in Ky., daughter of John Wilson b. ca 1791 N.C., d. ca 1875 Ky. and Rhoda (Martin) Wilson b. ca 1794, d. ca 1865 Ky.

Children of William Wellington and Rhoda Reynolds include:

1. John W. Reynolds b. 1840, m. Mary P. Mitchell 1873.
2. Mary Jane Reynolds b. 1842.
3. Elizabeth F. Reynolds b. 1844.
4. Emily A. Reynolds b. 1846.
5. William McLean Reynolds b. 1848, m. Winnie Ann Mattingly (1853-1888) in 1874, d. 1936 Spencer Co., Ind.
Children: a. James Harvey Reynolds b. 1874, m. Lou DeHaven, Kate Miller.
b. Mary Ellen Reynolds b. 1877, m. George Smith.
c. John Clarence Reynolds b. 1879, m. Ida Poole.
d. Joseph Thomas Reynolds b. 1880, m. America Staten.
e. Raymond Reynolds b. 1882, m. Rose Askins.
f. Edgar Reynolds b. 1885, m. Izora Sebastian.
6. Lucinda Reynolds b. 1851.
7. James H. Reynolds b. 1852.
8. Ann Eliza Reynolds b. 1855, m. John H. Borders 1879.
9. Thomas Jefferson Reynolds b. 1856, m. Virginia Borders 1879.
10. F. M. Reynolds b. 1858, m. Eliza Gossage 1883.
11. Ellen Reynolds b. 1860.

William Wellington Reynolds is listed on Barren Co., Ky. tax lists 1848 through 1872, some years using name of William Reynolds, some years using Wellington Reynolds.

He first appears on 1840 Barren Co., Ky. federal census with a son aged under 5 years and his wife; he is "Wellington Runnals".

On 1850 Barren Co. census Wellington Reynolds age 32 is a farmer, his wife Rhody is 28, and their children are listed: John W. age 9, Mary J. age 7, Elizabeth F. age 5, Emily A. age 4, and William McLean Reynolds age 1. (Family #420 in the First Division.) They lived next door to the Obediah and Ann Burnett family, whose oldest daughter Nancy b. 1826, had married in 1847 in Barren Co. to Henry Lewis Simpson. Henry and Nancy are my great-great-grandparents.

Henry and Nancy Simpson had four children:

1. James H. b. 1848, died young, before 1870.
2. William S. b. 1850 (my great-grandfather), m. 1876 to Louise Anna Lowe (1854-1933), 6 children, died 1930.
3. Charles Allen b. 1853, died young.
4. Mary F. b. 1856, m. 1880 to George Wheeler, 6 children:
William T. b. 1882, Thayer E. b. 1888, Charles E. b. 1892,
James b. 1894, Robert M. b. 1896, Ellen E. b. 1900.

Henry Simpson died 3 March 1859 in Butler Co., Ky. and is buried at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, in Edmonson Co. near his father Azel Simpson (1787-1863). After Henry's death, his widow moved back to Barren Co. near her mother. The 1860 Barren Co. census shows Nancy Simpson age 32 with her children: James age 12, William S. age 10, Charles age 7, and Mary Simpson age 4. Next door lived Nancy's mother, Anna Burnett age 55, a widow, with her 4 children: William, Mahala, Virginia, and John.

William Wellington Reynolds's first wife Rhoda apparently died around 1860-1863. He married his second wife Nancy Burnett Simpson in Barren Co., Ky. on 31 May 1870 according to Marriage Book 10, Page 235, File 14. However, Sarah age 6 on 1870 census is believed to be the daughter of William and Nancy Reynolds.

The 1870 Barren Co., Ky. federal census lists on page 21, in dwelling #148, being family #142: William Reynolds age 53, Nancy Reynolds age 42, and Nancy's children: William S. Simpson age 19, Mary age 14, Sarah age 6.

1880 census record has not been located on this Reynolds family.

1900 Warren Co., Ky. federal census lists Wellington Reynolds age 83, father-in-law, married 37 years and his wife Nancy, age 73, mother-in-law, married 37 years, having borne 5 children, 3 of whom were still living: Family #321, Dwelling #321, Sup. Dist. 72, Sheet #17, Enum. Dist. #110, Pg. #26. They are living in the household of George H. Wheeler and his wife Mary F. Wheeler (Mary is Nancy's daughter), and the 6 children of George and Mary. Nancy Reynolds is age 73, born December 1826 in Tennessee. This is the last record found to date on Wellington and Nancy Reynolds. Their death dates and burial places are unknown to this writer.

*Note- other records, Vital Statistics, e. g., show that John Newman married Louisa Lewis.

It appears likely, though proof is lacking, that John M. Lewis, Theodore W. Lewis, and Louisa Lewis Newman are children of William H. Lewis by a wife other than Elizabeth Pitcock Lewis.

The U. S. Census for 1860, Monroe Co., Ky. lists in the household/family of John Newman, 675/679 the following:

| | | |
| John Newman | 40 | b. Tenn. |

The foregoing article was contributed by Dr. D. Hugh Puckett, 729 Morehead Way, Bowling Green, Ky. 42101. Dr. Puckett states: "The enclosed material concerns a Lewis family that had members living in Monroe Co., and in Barren Co., and perhaps represents more than one family. I think it would be appropriate to publish it in "TRACES" either in installments or as a unit so that other researchers can benefit from it and perhaps help to determine accurate relationships among those people. As I'm sure you know, work with Monroe Co. families is difficult because of burned early records.

I'm attempting to identify the parents of John P.(Porter?) Lewis, my gr. gr. grandfather who married Mary S. Houck in Barren Co. May 7, 1840. It has been suggested that his father was James Lewis who lived on Gardner's Sinking Creek from 1808-1811 but I can find no records of this James beyond the 1811 date and nothing to indicate the names of his children or where he came from. Mr. gr. gr. gr. grandfather Timothy Puckett came to Barren Co. from Orangeburgh District, S.C., in 1798(99) and also owned land in the Gardner's Sinking Creek area, as did his brother Ephraim Puckett.

I've done much work on the Lewis families of Barren Co. and have perhaps the most complete records of anyone doing such work. Will be happy to help anyone if I have the info. It's the Monroe Co. family that I've not been able to determine relationships for and publication of this material could perhaps elicit information from others and provide information so that correct relationships can be determined."

TRACES, the society's quarterly publication is received by all members. It is published seasonally: Spring, Summer, Fall, and Winter. Members joining during the year will receive the past issues of that year.

Contributions are earnestly solicited. Family genealogies, marriage, Bible, will and probate, cemetery, court and other records are all acceptable. You will be listed as the contributor on all material you submit.

Queries are accepted only from members, without limit, and will be published as space permits. Queries should be limited to about fifty words each.

Books to be reviewed in "TRACES" must be sent with information as to the cost, including postage, and from whom the book may be obtained. Books become the property of the society library. Books should have some Kentucky interest. Reviews will be published as space permits.
