PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Have you ever thought that the initials ABWA could stand for the phrase "A Busy Woman About"? Well, girls, that is exactly what we are going to be--busy women. We are looking forward to a successful visit from Peggy Flannigan. Hold your calendars open for the weekend of February 12th. We plan to fling with Flannigan at that time. Also get your reservations in for Boss Night, February 15th.

We appreciate Katie's hospitality for the potluck supper held in honor of Opal McLaughlin. We will certainly miss Opal. She has been a bright spot in our organization and a wonderful friend to all. We admire and love her very much.

Congratulations to Dian and Charles Elmore upon the birth of a baby daughter.

Also congratulations to Bonnie Rush who became Mrs. L. H. Clemons Saturday, January 16th.

I hope to see each member in attendance at the January meeting. We have a couple of very important decisions to make at that time in regard to Boss Night and Woman of the Year.

Linda Sidebottom

PEGGY FLANNIGAN DAY

Mayor Weis has declared a proclamation proclaiming that the week of February 14th through 21st will be American Business Women's Association week in Bowling Green.

Also the mayor has set aside February 15th as Peggy Flannigan Day in Bowling Green.

POT LUCK

A Pot Luck is planned in honor of Peggy on Sunday, February 13th, at the home of Judy Faught.

All members are urged to attend and meet our new National President from Houston, Texas. More plans will be made for this at the January meeting.

ATTENTION MEMBERS!

Have you been selling your tickets on the wardrobe?

Don't forget this is going to be given away January 26th, so get to work and sell those tickets.

Who knows, you may be the lucky winner!

The Chapter is also selling ads to be printed in the Boss Night programs. All clear money will be used for the same purpose the tickets are.

RESERVATIONS - BOSS NIGHT

Ilma Love should be contacted for reservations for Boss Night by February 14, 1965.

Reservations made by Kentucky Colonel members on or before February 14th will be $2.50. If you wait until February 15th they will be $3.00 per person.

Paying before the 15th will save money and most of all a lot of confusion that would otherwise be caused by waiting until the last minute.

ATTENDANCE CONTEST

The Chapter was divided into two teams at the January meeting. Each team will be striving for the best perfect attendance record. The two teams are called the Alert and the Alive teams. Jan Labold is serving as team captain of the Alive team and Willia Elmore the Alert team.

The teams are as follows:

HOW TO KEEP UP PERFECT ATTENDANCE

If for some reason it is impossible for you to attend one of our chapter meetings, you can still keep your perfect attendance record by attending another ABWA Chapter's meeting. The two nearest chapters to us is the chapter here in Bowling Green and the chapter in Franklin.

NOTICE

Each member will submit the name of their boss attending the Boss Night Dinner when they arrive at the restaurant on February 15th. Everyone will have to write a letter about their boss to submit along with his name, as the drawing will not take place until that night.

The letter should be written in a manner that one won't be able to tell who the boss is until the very last minute. This will be discussed further at the next meeting.

WOMAN OF THE YEAR NOMINEES

Love also of Centerville, Tennessee. She is a member of the Methodist Church in Centerville.

Currently Ruth is owner and manager of her own business, the Mary Carter Paint Store. She has added seven paint dealers to her Mary Carter Family. Ruth has been granted the Blue Ribbon Achievement Award from the Tampa Company Home Office. Her Success story has appeared in several National Trade Magazines. Ruth is active in ABWA work and serves as Chairman of the Employment-Housing-Transportation Committee.

* Lucile Bowman also nominated for the Woman of the Year Award declined the nomination.

KEEP GROWING THROUGH KNOWING!

Each year a District Meeting is held in each of the six ABWA Districts. Details of chapter administration are discussed, and ABWA procedures are clarified. It is extremely important that all chapters have members in attendance, for not only do you learn how to build a stronger chapter, but credit is given toward the Standard of Achievement for attending. If ten or more members attend, this meets one of the Banner Chapter qualifications.

A Symposium is held on Saturday morning, under the direction of H. A. Bufton, Jr., Executive Director, at which time a particular phase of chapter operation is discussed. On Sunday morning a series of three workshops is conducted, each under the leadership of a National Officer or National Headquarters Executive. Here questions are answered and suggestions given. Leaders move from workshop to workshop, so that each member hears all three discussions.

District Meeting programs are planned for the benefit of ABWA members who are interested in their Association, its growth, its educational program, and its future. Social events are planned for your enjoyment--an open house on Friday evening for early arrivals, a tour on Saturday afternoon, a banquet on Saturday night, and a brunch on Sunday morning. Throughout, there are open houses and an opportunity to associate with others, forming new friendships and renewing old ones.

HERE'S HOW TO REGISTER:

Your 1965 District Meeting will be held on March 20-21 at the De Soto Hotel in Savannah, Georgia. Registration Fee -- $12.50.

GOING AWAY PARTY FOR OPAL

A Pot Luck was held in honor of Opal McLaughlin, Friday night, January 15, at the home of Katie Fuson, to express our love and appreciation for all that she has meant to us.

A delicious meal was enjoyed by the 18 Kentucky Colonel Members present. Also present were Richard Gollotte, son of Emma Jane, and Sue Fuson, daughter of Katie.

We will all miss Opal's warmth and vitality and wish her happiness in her new job and home in Atlanta.

Opal served as Corresponding Secretary and also served on different committees. She has always been more than willing to accept her share of responsibility in furthering the Chapter.

Opal, along with Jean, attended the National Convention in Minneapolis in 1964.

A very deserving honor was bestowed on Opal when she was elected as Woman of the Year in 1964.

CHUCKLES

THEY REALLY DID

The employer hung signs about the office, bearing the message: "Do It Now!"

By the end of the week, the cashier skipped with $30,000, the head bookkeeper eloped with the boss' private secretary, and three clerks asked for a raise.

MOTHER was telling her small son about the good times she had when she was a little girl--riding a pony, sliding down haystacks, and wading in a brook at the farm.

"Mother," he sighed, "I wish I'd met you earlier!"

A MEMORANDUM on a telephone call was handed to a local business man by his secretary. "I can't read this," he said.

"I couldn't understand him very well," said the secretary, "so I didn't write it very clearly."
