HISTORY OF MT. ZION PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The following information was submitted by Mrs. Inez Baxter of Central City Ky. It is reprinted from The Presbyterian Newsletter.

In 1800, when Kentucky was an infant state of eight years, Muhlenberg County was established and a city called Greenville came into being. At that time a group of Pennsylvania Presbyterians started their trek to the Promised Land of Kentucky. They settled in Muhlenberg County and started building shelter for their homes. They chose a spot for a place of worship and bult a plain hewn log house 24 X 42. The church has been changed, remodeled and rearranged many times but always has stood at the ame spot.

Two of the first ministers were the Rev. Nelson and the Rev. William Gray. In the fall of 1822 Rev. Isaac Bard came and organized the church, making it a part of the presbytery, and recorded its early beginnings.

In September, 1823, presbytery acted upon the motion to recognize Mt. Zion and on December 1, 1823, Rev. Bard ordained Andrew Glenn, John Culberson and William Young as its first elders. There were 18 lay members; Nancy, Sarah and Susannah Glenn; Mrs. Sarah Glenn; Jane and Rebecca Irvin; Ann Young; Betsy Furguson; Mrs. Joanna Long; Samuel and Polly Tinsely, James and ann Hopkins; William and Matilda Hill; James and John McCartney; and Mrs. McCommon.

In december of 1850, Rev. Bard gave up charge of the church. The Rev. Alben S. Howsley became the minister in 1851, and the church promised to pay him thirty-nine dollars per year, a promise which fell short for several years after that. In the midst of the Civil War on November 5, 1863 he tendered his resignation and the church recalled Rev. Bard.

The last entry in the Sessions book by Rev. Bard was in September of 1866. There is no indication of whether he left the church or died in its pulpit.

The reverends William Bailey, W.D. Morton, and Charles Hill pastored the church through the years 1868 through 1885.

The last entry of that century was on November 4, 1885. Intermittent services, revivals now and then and occasional efforts to revive the old church failed and members left for other churches in the vicinity. The old church wrapped itself in memories, honeysuckle vines, and wild lillies and silently waited until it was needed again.

This time came in 1921, when a mining town called Brownie started mushrooming at its feet. A group from Central City, with their pastor, Rev. T. J. Wharton, had been attempting to get the church on its feet again. In 1921 Mt. Zion was officially recognized and ready to take its place in the community again.

Brownie came and went making Mt. Zion mushroom with transient members for a while, but when they passed on, it found the youngstown community nearby had forsaken their city churches and returned to the old country church, Mt. Zion.
