ON THE COVER

From: "People and Places" by Frances Bastien, published in the GLASGOW DAILY TIMES.

History comes alive when discussed with Burkesville pharmacist Randolph N. Smith.

Smith is considered by some to be the foremost historian of Cumberland County and certainly he has played a big part in preserving much of the county history.

Perhaps one of his most ambitious undertakings is the restoration of the Rice Haggard log home which Smith moved from its original location on Kettle Creek to a location next to his home in Burkesville.

Haggard, an early missionary, is given credit for adopting the name Christian in referring the churches now known as Disciples of Christ and Church of Christ. Haggard, after severing his connection with the Methodist Church, was one of the leaders in the 1890s movement that later became the Christian Church. He is thought to have moved to the Kettle Creek log cabin about 1817 and called the cabin his home until his death in 1819. Members of Haggard's family continued to live in the cabin for another forty years.

The fact that it was the home of Haggard for a short time makes it of particular interest to historians of the Christian Church. The home is listed as a tour stop for church historical groups.

The cabin would be of historical significance even if it were not once the home of Haggard, because of its early construction sometime between 1798 and 1806.

Smith became interested in the property and, after purchase, dismantled and numbered the logs and spent two years, from 1974 to 1975, overseeing the reconstruction.

The cabin, a typical dog-trot log cabin built of hewn yellow poplar logs, was apparently built by members of a Davis family. According to the information provided by Smith, the cabin was dated by the date of the land grant as it was a requirement that the settler had to live on the land a year, clear two acres of land and make a crop of corn.

Smith said the cabin was originally built without windows and windows were cut into the front of the building at a very early date. When this was done, the upstairs floor was moved up one log in one room and this was early enough that the support for this floor was pegged to the logs instead of being nailed. Stair steps were added at a later date as a ladder was used in pioneer times.

"Any structure that has been lived in for as old as this cabin is has been altered several times," Smith said.

"I modernized the home for our needs. A modern kitchen was added and also a bath, heating system, electricity and the dog-trot was glassed in for heating purposes. I did try to do all this in keeping with the age and style of the home."

It is an interesting building and Smith, with his detailed knowledge of local history and his love for preserving historical items is the perfect tour guide.

JOHN NELSON FAMILY HISTORY

by Francis C. Gill
2614 North Forty Way
South Jordan, Utah 84065

John Nelson was born May 11, 1759 in Fauquier County, Virginia, the son of John Nelson and Sarah Whitson. He married Bathsheba Hoan, December 19, 1780, in Fauquier County. For a few short years, John and Bathsheba lived in Shenandoah County, Virginia on land bequeathed to them by his father. While there he served in the Virginia Militia with the rank of Lieutenant. On December 12, 1784, he obtained a military land grant on the Big Barren River in Kentucky. It wasn't until 1800, however, that John's name began to appear on the tax records of Barren County. In 1803 John and his family were living on Coles Creek near his son-in-law, John Rankin, and James Rankin, Thomas Manes (Means), Enoch Jobe, Andrew Goforth and Arthur Hoan (Hoan). His wife, Bathsheba, and their daughter, Sally Ann, were on the first membership list of the Mill Creek Baptist Church. Records show that at least some of his children were married by the Rev. John Mulkey of that church. They continued living in Barren County until Monroe County was formed. In 1820 John and his family were enumerated with other families in the newly formed Monroe County. At this time they were living on Line Creek, very near the Kentucky-Tennessee State line. John and Bathsheba lived there until 1829 when they followed some of their children to Illinois. John died in Hamilton County, Illinois May 6, 1845 at the age of 86. The known children of John Nelson and Bathsheba Hoan were as follows:

Ch. 1. William Nelson b. abt 1782 d. bef 1795. According to the family, he was killed by Indians. A younger brother was named after him.

JOEL NELSON

The subject of this sketch was born about 1780 in Virginia. His father was Charles Nelson, son of Henry Nelson and Jane Goodwin who died in Washington County, Tennessee. His great grandparents were Henry Nelson and his wife, Sarah, of Stafford County, Virginia.

Joel arrived in Monroe County from Washington County, Tennessee prior to 1798 since the Mill Creek Baptist Church minutes list him as being a member in that year. On July 17, 1801 he married Sarah Rush in what is now Monroe County. After a few years he and Sarah made their residence in Cumberland County, Kentucky. In 1805 by Power of Attorney, Joel and his father, Charles, authorized William York of Barren County to obtain the negroes, named Jack, Yel, Humphrey and Becky, which had been bequeathed to them by Joel's grandfather, Henry Nelson, back in Washington County, Tennessee. They were in the hands of his uncles, William, Henry, and John Nelson. In 1806, after Charles Nelson's death, Joel sold the above said negroes to William York for the sum of $1000. This transaction took place in Barren County and was witnessed by John Nelson and Joseph Hammer. Joel appears again in the tax records of Barren County in 1817 and was enumerated in the newly formed Monroe County in 1820. He had in his household a boy under ten, a boy between ten and 16, three girls under ten, a girl ten to 16, a girl 16 to 26 and a woman between 26 and 45. Joel was also listed as being between 26 and 45. His neighbors in 1820 were the Rush and Whitson families.

*Note: Comparison of this entry with 1018/1068, 1850 may suggest that a Margaret E. Lewis was the mother of Catherine A. Lewis Duncan wife of J. R. Duncan.

Also it appears that either J. R. Duncan had married a second time by 1860 or I misread the age of C. A. Duncan or perhaps it is recorded incorrectly. This needs to be checked!

Polly Newman	8		Tenn.
Henry Jas. Newman	6		Tenn.
Martha Newman	5		Ky.
Nancy Newman	3		Ky.
Betsy Lewis	50		Tenn.
Darky Lewis	88		N. Car.

(This entry appears to suggest that Christopher Newman married Patsy Lewis, dau. of Darky Lewis and sister to Betsy Lewis. It indicates that this family came to Ky. 1844-1845.)

Tennessee records were checked and the following was found:

U. S. Census, Jackson Co., Tenn. 1830.

1. John Louis- males, 2 (30-40); females, 2 (20-30).
2. William Louis- males, 1 (30-40), females, 2 (-5), 1 (20-30).
3. Darcas Louis - males, 2 (15-20), females, 2 (15-20), 1 (60-70).

5. Frederic Newman - Males 1(-5), 1(20-30); females, 2 (-5), 1 (20-30).

7. Henry Newman - males, 1 (-5), 1 (5-10), 1 (20-30); females, 1 (-5), 1 (20-30).

2. Frederick Newman	" 306	" "
3. George Newman	" 305	" "
4. John B. Lewis	" 307	" "

It seems certain that the Darky Lewis of the 1850 Barren Co., Ky. census is the same as the Darcas Lewis of the 1830 Jackson Co., Tenn. census. She is likely to be the mother of John, William and David Louis of Jackson Co., Tenn. Census, 1830.

A note taken from: North Carolina Revolutionary Soldiers, Sailors, Patriots and Descendents, Vol. I. is:

Samuel Lewis (Rs-Pvt-NC) c 1750-cl815 married Dorcas Fincher.

From Vol. II

Isaac Newman (Rs-NC) 1755-1832. Kings Mtn. Oct. 7, 1780. Lived Guilford Co., N. C. married Sarah Irwin.

No research has been done by this author to determine if the persons mentioned in these notes have any connection to the Darcas Lewis and Christopher Newman of Barren Co., Ky.

C. Children of Oschar L. Lewis, b. 1822-24. Married Elizabeth Sanders, b. ca 1826. Married 1846, in Barren Co., Ky. see Barren Co. Marriage File 10. Elizabeth was the daughter of Nelson Sanders and a sister of Ann M. Payne.

D. Barren Co., Ky. Tax Lists.

Ephraim J. Lewis appears on the tax lists for the years 1842, 1844, and 1845.

Oschar Lewis appears for the years 1844, 1845, 1846 and 1847.

In 1844 and 1845 both Oschar and Ephraim J. Lewis appear on the same page adjacent to each other. They are always shown with no land.

In 1842 a John Lewis with no land is listed with Ephraim Lewis
In 1846 Oscar and John Lewis are listed with no land but adjacent to Charles Lewis with 336 acres of land on Mill Creek in Monroe Co., Ky.

In 1847 Oschar Lewis and John M. Lewis are listed together with no land.

Tax lists were not read beyond 1847 for this work.

Note: Ephraim J. Lewis married Mary Simmons daughter of Naysa (Nacey) Simmons. Ephraim apparently died between 1840-50 since Mary is living with her father in 1850 and Ephraim is not in the household. See household/family 1008/1049 Monroe Co. Census 1850.

Continued from Volume 16 Issue No 4 - Early History of Eastern Barren County
By C. Dlayton Simmons - Articles not included in the Book published in 1986
"Historical Trip throuth Barren County" by C Clayton Simmons.

Jacob Wilson was living in Barren County as early as 1794. The house in which he lived stood on the farm now owned by Mr H. A. Flowers about one half mile southeast of Poplar Log cemetery. It was later owned by David M. Taylor, whose family will be mentioned later. The residence was destroyed by fire several years ago, but its location can be identified at present by a few old fruit trees and a slight mound of dirt and stone where the old chimney stood.

In addition to other land he owned, he receive land grant No 175, dated May 6, 1806, from Christopher Greenup, Governor of Kentucky, for 255 acres which adjoined the property of Joseph Wilson and Lee's Military grant..

Jacob Wilson was married twice. The maiden name of his first wife is unknwn. After the death of first wife he married Jean McMahon in Barren County on April 8, 1800. His is one of the oldest graves in the Poplar Log Cemetery, and his grave stone reveals the following information," Jacob Wilson, born February 11th,1758, died January 2nd, 1840!" Jacob Wilson and Theoderic Webb sold the land on which the Poplar og Church and cemetery are located for one shilling, which will be mentioned later.

Of the many children born to Jacob Wilsonand his two wives but little is known. The following children were born to his first union: John, Jonathan, James, Jacob, Thomas, Elizabeth, who married Aquilla Wilburn; Rachel, born May 3rd, 1799, died July 28, 1861, married Cadwalader Jones, born February 18th, 1796, died October 9th, 1873. Of the above children, Thomas, James and Elizabeth were living in Jackson County, Alabama on January 5th, 1841, according to documentary evidence in t Circuit Court Clerk's office in Glasgow, Kentucky.

The following children were born to Jacob Wilson and his second wife, Jean (McMahon): Martha, born March 13th, 1801, died June 28th, 1887, (great,great grandmother of Mrs Clayton Simmons and Mrs E. L. Kerley, Sr of Glasgow) married John W. Howard October 19th, 1818; Joseph, who was a doctor. He was assisted in compounding his herbs and roots by an old Indian who lived in a hut on his father's farm. Joseph had a daughter, Caroline E., who married William E Milam and was living in Cumberland County, Kentucky on August 24th, 1850, when she executed adeed as Administratrix for the estate of Joseph Wilson. Petty, the third child, born September 15th, 1807, died June 10th, 1840. It is believed he was buried in the grave adjoining that of his father in Poplar Log Cemetery.

POPLAR LOG CHURCH AND CEMETERY

Poplar Log Cemetery is one of the largest and best kept cemeteries in Barren County. The present modern brick church was made possible by the will of Mrs Sarah Wright. It is the third or fourth buiilding erected by the same site. I have been told that the original congregation was of the Primitive Baptist Faith. In my research I have been unable to ascertain the date or approximate date it was constituted. In my search in the County Court Clerk's office at Glasgow I find a document recorded there that evidently refers to this church, which I will give as it appears in the record: "This indenture made the 5th day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, between Jacob Wilson and Theodoric Webb, both of the county of Baren and state of Kentucky of the one part; and Moses Peden and John P. Wagnor, Sr., of the county and state aforesaid. Trustees of the Skeggs Creek Baptist Church of the other part: Witnesseth, that the said Jacob Wilson and Theodoric Webb for and in consideration of the sum of one shilling warrant money to them in hand the receipt wherof is hereby acknowledged have bargained and sold, and by these presents doth bargain and sell unto the said Trustees for the entire use and benefit of the said Church a certain lot or parcel of ground whereon the Old Poplar Log meeting house formerly stood and which is contained in the limits herinafter described, to wit: beginning near the Glasgow road at a white oak, and running northwardly fifteen chains to a large chestnut, thence westwardly eight chains to a beech saplin, thence to a large Spanish oak, and from thence eastwardly nine chains to the beginning. To have and to hold the said lot or parcel of ground as above described to the said John P. Wagnon and Moses Peden or their successors in office forever, and the said Jacob Wilson and Theoderic Webb for themselves and their heirs do covenant and agree to warrant and defend the aforesaid lot of land unto the said John P. Wagnon and Moses Peden and their successors against the claim of all persons whatsoever. In witness whereof the said Jacob Wilson and Theoderic Webb both hereunto set their hand and seals the day and year above written". Jacob Wilson (Seal); Theoderic Webb (Seal); Witnesses: James Marshall, John Peden, David Hardin. Deed Book G, Page 210.)

The following facts prove conclusively to the writer that this document relates to the present Poplar Log Church and Cemetery. Jacob Wilson owned the adjoining land to the cemetery and is buried there. Moses and John Peden lived west of Temple Hill near Falen Timber creek. The Marshalls were among the pioneer citizens in the vicinity of Temple Hill. Mr H.A.Flowers states that the white oak mentioned as the beginning point in the above survey stood until recent years and that the stump can now be seen.

It is reasonable to assume that this was one of the earliest churches in the county due to the wording of the document, "Whereon the Old Poplar Log Meeting House formerly stood" which would indicate that it had already been torn down when the above transaction took place.

Some three miles from the Monroe county line on the Tompkinsville highway, almost in a stone's throw of the Freedom Baptist church - on the old Jacob Wilson farm, once lived one of Barren County's most prominent citizens, David M. Taylor.

He was born in Virginia, January 24, 1807, moving west by covered wagon when a young man. His first known residence was in Sumner County, Tennessee, later to Monroe County, Kentucky, and thence to the above mentioned property which he purchased from the Wilson heirs in 1854. He married in the year of 1830, Maria Louisa Durham.

Five sons and four daughters were born to this union. The names of the sons were: William, Franklin, David, Jr, Claudius and J. Morgan. The daughters were: Permelia, Lucy Ann, Sophia and Louisa. The sons all chose different vocations in life. Franklin was a Baptist minister; David Jr. a farmer; Claudius, a most talented scholar and teacher; J. Morgan, a physician. They were known far and wide for their scholarly attainments, and their memory is well honored and cherished by the older citizens who knew them.

Dr J Morgan Taylor located in Glasgow many years ago where he practiced his profession until his death some twenty-five years ago. As a diversion from his arduous duties as a physician he often wrote poetry. Although few of his poems were ever finished, and none published, they bore evidence of a strong imagination and aptitude, Through the courtesy of Miss Helen Combs of Glasgow, to whom he presented one of his poems written in the latter years of his life, I have been granted permission to include it in this brief sketch of the Taylor family. It is of the type that would stir the imagination of a little girl and is one of her treasured possessions:

REYNARD AND THE LION

A lion stood by his dismal den,
Secluded away from the haunts of men,
Awaiting a victim--some bird or beast,
Which he hoped to seize for a toothsome feast,
He was old and feeble, but crafty and wise
And with flattering tongue and magnetic eyes
He was wont to lure the thoughtless and young
Who would list to the charming praises he sung.

A sprightless young fox came cantering by,
Observing the den with a dubious eye;
He was hailed by the lion who besought him to stay
For a chat in his parlor so pleasant and gay.

"I long for a better acquaintance with you,
My friendship I'm sure ill ever be true;
They call me the monarch, the king of the beast,
But I love everybody from greatest to least;
And of all living creatures, I would make you my choice,
Because of your charms and melodious voice;
The grace of your movements, so nimble and spry,
Your beautiful coat, your pretty bright eyes--
All these win my heart and I beg that you spend
An hour with me as a favorite friend"

"Many thanks for the honor, but I must decline -- Too humble to enter a palace so fine."

"Why refuse to enter my royal home
Where so many kind friends were delighted to come?
Of all who have entered, whether beast or bird,
Not a word of regret has ever been heard."

I fear, Mr Lion, that you love us too well,
Your voice has the twang of a funeral knell,
What I see 'round your door makes me ponder and doubt
Many tracks going in, but none coming out."

(The above poem was written by Dr. J Morgan Taylor)

BARREN COUNTY CEMETERIES
NOT INCLUDED IN THE PEDEN BOOKS

In the 1940's the Barren County Homemakers, sponsored by Vivian T. Rousseau, copied many cemeteries in Barren County. These were presented to the State Historical Society at Frankfort. The cemeteries listed below were included in those, but were not included in the Peden books, due to the fact that Mrs. Peden was not able to locate them, or simply because they no longer exist. We have become aware of several local cemeteries that are not included in the books, and as we are currently working on a revision of Volume I of BARREN COUNTY KENTUCKY CEMETERY RECORDS, we wish to include all those we possibly can. If you have a record that is not included in either volume, please send it to us so that it may be included in the revision, or if you know of a cemetery that has not been included, even if it consists only of gravestones piled against a tree, etc, please send us the location and any other information so that some of our local members can attempt to visit it and include the information. Thank you - Editor.

NOTE: The owners listed were those when the cemetery was copied, and probably not the same as the present owner.

OF EAGLES AND OLD ISLANDS THE ARNOLDS AND THE OLDHAMS & THEIR DESCENDANTS, VOL. I By Nancy Hamilton Bliss, 1034 Forest Ave., Kirkwood, Missouri 63122 & Ann Hamilton Pippin 6718 Flamingo Rd., Greenville, Texas 75401

Vol. I, THE ARNOLD FAMILY, covering a period of over two hundred years, tells the story of William and James Arnold of Halifax Co., Va., and some of their descendants down through William and Rebecca (McNutt) Arnold of Hunt Co., Texas. The children of William and Rebecca, with the exception of William McNutt Arnold, great-grandfather of the Authors, have been covered as fully as possible in Vol I, therefore Vol. II will contain his descendants, as well as the Oldham, Dugan, McNutt and Glass families. The Authors have given recognition to each person who gave assistance in compiling Vol. I, among them Larry K. Glass and Katie M. Smith of Glasgow, Ky. This publication is in softback spiral binder, has over 100 pages including full name index of over 200 different surnames. For price and other information contact either of the authors.

FRECK By Shirley Monroe Bennett, Box 188, Brewster, Washington 98812 This publication in softback contains 235 pages with index. There are over 500 different surnames listed. Price per copy $25.00 including postage and handling.

This is a fantastic, descriptive genealogy account that gives the record of the Monroe and related families of Kentucky who migrated to Douglas Co., Washington. The author begins and ends this account with her father, Vernon B. Monroe, born Nov. 7, 1889 at Rowletts, Hart Co., Ky., died April 14, 1951 Douglas Co., Washington. Due to his light complexion he freckled easily and of course was known by the name of "Freckles" by all who knew him. The freckles remained even after he was grown, but the name was shortened to "Freck", hence the title of this publication. The author uses family stories, photos, news clippings which contain interesting historical dates and facts and much more. This publication is uniquely presented and is interesting to the reader even if there are no Monroe family connections.

MONROE COUNTY, KENTUCKY - Extractions compiled from documents of public record. Monroe County records are very scarce, as those of you who have researched families there know. This book centers on the 1880's and early 1900's, and contains : Witnesses to wills, administrators, executors named, Appraisals of Sales, Wards or Guardians, sureties, The building of the 3rd Courthouse of Monroe Co., Appointing of constables, Court of Claims for 1888, Vacand land authorized, Viewers of Roads, Licensening of preachers, and much, much more. Spiral bound, 105 pages, 550 full name index. $25.00, postage included. Order from: Marcella Headrick, Box 493, Tompkinsville, Ky. 42167

TRACES, the society's quarterly publication is received by all members. It is published seasonally: Spring, Summer, Fall, and Winter. Members joining during the year will receive the past issues of that year.

Contributions are earnestly solicited. Family genealogies, marriage, Bible, will and probate, cemetery, court and other records are all acceptable. You will be listed as the contributor on all material you submit.

Queries are accepted only from members, without limit, and will be published as space permits. Queries should be limited to about fifty words each.

Books to be reviewed in "TRACES" must be sent with information as to the cost, including postage, and from whom the book may be obtained. Books become the property of the society library. Books should have some Kentucky interest. Reviews will be published as space permits.

Exchange of "TRACES" with other societies or publications is acceptable and welcome.

Meetings are held monthly, except December, at the Mary Wood Weldon Memorial Library, College Street, Glasgow, Ky. The meetings, held on the fourth Thursday, begin at 7:00 P.M. CST. Interesting and informative programs are planned for each meeting and your supportive attendance is always welcome.
