CAMPTON, KENTUCKY - A RESOURCE PROFILE

Campton, the county seat of Wolfe County, is situated in the western part of the Eastern Kentucky Coal Field. Campton is located 66 miles southeast of Lexington, Kentucky, 135 miles southeast of Louisville, Kentucky; 140 miles southeast of Cincinnati, Ohio; and 186 miles north of Knoxville, Tennessee. Campton had a 1990 population of 484.

Wolfe County, covering a total land area of 222 square miles, is characterized by narrow, cliff-rimmed, flat-topped ridges in the northwest. Other parts of the county, the slopes are not as steep, but the ridge tops are essentially the same. Wolfe County had a 1990 population of 6,503.

The Economic Framework - The total number of Wolfe County residents employed in 1991 averaged 1,851. In 1990, manufacturing firms in the county reported 126 employees; wholesale and retail trade provided 196 jobs; 70 people were employed in service occupations; state and local government accounted for 321 employees; and contract construction firms provided 18 jobs.

Labor Supply - There is a current estimated labor supply of 16,863 persons available for industrial jobs in the labor market area. In addition, from 1992 through 1996, 6,325 young persons in the area will become 18 years of age and potentially available for industrial jobs.

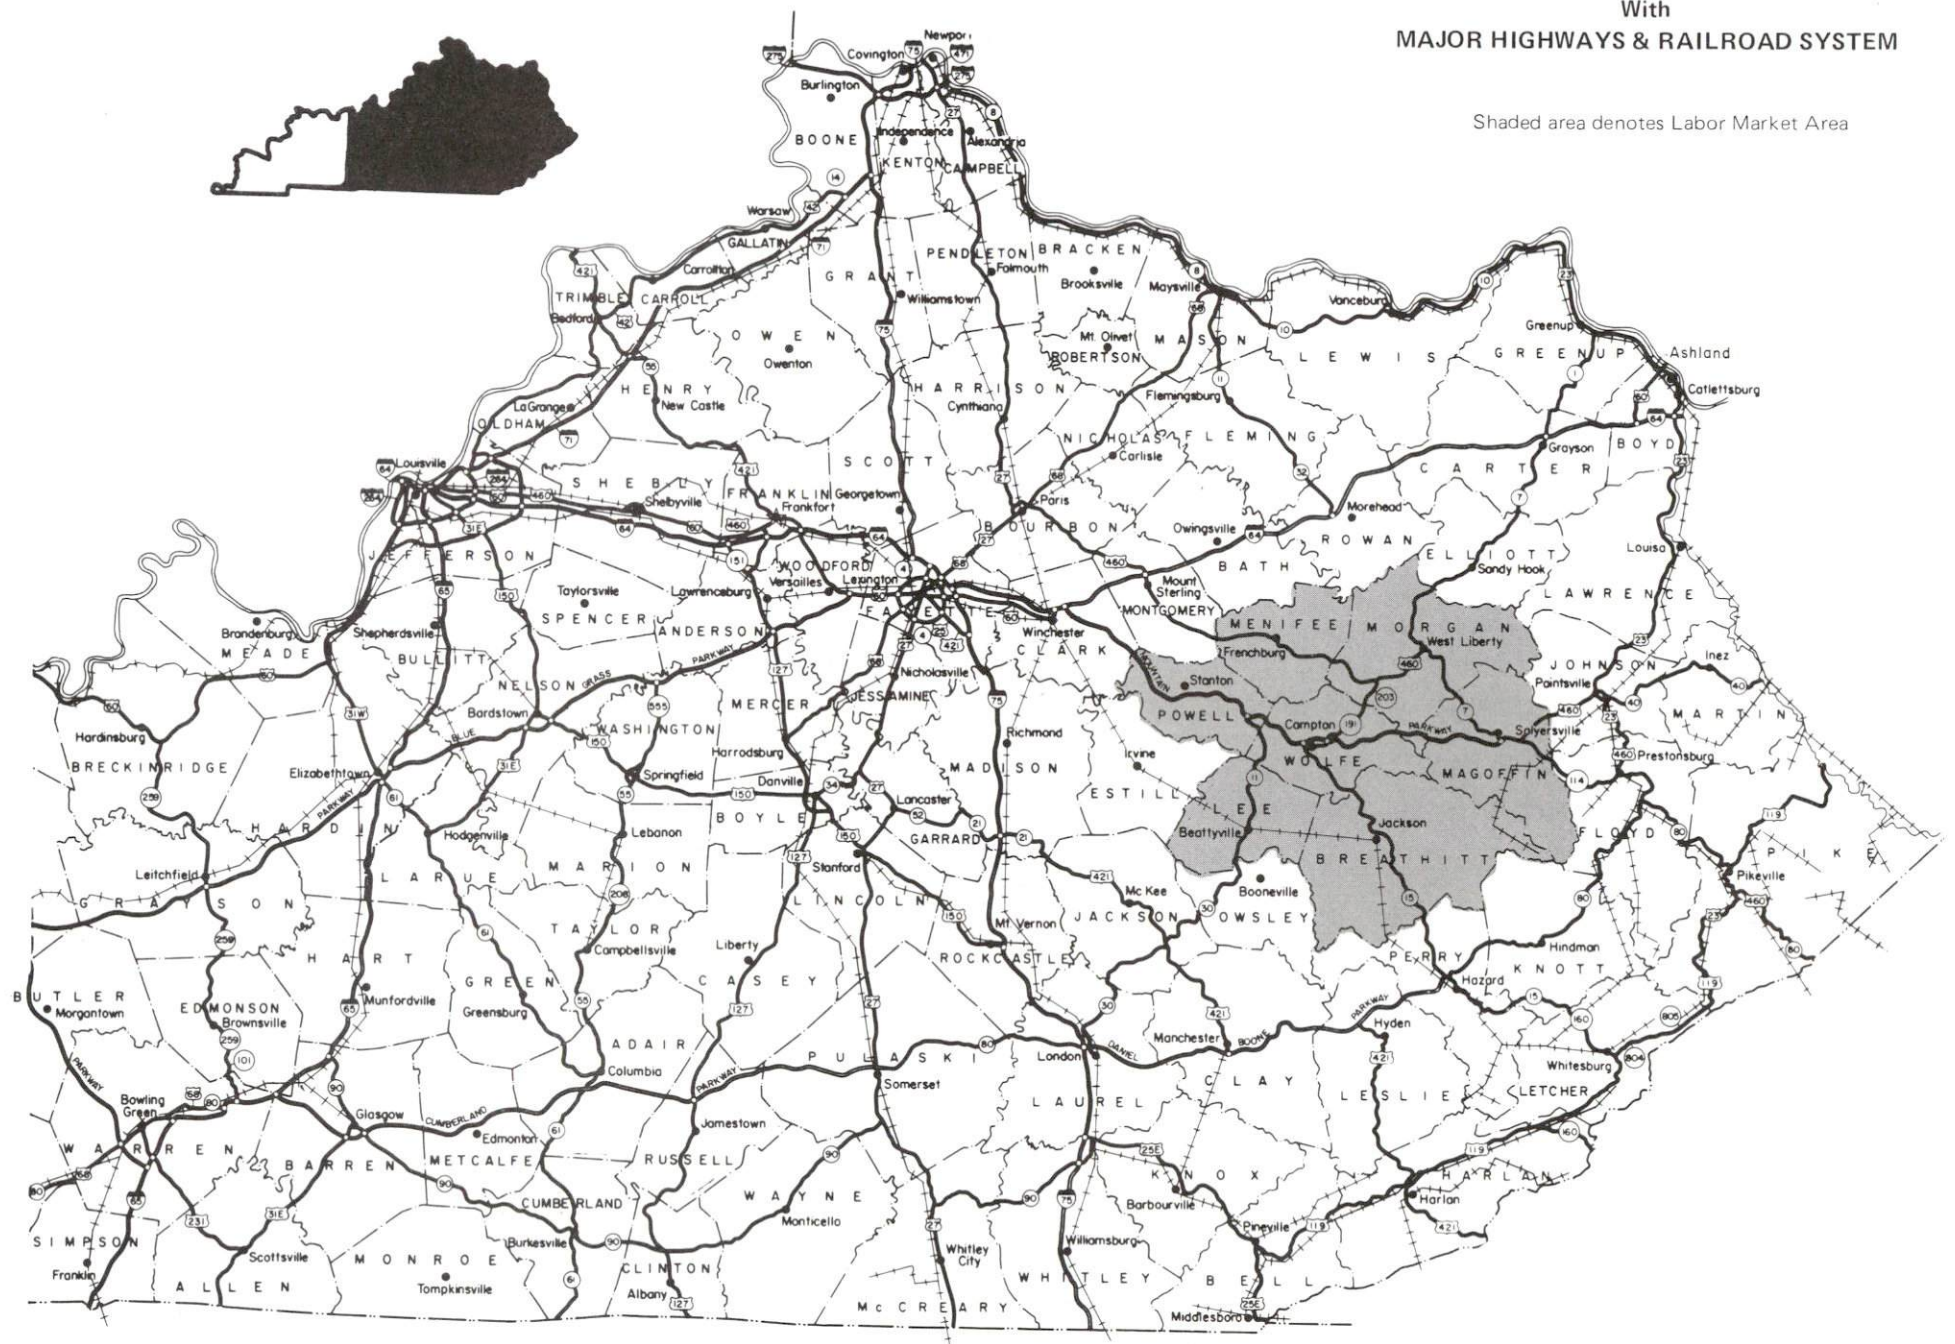

Transportation - Campton is served directly by Kentucky Highway 15, a "AAA"-rated trucking highway. The Mountain Parkway, a multi-lane highway, is located just one mile north of Campton. Interstate 64 is accessible 44 miles northwest of Campton via the Mountain Parkway. Eleven common carrier trucking companies provide interstate and intrastate service to Campton. CSX Transportation provides rail service at Jackson, 20 miles southeast of Campton. The nearest commercial airport, Bluegrass Airport near Lexington, is located 70 miles northwest of Campton. The Stanton Airport, 22 miles northwest of Campton, maintains a 3,000-foot paved runway designed to accommodate small aircraft.

Power and Fuel - Electric power is provided to Campton and Wolfe County by the Licking Valley Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation. Natural gas service is not available in Campton at the present time, however Jefferson Oil and Gas Company provides natural gas service to a portion of eastern Wolfe County.

Education - Primary and secondary education is provided to Campton and Wolfe County by the Wolfe County School System. In addition, one private school provides elementary education to the community. Eight institutions of higher learning are located within 70 miles of Campton. Three vocational education facilities are available within 55 miles of Campton.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Structure

The City of Campton is governed by a mayor and four commissioners. The mayor is elected to a four-year term while the commissioners each serve two-year terms. Wolfe County is governed by a county judge/executive and three magistrates. Each county official is elected to a four-year term.

Planning and Zoning

There are no planning and zoning agencies operating in Wolfe County at the present time.

Mandatory state codes enforced - Kentucky Plumbing Code, National Electric Code, Kentucky Boiler Regulations and Standards, Kentucky Building Code (modeled after BOCA code)

Local Fees and Licenses

The City of Campton levies an annual business license fee of $50. Unloading license fees are $25 annually. Wolfe County levies annual business license fees ranging from $6.50 to $11.50.

PROPERTY TAXES

The Kentucky Constitution requires the state to tax all classes of taxable property, and state statutes allow local jurisdictions to tax only a few classes. All locally taxed property is subject to county taxes and school district taxes (either a county school district or an independent school district). Property located inside of city limits may also be subject to city property taxes.

Special local taxing jurisdictions (fire protection districts, watershed districts, and sanitation districts) levy taxes within their operating areas (usually a small portion of community or county).

Property assessments in Kentucky are at 100% fair cash value. A 15% reduction is automatically granted for accounts receivable.

Vocational Training

Vocational training is available at both the state vocational-technical schools and the area vocational education centers. The state vocational-technical schools are post-secondary institutions. The area vocational education centers are designed to supplement the curriculum of high school students. Both the state vocational-technical schools and the area vocational education centers offer evening courses to enable working adults to upgrade current job skills.

Arrangements can be made to provide training in the specific production skills required by an industrial plant. Instruction may be conducted either in the vocational school or in the industrial plant, depending upon the desired arrangement and the availability of special equipment.

Bluegrass State Skills Corporation

The Bluegrass State Skills Corporation, an independent public corporation created and funded by the Kentucky General Assembly, provides programs of skills training to meet the needs of business and industry from entry level to advanced training, and from upgrading present employees to retraining experienced workers.

The Bluegrass State Skills Corporation is the primary source for skills training assistance for a new or existing company. The Corporation works in partnership with other employment and job training resources and programs, as well as Kentucky's economic development activities, to package a program customized to meet the specific needs of a company.

RECREATION

Local

The Campton Community Park offers a baseball field, a basketball court, a tennis court, picnic tables, shelter houses, and a playground. Other recreational facilities in Campton include two baseball fields and four gymnasiums.

A homecoming festival is held annually each Labor Day weekend in Campton. The festival includes a parade, booths, crafts, and live music.

Wolfe County is located within the Daniel Boone National Forest, which covers 640,000 acres of timberland in eastern Kentucky. It encompasses much of Kentucky's great beauty and provides a vacation paradise. There are scenic hiking trails, rivers and streams stocked with a variety of fish, hunting preserves, camping sites, and numerous other natural and historical attractions.

Several tourist attractions are located near Campton. Red River Gorge, part of the Daniel Boone National Forest and considered one of eastern Kentucky's most prominent features, is a boulder-strewn area of rugged forests, streams, cliffs, overlooks, arches, rare plants and animal life. Picnic and campsites are available in the Koomer Ridge Recreation area. Pioneer Weapons Area features a 7,480-acre preserve where hunters are limited to primitive weapons use only.

Natural Bridge State Resort Park near Slade, 13 miles northwest of Campton, is located within the Daniel Boone National Forest where cliffs and stone arches fill the landscape. The rugged awesomeness of the great Natural Bridge is the main attraction. The park offers a 35-room resort lodge with a dining room, a convention center, a gift shop, ten rustic cottages, and 95 camping sites. Other facilities include a lake, a swimming pool, picnic shelters and playgrounds, mini-golf, hiking trails, a riding stable, a chair lift, and pedal boats.
