I think it may be time for an intervention
As We are told not to question convention
The only question is, are we paying attention?

Attention!

And if We dare to ask questions our own all we get is Detention.

And so We are being taught, but not learning

We are earning, but not deserving

We are serving, but not by our own choosing

And so We are losing

Our humanity

That glorious insanity

Humanity that makes music and art beyond imagining

Humanity over which elders dream and youths scream

Humanity that feels emotion so vibrant and vivacious and visceral

That it causes us to cry "oh the Humanity!"

And actually mean it!

So never demean it

Never let anything come between it and yourself

Engage

And rage

Against the dying of the light

And the loss of the fight

For Our humanity
