CARLISLE COUNTY, KENTUCKY - A RESOURCE PROFILE

Carlisle County is located in the extreme western portion of Kentucky in the Jackson Purchase Region. Bordered on the west by the Mississippi River, the county covers a land area of 191 square miles and the topography is composed of gently rolling hills and plains. Bardwell, the county seat of Carlisle County, is located 166 miles northwest of Nashville, Tennessee; 175 miles southeast of St. Louis, Missouri; and 245 miles southwest of Louisville, Kentucky.

Carlisle County had a 1990 population of 5,238 with 819 persons residing in Bardwell and 449 in Arlington.

The Economic Framework - The total number of Carlisle County residents employed in 1991 averaged 1,803. In 1990, manufacturing firms in the county reported 168 employees; wholesale and retail trade provided 182 jobs; 52 people were employed in service occupations; state and local government accounted for 188 employees; and contract construction firms provided 12 jobs.

Labor Supply - There is a current estimated labor supply of 13,672 persons available for industrial jobs in the labor market area. In addition, from 1992 through 1996, 8,024 young persons in the area will become 18 years of age and potentially available for industrial jobs.

Transportation - Major highways serving Carlisle County are U.S. Highway 62, U.S. Highway 51, and Kentucky Highway 80. The Purchase Parkway, a multi-lane toll road, can be accessed 29 miles southeast of Bardwell via U.S. Highway 51 and Kentucky Highway 80. Interstate 24 is accessible 26 miles northeast of Bardwell via U.S. Highway 62. Twenty-four firms provide interstate and/or intrastate trucking service to Carlisle County. The Illinois Central Railroad provides rail service to Carlisle County. The nearest commuter airline service is available at Barkley Regional Airport near Paducah, 24 miles northeast of Bardwell, and commercial airline service is available at Evansville, Indiana, 136 miles northeast of Bardwell. Public riverport facilities are located at Hickman, Kentucky, on the Mississippi River, 33 miles southwest of Bardwell; and at Paducah, on the Tennessee River, 30 miles northeast of Bardwell.

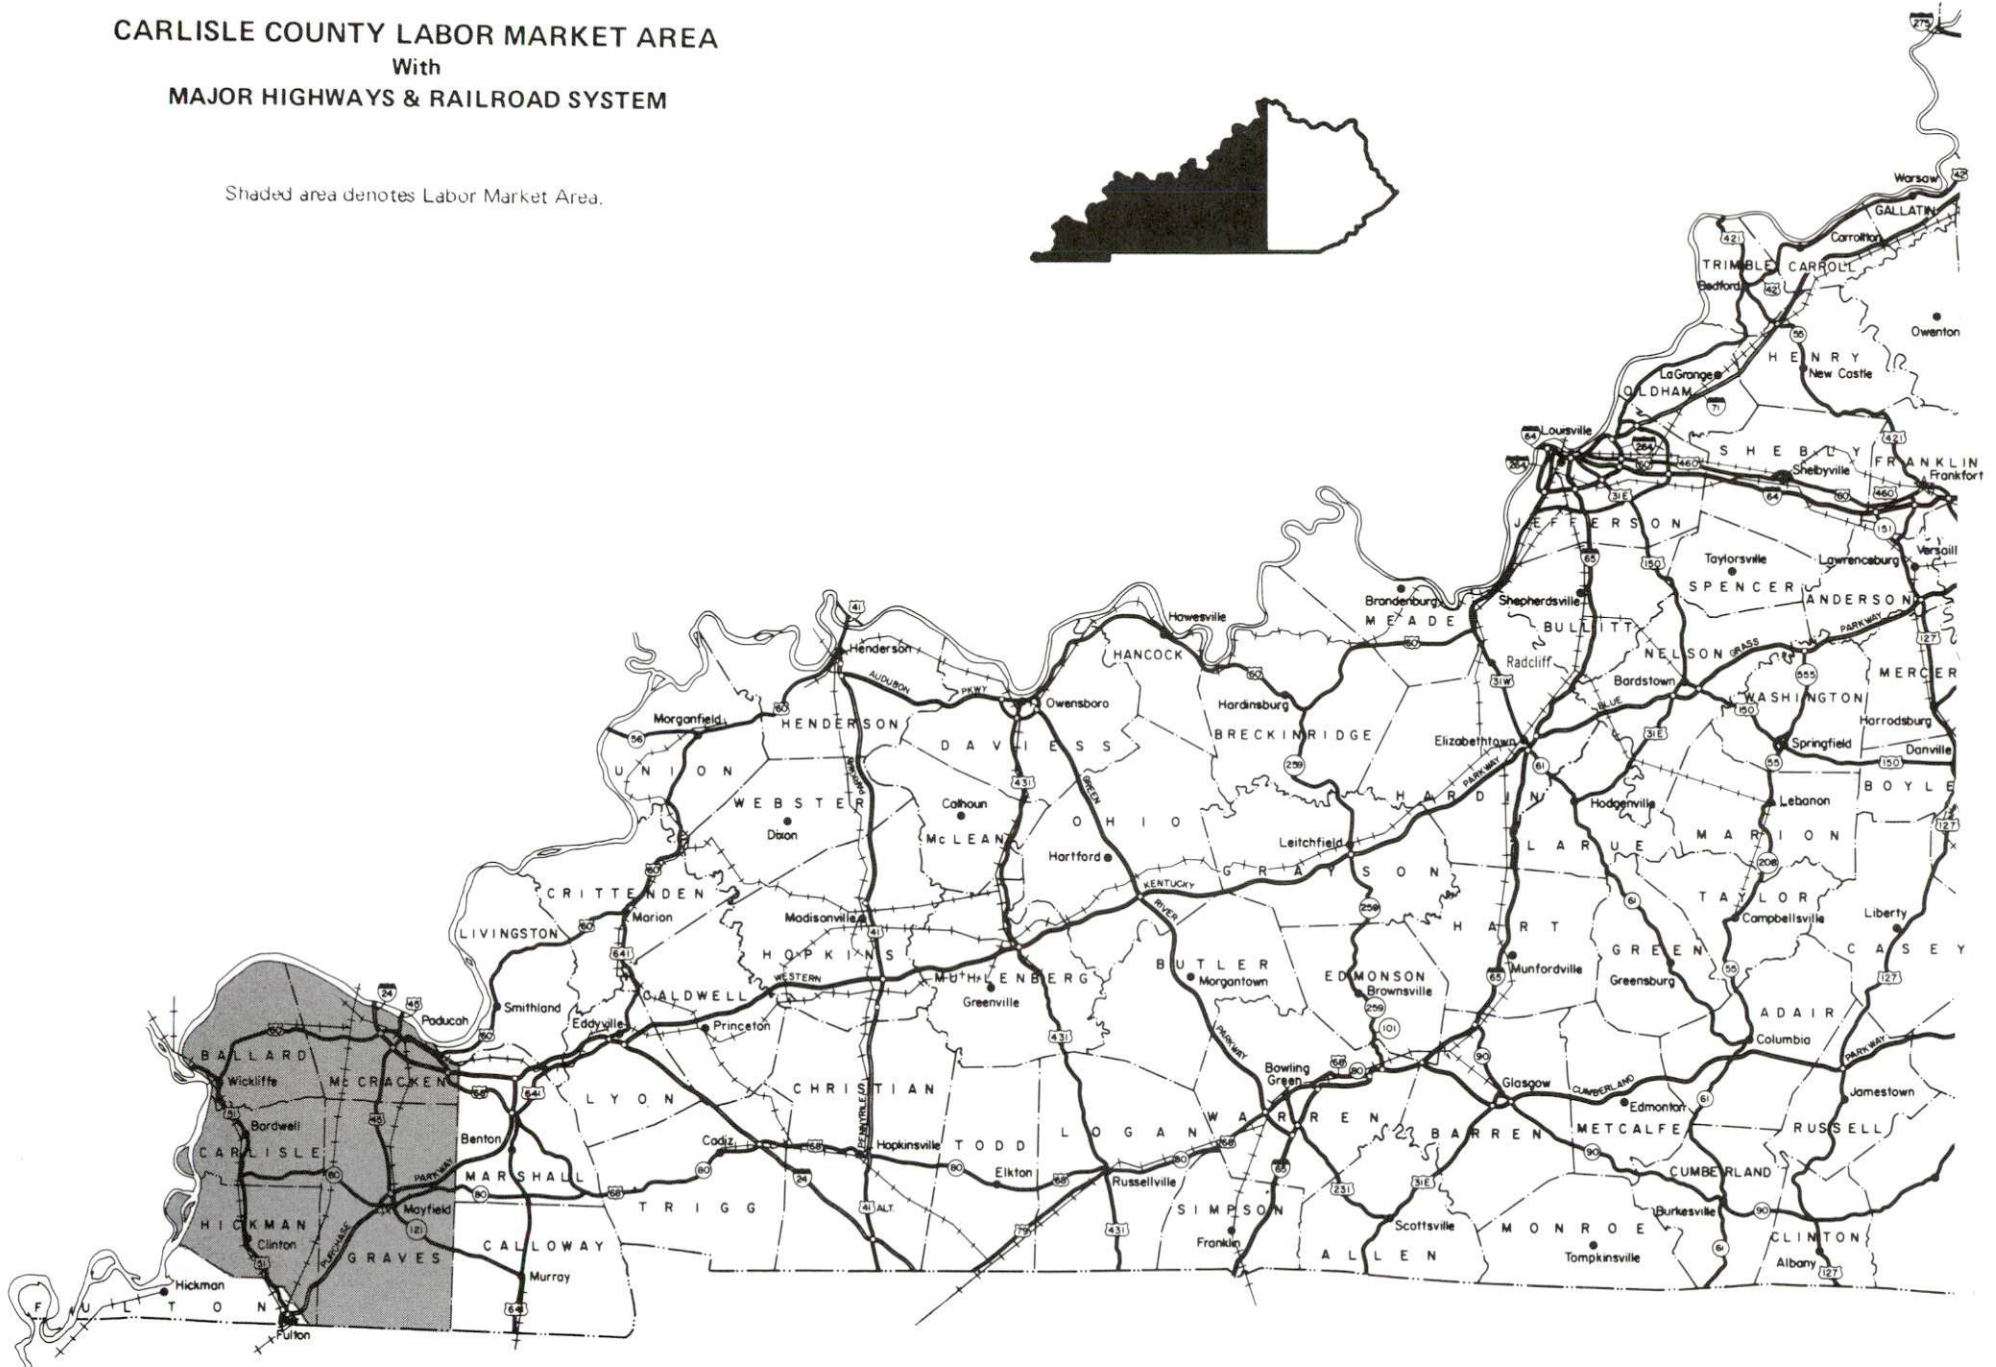

Power and Fuel - Electric power is provided to Carlisle County by the Hickman-Fulton Counties Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation, Jackson Electric Cooperative Corporation and West Kentucky Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation. A small portion of Carlisle County is served by the Kentucky Utilities Company; Bardwell is served by Bardwell City Utilities. Natural gas is provided to the county by Commonwealth Service Corporation.

Education - Carlisle County is served by the Carlisle County School System. Five senior colleges and one community college are located within 71 miles of Bardwell. The nearest state vocational-technical education center is located at Paducah, 30 miles distant. The nearest area vocational education center is located in LaCenter, 20 miles distant.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Structure

The city of Bardwell is served by a mayor and six council members. The city of Arlington is served by a mayor and four council members. In both cities the mayor is elected to a four-year term and the council members serve two-year terms. Carlisle County is served by a county judge/executive and five magistrates which are elected to four-year terms.

Planning and Zoning

There are currently no planning and zoning commissions in Carlisle County.

Mandatory state codes enforced - Kentucky Plumbing Code National Electric Code Kentucky Boiler Regulations and Standards, Kentucky Building Code (modeled after BOCA code)

Local Fees and Licenses

The city of Bardwell levies annual occupational license fees ranging from $25 to $50. The city also levies an unloading license fee of $25 per year.

The city of Arlington levies annual occupational license fees ranging from $15 to $40. An unloading license fee of $10.50 per year and an automobile sticker fee of $7.50 per year are also charged.

PROPERTY TAXES

The Kentucky Constitution requires the state to tax all classes of taxable property, and state statutes allow local jurisdictions to tax only a few classes. All locally taxed property is subject to county taxes and school district taxes (either a county school district or an independent school district). Property located inside of city limits may also be subject to city property taxes.

Special local taxing jurisdictions (fire protection districts, watershed districts, and sanitation districts) levy taxes within their operating areas (usually a small portion of community or county).

Property assessments in Kentucky are at 100% fair cash value. A 15% reduction is automatically granted for accounts receivable.

Vocational Training

Vocational training is available at both the state vocational-technical schools and the area vocational education centers. The state vocational-technical schools are post-secondary institutions. The area vocational education centers are designed to supplement the curriculum of high school students. Both the state vocational-technical schools and the area vocational education centers offer evening courses to enable working adults to upgrade current job skills.

Arrangements can be made to provide training in the specific production skills required by an industrial plant. Instruction may be conducted either in the vocational school or in the industrial plant, depending upon the desired arrangement and the availability of special equipment.

Bluegrass State Skills Corporation

The Bluegrass State Skills Corporation, an independent public corporation created and funded by the Kentucky General Assembly, provides programs of skills training to meet the needs of business and industry from entry level to advanced training, and from upgrading present employees to retraining experienced workers.

The Bluegrass State Skills Corporation is the primary source for skills training assistance for a new or existing company. The Corporation works in partnership with other employment and job training resources and programs, as well as Kentucky's economic development activities, to package a program customized to meet the specific needs of a company.
