ALBANY, KENTUCKY - A RESOURCE PROFILE

Albany, the county seat of Clinton County, is located in south-central Kentucky. In 1992, Albany had an estimated population of 2,035. Albany is located 133 miles south of Lexington, Kentucky; 127 miles northeast of Nashville, Tennessee; 136 miles northwest of Knoxville, Tennessee; and 152 miles southeast of Louisville, Kentucky. Clinton County, with a 1992 estimated population of 9,203, is bordered to the south by the Kentucky-Tennessee state line.

The Economic Framework - The total number of Clinton County residents employed in 1993 averaged 4,128. In 1992, manufacturing firms in the county reported 709 employees; wholesale and retail trade provided 438 jobs; 410 people were employed in service occupations; state and local government accounted for 478 employees; and contract construction firms provided 45 jobs.

Labor Supply - There is a current estimated labor supply of 4,619 persons available for industrial jobs in the labor market area. In addition, from 1994 through 1998, 3,525 young persons in the area will become 18 years of age and potentially available for industrial jobs.

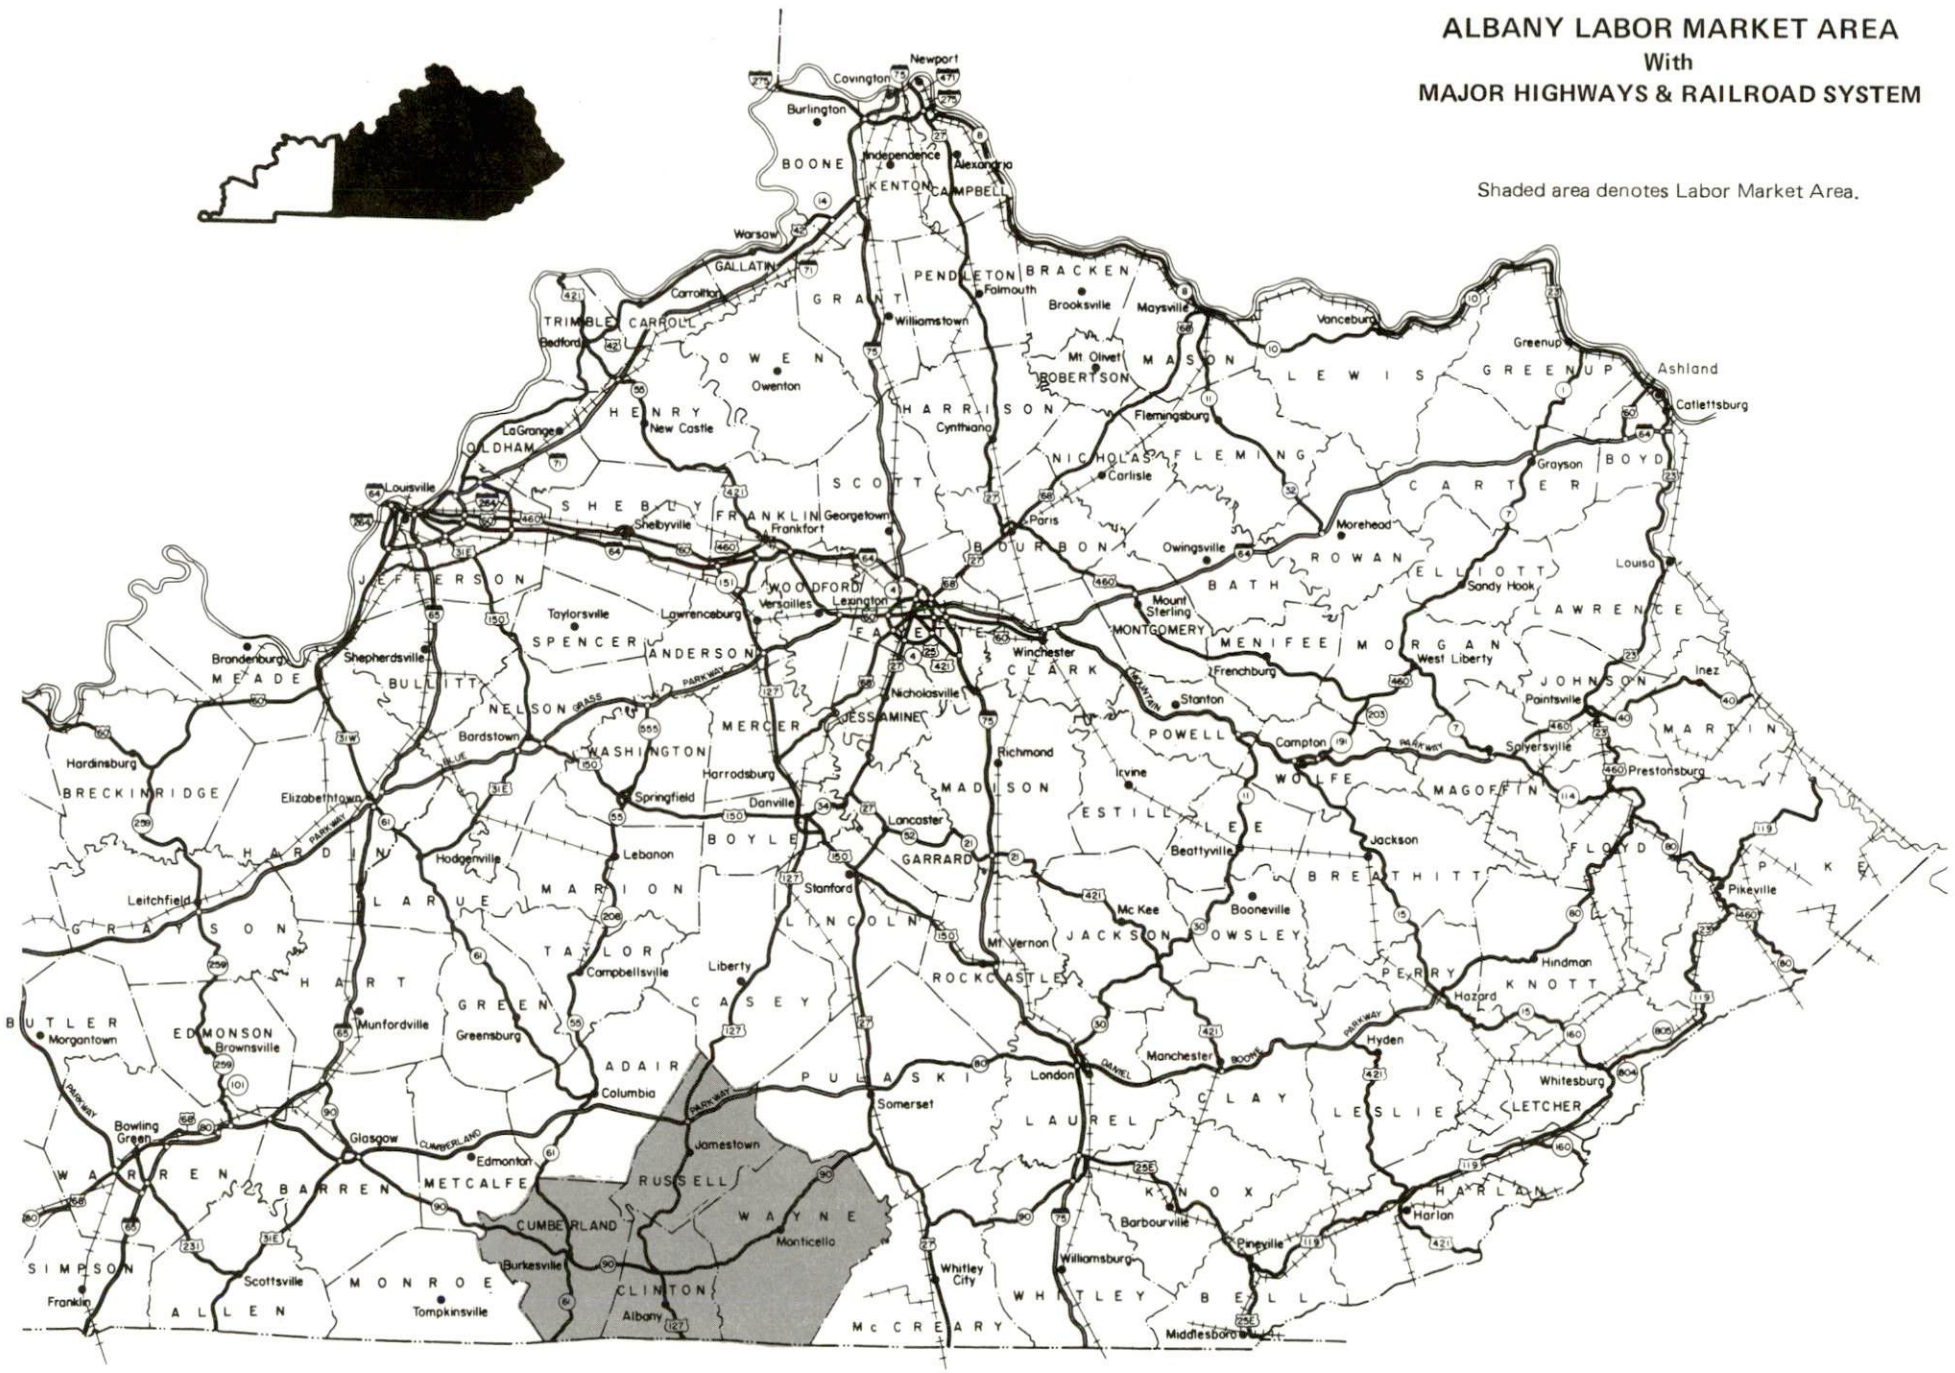

Transportation - Albany is served by U.S. Highway 127 and Kentucky Route 1590, both "AAA"-rated trucking highways. Clinton County is served by Kentucky Route 90, also a "AAA"-rated trucking highway. The Cumberland Parkway is located 35 miles north of Albany, while Interstate 40 is located 49 miles south of Albany. Interstate 65 and Interstate 75 are located 70 miles northwest and 79 miles east, respectively. Eleven trucking companies provide Albany with interstate and/or intrastate service. Blue Grass Airport and Nashville International Airport provide the nearest scheduled commercial airline service. Spring Creek Airport, four miles south of Albany, has a 4,500-foot paved runway. The Monticello-Wayne County Airport, one and one-half miles north of Monticello, 27 miles northeast of Albany, maintains a 4,000-foot paved runway. The nearest rail service is provided by Norfolk Southern Corporation at Burnside, Kentucky, 46 miles northeast of Albany.

Power and Fuel - Electric power is provided to Albany and Clinton County by South Kentucky Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation. Natural gas service is provided by Gasco.

Education - Primary and secondary education is provided to Albany and Clinton County by the Clinton County School System. Twelve institutions of higher learning are located within 110 miles of Albany. Vocational training is available at the Clinton County Area Vocational Education Center in Albany, and at the Somerset State Vocational-Technical School in Somerset, 54 miles northeast.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Structure

Albany is governed by a mayor and six council members. The mayor is elected to a four-year term, while the council members each serve two-year terms. Clinton County is governed by a county judge/executive and six magistrates. Each county official is elected to a four-year term.

Planning and Zoning

Albany and Clinton County are not served by a planning and zoning commission at the present time.

Local Fees and Licenses

The City of Albany levies business license fees ranging from $50 to $300 annually, depending on the type of business.

PROPERTY TAXES

The Kentucky Constitution requires the state to tax all classes of taxable property, and state statutes allow local jurisdictions to tax only a few classes. All locally taxed property is subject to county taxes and school district taxes (either a county school district or an independent school district). Property located inside of city limits may also be subject to city property taxes.

Special local taxing jurisdictions (fire protection districts, watershed districts, and sanitation districts) levy taxes within their operating areas (usually a small portion of community or county).

Property assessments in Kentucky are at 100% fair cash value. Accounts receivable are taxed at 85% of face value.

The Kentucky Tech system, through its Training and Development Coordinators, will provide technical assistance and will identify and develop low-cost customized training programs and services for both established and prospective businesses. Businesses wanting to establish a customized training program should contact a Training and Development Coordinator located on the campus of Somerset SVTS.

Assessment Services

Kentucky Tech Career Connections offers to business, education, and government agencies customized assessment in career inventories, interest inventories, psychomotor skills and academic potential, as well as pre-hire assessment. A Career Connections Assessment Center is located on the campus of Somerset SVTS.

Articulation

Articulation agreements developed between various colleges and universities and the Kentucky Tech system allow students to earn credits to be used when matriculating to degree programs at a college or university. Somerset SVTS has articulation agreements with Somerset Community College and Eastern Kentucky University.

Tech Prep

Tech Prep is a combined secondary and postsecondary program of studies that leads to an associate degree or diploma in a vocational-technical field. In Albany, Clinton County High School is in the third year implementation of its tech prep program.

Adult Education Services

Adult education programs are available to adults who want to develop new skills, improve basic skills or earn a high school equivalency diploma. In Albany, adult literacy and adult basic education are provided by Clinton County Adult Learning Center.

Bluegrass State Skills Corporation

The Bluegrass State Skills Corporation, an independent public corporation created and funded by the Kentucky General Assembly, provides programs of skills training to meet the needs of business and industry from entry level to advanced training, and from upgrading present employees to retraining experienced workers.

The Bluegrass State Skills Corporation is a major source for skills training assistance for a new or existing company. The Corporation works in partnership with other employment and job training resources and programs, as well as Kentucky's economic development activities, to package a program customized to meet the specific needs of a company.

RECREATION

Local

Local recreational facilities in Clinton County include a VFW ball park, Seventy-Six Falls Country Club which offers a nine-hole golf course, a swimming pool, and a community center.

Development of Mountain View Recreational Park was recently completed in Clinton County. Portions completed include: a picnic area with shelter, four basketball courts, three ballfields, a playground, and a walking trail. In addition, other facilities are in the development stages including: three tennis courts, a small amphitheater, and a lighting system for the entire park.

The Foothills Festival is an annual event held the third weekend in October. Activities include: dances, a beauty pageant, Old Fashioned Days, a parade, music, a 5K run, a street rod show, a clown show, crafts sales, displays, and many more exciting events.

Dale Hollow Lake State Park is located alongside 48 square miles of surface water in southeastern Cumberland and Clinton Counties. Park facilities include a marina, a swimming pool, a picnic area, and 144 sites for tent and trailer camping. Dale Hollow Lake straddles the Kentucky-Tennessee state line. Several private recreation facilities are located near the lake, including Wolf River Resort and Wisdom Dock in Clinton County.

Lake Cumberland State Resort Park near Jamestown, 26 miles north of Albany, is a 3,000-acre park located on the 63,000-acre Lake Cumberland, which sports excellent bass, bluegill, and crappie fishing. The park features a modern 76-room resort lodge which is perched on a high bluff above the lake. The lodge offers an indoor and outdoor swimming pool, a dining room, gift shop, and a multi-purpose activities center. Other park facilities include 30 cottages, an additional swimming pool, riding stables, tennis courts, hiking trails, a nine-hole golf course, miniature golf, a nature center, a picnic area, and a playground. A marina offers houseboats and fishing boats and motors for rent plus year-round launching ramps. Grider Hill Marina, a privately-owned dock on Lake Cumberland, is located in Clinton County.
