LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Structure

Gallatin County is governed by a county judge/executive and four magistrates. Each official is elected to a four-year term. Glencoe and Sparta are governed by a mayor and four council members. The mayor serves a four-year term, while the council members each serve two-year terms. Warsaw is served by a mayor and six council members.

Zoning enforced - City of Warsaw

Subdivision regulations enforced - City of Warsaw and three miles beyond corporate limits

Local codes enforced - Building and housing

Mandatory state codes enforced - Kentucky Plumbing Code, National Electric Code, Kentucky Boiler Regulations and Standards, Kentucky Building Code (modeled after BOCA code)

Local Fees and Licenses

The City of Warsaw levies an occupational license tax of one percent on wages earned by all persons engaged in a business or occupation within the city. A business license fee, ranging from $12.50 to $250, is levied annually.

PROPERTY TAXES

The Kentucky Constitution requires the state to tax all classes of taxable property, and state statutes allow local jurisdictions to tax only a few classes. All locally taxed property is subject to county taxes and school district taxes (either a county school district or an independent school district). Property located inside of city limits may also be subject to city property taxes.

Special local taxing jurisdictions (fire protection districts, watershed districts, and sanitation districts) levy taxes within their operating areas (usually a small portion of community or county).

Property assessments in Kentucky are at 100% fair cash value. Accounts receivable are taxed at 85% of face value.
