Welcome to our inaugural newsletter!

April is National Volunteer Month, so we've got lots of great event information geared towards nonprofit agencies and volunteers. Keep in mind Volunteers in Action's Recognition Ceremony, the ALIVE Center's Volunteer Fair, and don't forget about the FREE workshops hosted or conducted by the ALIVE Center staff. We're always open to suggestions about our services, so please feel free to comment about our newsletter. Let us know if there's something we need to add. In closing, many thanks to all the nonprofit agencies and volunteers for the support and resources they provide to the Bowling Green-Warren County area!

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE FOR ADMISSIONS IS MAY 20, 2006

Volunteers in Action

Volunteers in Action is a group of Volunteer Coordinators from area organizations dedicated to promoting volunteerism in the BRADD region. Our mission is to offer workshops and networking opportunities for nonprofit directors and coordinators, as well as a Spring Volunteer Recognition Event. VIA meets on the fourth Thursday of every month. Meeting sites vary from month-to-month, so please feel free to contact Cheryl Kirby-Stokes (270-782-0653) or Anne Grubbs (270-842-4281) for more details. All nonprofit agency representatives, staff and volunteers are welcome to attend. We look forward to meeting you!

GRANT SPOTLIGHT:

The Foundation Center

The Foundation Center collects and publishes information on thousands of foundations and charities in the United States. They also conduct research on trends in the grant making field and provide material to the public through regional libraries and through Foundation Center Cooperating Collections. We are fortunate to have an area cooperating collection right here at Western Kentucky University. You can access the Foundation Center database free of charge at Helm-Cravens Library.

Even more exciting, a national Foundation Center representative will be in the area and presenting a FREE workshop on Wednesday, April 5 at 7 p.m. on how to search for grant information using the Foundation Center resources located at WKU. The workshop will take place in the Orientation Room of the Kentucky Building with free parking adjacent to the building. If you are interested in attending please contact Bryan Carson, WKU Libraries, at 745-5007 or bryan.carson@wku.edu. For more general info you can also contact ALIVE Center, Tracy Harkins, Grant Facilitator, at 782-0824.

Kohl's: A Community Partner

As a family-focused company, Kohl's dedicates its charitable efforts to improving health and educational opportunities for children nationwide. Kohl's invites youth-serving agencies to post a volunteer opportunity at Kohl's. Every time five Kohl's employees volunteer for an agency or event, that agency receives $500.

For more information about the local program, please contact Lorri Siewert at Lorri.Siewert@Kohls.com

MILLIONS OF
YOUNG PEOPLE
WILL CHANGE THE WORLD
ON NATIONAL & GLOBAL
YOUTH SERVICE DAY!

National & Global
Youth Service Day 2006
is April 21-23

Millions of youth will participate in National & Global Youth Service Day, the largest service event in the world, on April 21 - 23, 2006. They will tutor young children, engage in disaster relief, register new voters, educate their communities about good nutrition, distribute HIV/AIDS prevention materials and meet many more community needs through their service.

National & Global Youth Service Day supports youth on a life-long path of service and civic engagement, and educates the public, the media, and elected officials about the role of youth as community leaders.

We hope you'll join us!

If you would like to plan a service project for National & Global Youth Service Day, contact Leah Tibbs, Youth Development Coordinator, for project ideas at 782-0812 or leah@alivebg.org.

SAVE THE DATE...

It's almost time for the
