LAWRENCEBURG, KENTUCKY - A RESOURCE PROFILE

Lawrenceburg, the county seat of Anderson County, is located in the rolling to hilly terrain of central Kentucky's famous Blue Grass Region. The 1990 population of Anderson County was 14,571. Lawrenceburg is located 23 miles west of Lexington, Kentucky; 56 miles east of Louisville, Kentucky; and 105 miles south of Cincinnati, Ohio. The city had a 1990 population of 5,911.

The Economic Framework - The total number of Anderson County residents employed in 1991 averaged 6,510. In 1990, manufacturing firms in the county reported 950 employees; wholesale and retail trade provided 756 jobs; 316 people were employed in service occupations; state and local government accounted for 526 employees; and contract construction firms provided 105.

Labor Supply - There is a current estimated labor supply of 13,608 persons available for industrial jobs in the labor market area. In addition, from 1992 through 1996, 12,492 young persons in the area will become 18 years of age and potentially available for industrial jobs.

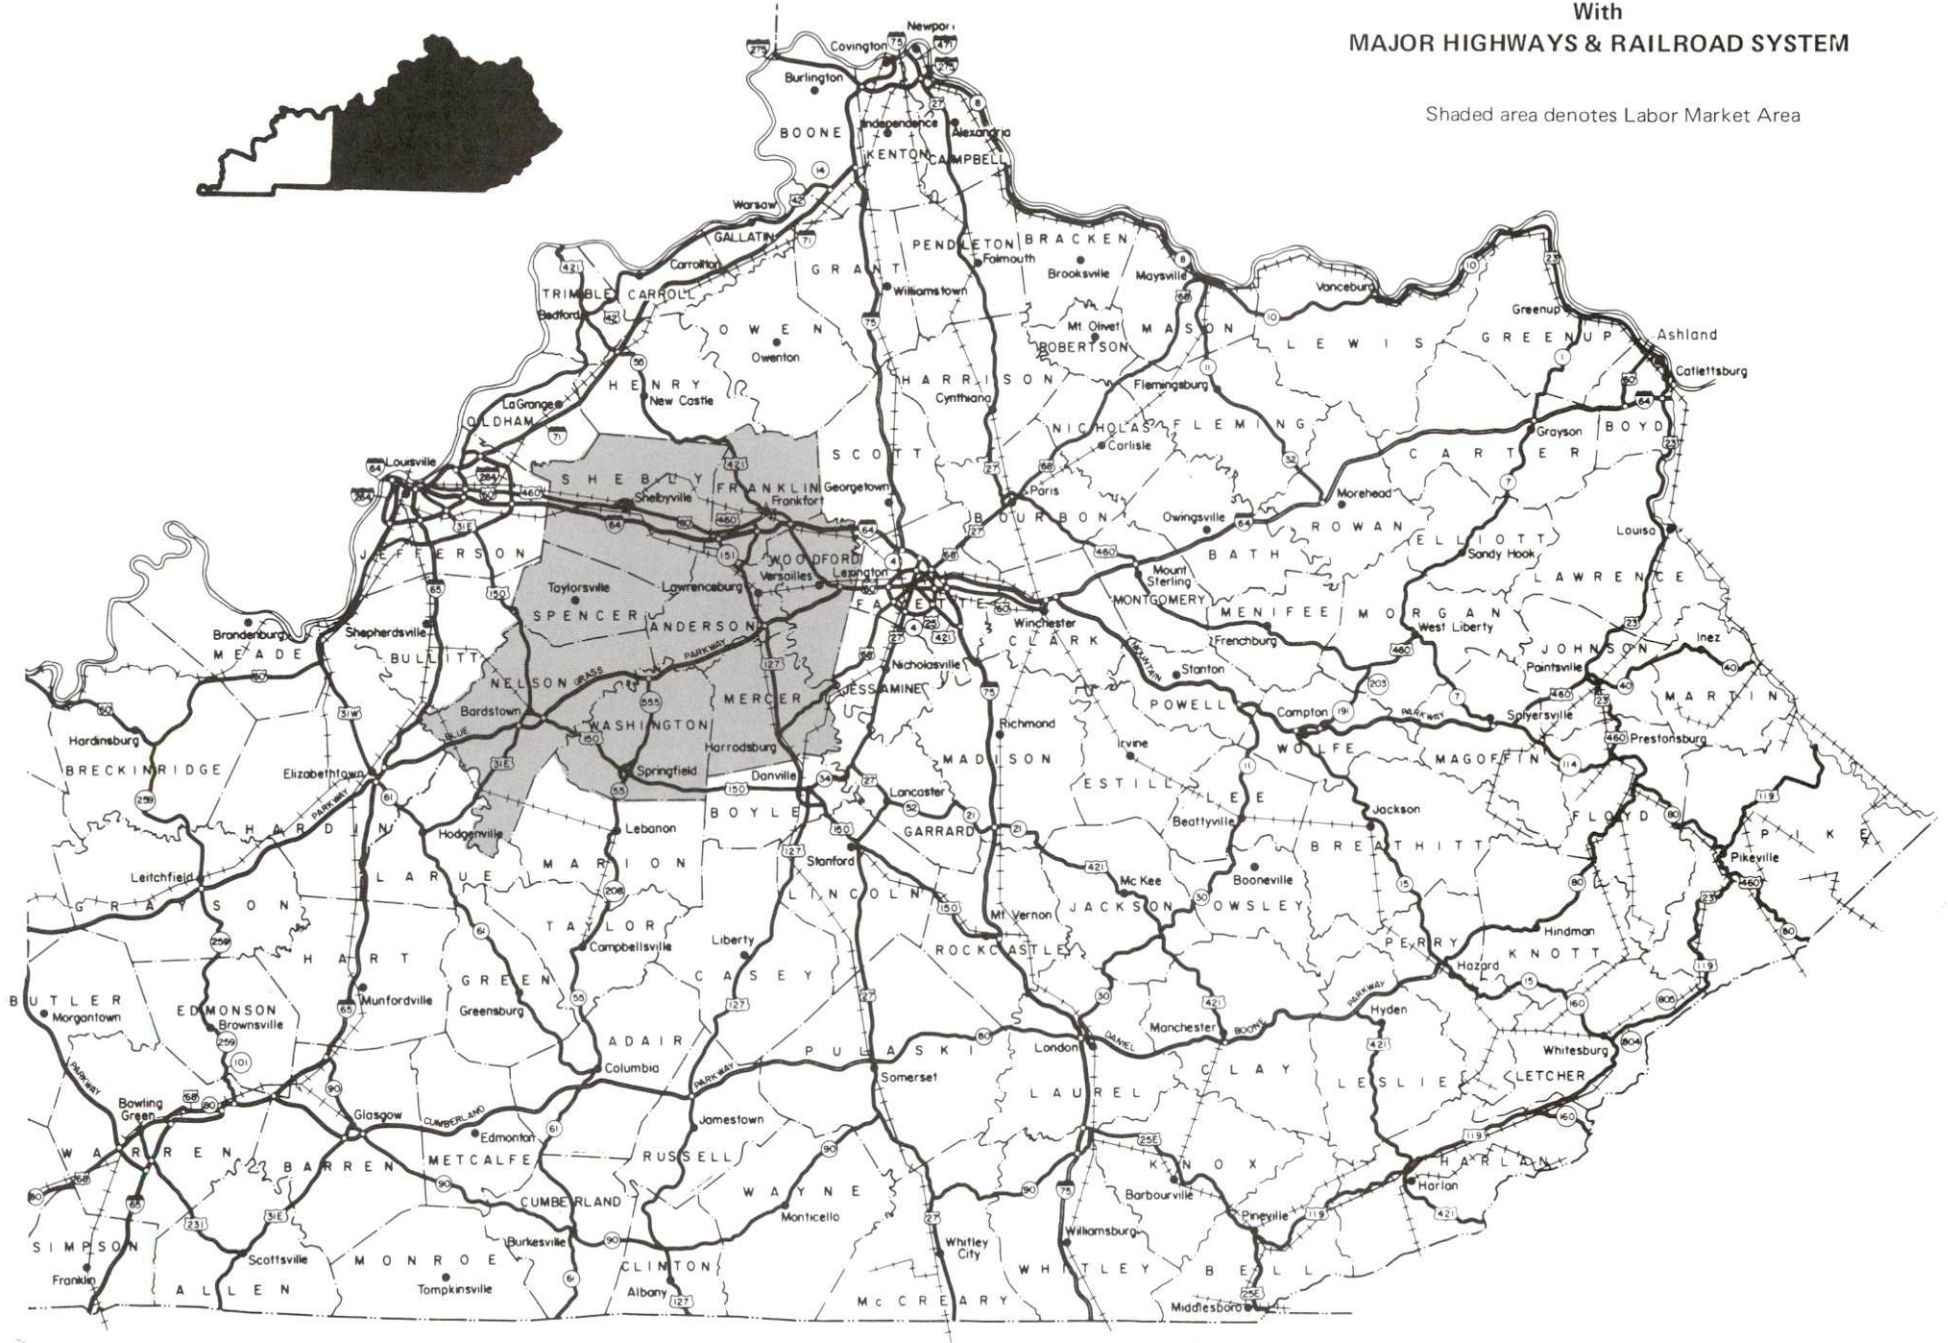

Transportation - Major "AAA"-rated highways serving Lawrenceburg are U.S. Highways 127 and 62, and Kentucky Highway 151. Kentucky Highway 44, a "AA"-rated highway, also serves Lawrenceburg. The Blue Grass Parkway is located four miles south of Lawrenceburg, and Interstate 64 can be accessed 10 miles north. Thirty-six trucking companies provide interstate and/or intrastate service to Lawrenceburg. The nearest small craft airport is located in Frankfort, 14 miles north of Lawrenceburg, and the nearest scheduled commercial airline service is available at the Bluegrass Airport, 18 miles east of Lawrenceburg, near Lexington. Rail service is provided to Lawrenceburg by the Norfolk Southern Railway System.

Power and Fuel - Kentucky Utilities Company provides electric power to Lawrenceburg and parts of Anderson County. Fox Creek Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation serves most of Anderson County. Natural gas service is provided by the Western Kentucky Gas Company.

Education - Primary and secondary public education is provided to Lawrenceburg by the Anderson County School System. There are fifteen institutions of higher learning located within sixty-one miles of the city. In addition, vocational education facilities are available in Frankfort, Harrodsburg, and Lexington, all within 23 miles of Lawrenceburg.

TRANSPORTATION

Highways

Major highways serving Lawrenceburg are U.S. Highways 127 and 62, and Kentucky Highways 44 and 151. U.S. 127, U.S. 62, and Kentucky 151 are "AAA"-rated (80,000-pound gross load limit) trucking highways. Kentucky 44 is a "AA"-rated (62,000-pound gross load limit) trucking highway. The Blue Grass Parkway, a multi-lane highway extending east and west, is accessible four miles south of Lawrenceburg via U.S. 127. Interstate 64, a major east-west highway, lies ten miles north of Lawrenceburg via U.S. 127. Interstate 64 connects with Interstate 75, a major north-south corridor, twenty-eight miles from Lawrenceburg.

Construction is underway to expand a section of U.S. 127 from Franklin County to the Blue Grass Parkway. The $3 million project will add two lanes and should be completed by Fall 1992.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Structure

The city of Lawrenceburg is governed by a mayor and six council members. The mayor serves a four-year term and the council members serve two-year terms. Anderson County is served by a county judge/executive and six magistrates, each of which serves a four-year term.

Planning and Zoning

Joint agency - Lawrenceburg-Anderson County Kentucky Joint Planning Commission

Participating cities - Lawrenceburg

Zoning enforced - All areas

Subdivision regulations enforced - All areas

Local codes enforced - Building and Housing (all areas)

Mandatory state codes enforced - Kentucky Plumbing Code, National Electric Code, Kentucky Boiler Regulations and Standards, Kentucky Building Code (modeled after BOCA code)

Local Fees and Licenses

The city of Lawrenceburg charges business license fees ranging from $25 to $500. Anderson County also requires businesses to pay an annual license fee ranging from $25 to $150.

PROPERTY TAXES

The Kentucky Constitution requires the state to tax all classes of taxable property, and state statutes allow local jurisdictions to tax only a few classes. All locally taxed property is subject to county taxes and school district taxes (either a county school district or an independent school district). Property located inside of city limits may also be subject to city property taxes.

Special local taxing jurisdictions (fire protection districts, watershed districts, and sanitation districts) levy taxes within their operating areas (usually a small portion of community or county).

Property assessments in Kentucky are at 100% fair cash value. A 15% reduction is automatically granted for accounts receivable.

Vocational Training

Vocational training is available at both the state vocational-technical schools and the area vocational education centers. The state vocational-technical schools are post-secondary institutions. The area vocational education centers are designed to supplement the curriculum of high school students. Both the state vocational-technical schools and the area vocational education centers offer evening courses to enable working adults to upgrade current job skills.

Arrangements can be made to provide training in the specific production skills required by an industrial plant. Instruction may be conducted either in the vocational school or in the industrial plant, depending upon the desired arrangement and the availability of special equipment.

Bluegrass State Skills Corporation

The Bluegrass State Skills Corporation, an independent public corporation created and funded by the Kentucky General Assembly, provides programs of skills training to meet the needs of business and industry from entry level to advanced training, and from upgrading present employees to retraining experienced workers.

The Bluegrass State Skills Corporation is the primary source for skills training assistance for a new or existing company. The Corporation works in partnership with other employment and job training resources and programs, as well as Kentucky's economic development activities, to package a program customized to meet the specific needs of a company.

RECREATION

Local

The recreational opportunities in Lawrenceburg include baseball, softball, basketball and soccer. There are two public parks in Lawrenceburg which provide access to three playgrounds, a swimming pool, an 18-hole golf course, tennis courts, and football fields.

Beaver Lake, located approximately 10 miles southwest of Lawrenceburg off U.S. 62, provides a 170-acre fishing lake. Facilities at the lake include boat slips, year-round boat rental and primitive camping.

Lexington, 23 miles east of Lawrenceburg offers a variety of cultural, sporting, and recreational activities. Thoroughbred and harness racing is presented at Keeneland Race Course and the Red Mile Harness Track offering several meets each year. The University of Kentucky and Transylvania University provide a number of sporting events. The University of Kentucky, a perennial national power, holds basketball games at Rupp Arena. Other attractions include Lexington Philharmonic concerts, Lexington Children's Theatre, Lexington Children's Museum, and plays performed by Broadway touring companies, all held in the Opera House. In addition, located in the heart of downtown Lexington, the historical Victorian Square and Festival Market Place offer a taste of nostalgia with their many quaint shops and restaurants.

COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENTS

Lawrenceburg was chosen as a "Kentucky Certified City" in 1991. The award is based on achievement in the following categories:

Economic development (includes tourism or industrial development) community organization, utilities, infrastructure, community appearance, downtown revitalization, education, and recreation. The Certified Cities Program is sponsored by the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce.

Recent

Anderson Packaging, Inc. has completed construction of a 34,075 square-foot manufacturing facility. The plant manufactures chipboard and corrugated products and employs ten people.

Universal Fasteners, Inc. is undergoing a multi-million dollar project which will add 84,000-square feet to the plant.

Pedigreed Specialty Furniture Products recently initiated operations in Lawrenceburg. The facility employs ten people and manufactures four-drawer waterbed pedestals.

General Cable Company has recently increased its employment by 22 with the anticipation of hiring 12 additional workers in the near future.

The city of Lawrenceburg has completed a 500,000 gallon clear well storage tank.

A new Anderson County Health Department was constructed in 1991. This facility will offer expanded services to the community.

Underway

Construction is underway to expand a section of U.S. 127 from Franklin County to the Blue Grass Parkway. The $3 million project will add two lanes and should be completed by summer 1992.

The Anderson County School System has $1.6 million of improvements underway at the high school. These improvements include construction of a new library, home economics complex, and bandroom. The old library will be renovated into two additional classrooms and one special education classroom and the current home economics area will be converted into two large computer business labs. Completion of these improvements is scheduled for fall 1992.

Planned

Construction on a new $5 million advanced-technology vocational school will begin in November 1992. The "high-tech" vocational school's program will be based on local business and industry needs and will promote programs for training and preparing industrial laborers.

Lawrenceburg is in the early planning stages to establish a radio station for the area.

The Anderson County Fiscal Court is in the initial planning stages to construct an annex building adjacent to the existing courthouse. Additional office space and a new courtroom will be housed in the building.
